Scholastic Leaders

Principal R. P. Johnson last week announced that Cassie Myrick Gibson is this year's valedictorian and Sherrie Upole the salutatorian. Cassie is the daughter of B. C. Myrick and the foster daughter of Mrs. Maude Gibson, both of West End. In addition to her high scholastic record, she has served the Presbyterian Church, of which she is a member, as president of the Senior High Fellowship, president of the Youth Federation and assistant secretary and treasurer of the Sunday School and member of the choir. She served as editor-in-chief of this year's Annual, was awarded the "Homemaker of Tomorrow" award and was chief marshal her junior year. In her Scouting activities, she received the coveted curved bar award.

Sherrie is the versatile daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Upole. She is a member of the Presbyterian Church, and has held all the offices in the Senior High Fellowship, is a member of the choir and Sunday School teacher. An outstanding athlete for four years, she received the All-Conference award in basketball and played in the All Star game at Siler City. She was co-captain of her basketball team and served as president of the Monogram Club. She was historian for the Moore County Future Homemakers and was a member of the local group for four years. Her other activities include typing award, bus driver, and assistant editor of the Annual. In Scout work she also received the curved bar and held all offices in the organization.

All Pledged In

It was almost a school district project in behalf of the seniors' trip to Washington last Wednesday through Sunday. The fine group of young people wish to express their deepest appreciation to all who helped make this trip "a dream come true," particularly to the Rev. George Houck, who accompanied them and whose fun and enthusiasm was a wonderful addition to the trip; to Mrs. G. A. Munn, who gave her time to teach for Miss Bert McCrummen who, also, accompanied the class. Then there was the Rev. H. A. McBath, who most graciously conducted the worship service at the Presbyterian Church so that he, too, could have a part in the project.

Funds made at the Harvest Festival sponsored by the PTA went to defray the expenses of the trip, of which Mrs. Bob VonCanon served as chairman with the able assistance of Mrs. Bob Youngblood and Principal Johnson. Everyone who gave time and money was well repaid for his efforts when the Rev. Mr. Houck and "Miss Bert" reported that the conduct of the class was beyond reproach. The kind of young people who have fun and in a clean, wholesome way.

And what a trip! They stopped at the elite South Gate Motor Hotel in Arlington, Va., complete with heated swimming pool, TV, helicopter service, and recreation hall. Their Congressman Paul Kitchin received them in the Nation's Capitol and made it possible for them to visit the Hall of Congress at which they witnessed a roll call vote and saw Speaker Sam Rayburn.

Joining the class Friday for sightseeing was W. E. Jackson, Jr., who was stopping in Washington en route to Columbia University in New York where he is making possible plans for study on his Ph. D. At the Cinerama (broad screen) show they saw a complete story of South Sea Island. And in the theater whom should they meet but Mrs. R. R. Ramsey of Charlotte Court House, Va., who was also with a group touring Washington. The class was particularly interested that Nancy Ramsey, a former member of this school, was on a tour in New York City and that she was one of the National Merit Scholarship winners, making a grade of 98! The driver with the chartered bus was with them to provide transportation at all times.

En route to Glenn Echo recreation area in Maryland they drove down Embassy Drive, home of Foreign Ministers to this country. The Rev. Mr. Houck took a ride on a roller coaster at the recreation area and Miss Bert says she rode on the hobby horses but sat in the seats! While the class was seeing the sights they ran into the senior delegations from Aberdeen, Candor, and Cameron. Such a small world! Among the sights of particular interest were Mt. Vernon, the Change of the Guards at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington, visit to the National Airport, and to the Lincoln, Jefferson, and Washington Memorials. At the Washington Monument most of the class walked up the 898 steps with Sherrie Upole and Hanford Thomas even walking back down. In the Archives of History, they saw our Constitution, Declaration of Independence, and the Bill of Rights sealed in glass with helium to prevent deterioration. Impressed, as true young Americans, by the fact that these articles could be lowered, in a matter of seconds, to a bomb proof shelter.

A vesper service was conducted by Mr. Houck on Friday evening after which Miss Bert entertained the group with a party. Following a tour of the Washington Cathedral Sunday morning they worshipped there and participated in the impressive Communion Service, after which they left for home more proud than ever to be American citizens.

