Baccalaureate Service

"Dare to be a Daniel, dare to stand alone, dare to have a purpose firm! Dare to make it known!" was the challenge hurled at the 16 members of the Vass-Lakeview High School graduating class at the baccalaureate service held Sunday evening in the school auditorium with a large gathering present.

The speaker, the Rev. Wallace L. Smarr of the First Baptist Church, took as his subject "The World You Will Have To Face," and his message, delivered with a marked degree of earnestness, drew much favorable comment.

Mrs. Kate McInnis was pianist for the service, which opened with Zellner's "Meditation at Evening" as a prelude. The Senior Class, led by Mascots Ann Boggs and Jimmy Mullinix, marched in to the strains of Mendelssohn's "War March of the Priest." The high school chorus sang "Gloria Patri," which was followed by an invocation by the Rev. Fant Steele and two more numbers by the chorus, "Jacob's Ladder" and "Thanks Be to God." Six girls and six boys of the chorus sang "Oh Master, Let Me Walk With Thee." Mrs. W. E. Gladstone directed.

Supt. John McCrummen welcomed the assemblage, announced additional events of the commencement season, and introduced the speaker. The Rev. Mr. Steele gave the benediction, followed by a prayer response by the chorus and the recessional.

Serving as marshals were seven juniors, chosen on a scholarship basis. They are: Vera McInnis, chief; Ann Edwards, JoAnn Brewer, Judy Cameron, Tommie Jessup, Dana Thomas and Joyce Doss.

FHA Installation

With the entire school in attendance, Vass-Lakeview Future Homemakers of America, whose adviser is Mrs. Sadie Maurer, held an impressive and beautiful installation service in the school auditorium on Wednesday of last week.

Officers, outgoing and incoming, were dressed in white; other members wore white blouses, most of them with red skirts, and each wore the FHA flower, a red rose. President Doreene Keith presided. Mrs. Julian Smith treated Miss Leslie's grade in and Bonnie Callahan and Dana Thomas sang "Bless This House." Each outgoing officer stated one of the purposes of the organization, lighting a candle to represent same. The following were installed: Vera McInnis, president; Judy McNeill, vice president; Mary Lynn Oldham, secretary; Catherine Simpson, treasurer; Barbara Thomas, reporter; Ila Marie King, parliamentarian; Sophia Oldham, historian; Joyce Doss, song leader; and Judy Cameron, pianist.

Outgoing officers were: Doreene Keith, president; Vera McInnis, vice-president; Judy Cameron, treasurer; Sophia Oldham, secretary; Dana Thomas, reporter; Pauline Blue, parliamentarian; Ann Edwards, historian; Linda Nicks, song leader; and Myrna McRae, pianist.

The FHA presented two flower baskets to the school for use on the stage.

Special Events

A number of special events have made the closing days of school happy ones for several of the classes.

Miss Neolia McCrummen and her seventh grade pupils enjoyed a sight-seeing trip to Raleigh a few days ago, visiting a number of places of special interest. They went by chartered bus.

Miss Gayle Dunn's fifth grade held a wiener roast at the community house Thursday evening. Wieners and all the accompaniments were enjoyed, followed by games and dancing.

Mrs. P. A. Wilson's eighth grade held a party at the community house, playing games, dancing to recorded music and enjoying refreshments. They had previously visited Chapel Hill.

Miss Louise Leslie's sixth grade pupils held a picnic at the Leslie home last Friday, spreading their lunch on a table on the shady back lawn. Miss Leslie provided drinks.

Mrs. Steve Kuzminski used the school activities bus to transport her fifth grade to her home in Aberdeen a day last week, where they had a picnic lunch. Later, they visited the Coca-Cola bottling plant in Aberdeen and the Carolina Soap and Candle Crafts place between Aberdeen and Southern Pines.

Sgt. and Mrs. Julian Smith treated Miss Leslie's grade in which their son, Johnny, is enrolled, and Mrs. Kuzminski's room, in which their daughter, Sandra, is a pupil, to ice cream and cookies on Tuesday.

Family Get-Together

Mr. and Mrs. John Clark and the latter's brother, Luther Crouse, all of Greensboro, visited Mrs. Clark's sisters, Mrs. A. L. Keith and Mrs. Cortis Thomas and their families Sunday afternoon. The group then went to Ashley Heights to visit another sister, Mrs. Glenn Crissman, and family. The Clarks attended the baccalaureate sermon Sunday night, having a special interest, as Doreene Keith is graduating.

