Woodmen Circle Plans Benefit Party For Encampment Fund

THURSDAY, JUNE 4, 1959

Dogwood Grove No. 253 of the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle met Wednesday night with Mary Scott Newton presiding. Plans were made to have a junior encampment benefit party on Saturday night, June 20, in the Woodmen hall, the proceeds to help defray expenses of junior members who will attend the August encampment near Charlotte. Named as an arrangements commttee for the party were were Miss Barbara Pierce, Mrs. Amelia Crain, Mrs. Raywill Pearce and Miss Louise Crain.

Saturday night, June 27, was set as family picnic night at Pinebluff lake. All members of the circle and camp are asked to bring well filled baskets and enjoy an evening of fun and fellowship. Miss Pearce will make arrangements for the shelter at the lake.

Mrs. Pearce gave an interesting detailed report on the state convention held recently in Asheville.

Mrs. Katie Lee was welcomed into the circle as a new member. President Newton has set up a trial test run whereby each officer will make a quarterly report, giving an outline of all activities she has done for the good of the society. The first report covering the months of July, August and September will be given at the October meeting.

All members present enjoyed looking through the three prize winning scrapbooks which were on display. Refreshments of cookies and MISS JUNE DAIRY MONTH in Moore County is Elizabeth Saunders, 17, a rising senior at Elise High School in Robbins. She is shown here flanked by Arden Fobes, at left, of Southern Pines, the runner-up, and Carolyn Williams, of West End. Elizabeth was picked from a field of seven girls by a three-member panel of judges which included J. Talbot Johnson of Aberdeen, Mrs. Henry Graves of Southern Pines, and T. Roy Phillips of Carthage. She will represent Moore in the eight county contest to be conducted tomorrow (Friday) night at the pool at Howard Johnson's Motor Lodge. Other contestants will come from Lee, Harnett, Richmond, Hoke, Scotland, Cumberland, Sampson and Robeson Counties. The winner of that contest will then go to Greensboro where, during a three day festival June 23-25, a State Dairy Princess will be selected.