"A poor beginning makes a good ending." Prior to the trip Wednesday morning, there was a mix-up at the bus bend quarters and the class who assembled at the school to leave by 8 o'clock (before the other students arrived for the day to save confusion) really got off only a little before noon.

Again, we are proud of our young people who will soon graduate from our High School.

For the 8th grade, their trip to Raleigh by chartered bus Friday, accompanied by Coach Vance Wilson, was almost equal to the Washington trip for the seniors. They enjoyed a picnic lunch at Pullen Park, and made a tour of the State Capitol, the Governor's Mansion, Museum, Education building, School for the Blind, the Penitentiary, and State College.

Attend Camporee

Twenty West End Boy Scouts attended a tri-county camporee from Friday to Sunday at a camp near Siler City. Z. B. Conrad, chairman of the Scout Committee, was with the troop during the entire period with able assistance from Floyd Cole, Moore County camping chairman, Scout Commissioner Bob Youngblood, and George Robbins. There were two adult advisors with the troop at all times.

The Camp included Scouts of Moore, Chatham, and Lee with the local boys ranking second in camping efficiency, winning the red ribbon.

Church News

The Rev. H. A. McBath conducted the Sunday morning worship service at the Presbyterian Church. Miriam Gibson sang a solo "O Rest In the Lord," by Mendelssohn. The Rev. and Mrs. McBath were dinner guests of Mrs. George Houck.

The men of the Presbyterian Church had a supper meeting Sunday evening with Earl Auman presenting a program on "Extending the Church into Every Area of Life."

The Women of the Presbyterian Church had an intensive Bible study Monday evening of the Book of Revelation. Spiritual Life secretary, Mrs. G. A. Munn, was chairman of the study group, assisted by Mrs. George Houck and Mrs. Clyde Auman.

The women enjoyed a covered dish supper during the study with Miss Mary Ritter, Mrs. Munn, and Mrs. Houck in charge of arrangements.

Girls of the Senior High Fellowship of the church, which included Miriam and Cassie Gibson, Sherrie and Judy Upole, and Nancy Auman, were special guests.

Attending a sub-district meeting of the WSCS in Troy Wednesday were Mrs. W. A. Johnson, Mrs. E. L. Sutphin, Mrs. A. J. Hanner, Mrs. Ralph Fowlkes, Mrs. J. F. Sinclair, Mrs. Lee Sutphin, and Mrs. Ethel Davis.

Brief Mention

Mrs. Paul O'Brien with Wayne and Karen of Rapids, W. Va., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cox, last week.

Attending a Lions cabinet meeting in Sanford Sunday evening were Zone Chairman Roy Swaringen, President Floyd Cole, and Secretary Alton Munn.

Attending the May Day program at Flora Macdonald College Saturday afternoon were Mrs. M. C. McDonald, Mrs. Ernest Currie, and Mrs. Ollie Currie.

At Ocean Drive for the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Fletcher, J. B. Barnette, and W.

E. Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cox and Christy have moved into their new home on the Eastwood road.

Mrs. Cyrus Donaldson had surgery last week at Moore Memorial Hospital.

George Ross attended the State College Alumni luncheon in Raleigh Saturday. Mrs. Ross spent the day with the William Ross family, also of Raleigh.

Visiting in Charlotte Tuesday were Miss Grace Donaldson, and Mrs. John C. Grier of Pinehurst.

the All-Electric Medallion Way!

A whistle-clean kitchen may not set your feet to tapping but it can make mealtime easier on your feet and disposition. And for better kitchens today, a busy homemaker like yourself should select the all-electric Medallion Home standard as your guide to gracious living.

Mealtime chores just slip by more smoothly when the flameless efficiency of electricity speeds and eases your way. And, of course, the heart of a modern kitchen is the safe, clean cooking of an electric range.

Then for all the hot water you'll ever need, rely on the silent service of a fully automatic electric water heater. There will be plenty of hot water ready when you turn that after-dinner chore over to an automatic dishwasher. You can relax while it scours the pots, pans and dishes to new-penny brightness.

So wait no more, my lady. Step up to a better kitchen today the all-electric Medallion way. A good place to start is with your electric appliance dealer. See him soon. Then, for a FREE FOLDER about the all-electric Medallion Home, just call or write your CP&L representative.