Attend Graduation

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bullock and daughter, Marjorie Leslie, and Mr. and Mrs. Lane Bullock, and family attended graduation exercises of the Fuquay Springs High School last Thursday evening. Jo Anna Painter, niece of the Bullocks, was one of the 80-odd graduates. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Painter, Jo Anna and Tony lived in Vass when the children were small.

Mrs. Cameron Honored

When Mrs. Charles Cameron left home with her husband and sons, Randy and Craig, on Wednesday evening of last week, she thought they were going to Pinehurst to visit some friends. Her surprise was complete when the trip ended at Futrell's lake where members of Methodist Circle 2 with their families were already assembled, and she was told that the supper party was in her honor.

Mrs. Cameron is the retiring chairman of Circle 2, which she served in that capacity since its organization some two years ago. She was presented a novel corsage made by Mrs. Henry Klingenschmidt and Mrs. James Hudson of items suggestive of the principal projects carried out by the circle during her term of office. The new chairman, Mrs. Hudson made the presentation.

A supper of wieners with all the accompaniments was enjoyed and swimming, badminton and horseshoe pitching were engaged in.

Present in addition to the Cameron family were Mrs. Henry Klingenschmidt, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Hudson with Connie Sue and Marsha. Mrs. Lewis Frye and Linda, Miss Carol Foster, Henry Callahan, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Mullinix, Jeanette and Jimmy, Mrs. Bill Mashburn and James, Mrs. Howard Callahan, and the Rev. and Mrs. Fant Steele and Lin.

Presbyterian Men

Presbyterian Men of the Church met Wednesday evening of last week, with W. D. McGill presiding. Sgt. Julian Smith showed slides made during his tour of duty in Korea. Circle 1 provided the supper which was served by three of the members, Mrs. Hugh McLean, Mrs. Bob Edwards and Mrs. Bill Caddell.

Baptist WMS Meets

The Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church met in monthly session last Thursday evening with Mrs. Ray Griffin as hostess. Ten members answered roll call, and there were four invited guests, Mrs. Roy Wilson, Mrs. B. Ring and Mrs. Cox of the New Home Baptist Church on Lobelia Road, and Mrs. Ernest Doss.

"Hawaii, Our 50th State" was the program topic. As each person arrived a flower was pinned in her hair and a lei placed around her neck.

Mrs. Wallace Smarr presided and Mrs. F. L. Taylor led devotions. Mrs. Smarr, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. W. V. Nix and Mrs. Griffin presented the program, after which the hostess served ice cream, cake, salted nuts and Hawaiian punch.

Personals

Joe Edwards and Ralph Church, USN, came from Oceana, Va., to spend the weekend in the home of Joe's parents, Mayor and Mrs. A. G. Edwards, Jr.

W. A. Muse accompanied his cousins, Roy Muse of Hamlet and Mrs. Jewell Hemphill of Cameron to see Chandler Hill McIver of Raleigh, who is a patient at Rex Hospital there, last Sunday.

Mrs. Jack Morgan was called to Wadesboro Monday to see her mother, Mrs. Annie Shankle of Ansonville, who became ill while on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. V. C. McGee. She had gone there to attend the graduation of her grandson from high school, but was unable to attend.

C. R. Pope and son, "Scoot," went to Goldsboro last Thursday to visit Mr. Pope's parents until Tuesday or Wednesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McCraney and sons, Donald and Brewster, of Picayune, Miss., were Friday night guests of Mr. McCraney's cousin, Mrs. D. H. McGill, and Mr. McGill, and visited Mrs. W. D. McCraney Saturday. They went from here to Hamlet to see the A. M. Hemphills, planning to leave their car there and go by train to visit relatives in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Baker and Mr. and Mrs. D. H. McGill went to Charlotte Saturday to attend a dance recital at the Elizabeth School auditorium in which Debbie McGill took part. Debbie was the only small girl to be presented in a solo number, and she was in two other dances. Mr. and Mrs. McGill were to return to Charlotte Wednesday to bring Debbie, their granddaughter, home with them for the summer.

Cameron McLean of Norfolk, Va., and daughter, Mrs. Harris Evans, Charles and Janice Evans, of Wilmington, drove down from Raleigh and called on the N. N. McLeans Monday night.
