Teacher Lists For East And West Southern Pines Schools Announced

Plans For Banquet Honoring Dawson Are Taking Shape

The planning committee for the testimonial banquet in honor of Dr. A. C. Dawson, announced today that it was now in the process of selecting an appropriate appreciation gift for Dr. Dawson and his wife, and that those wishing to participate may do so by sending their contribution to Norris Hodgkins, Jr., at the bank.

Dr. Walter Sargeant, chairman of the committee, said that Governor Hodges has accepted the invitation to be guest speaker for the occasion.

Tickets for the banquet, to be held at 6:30 September 4 in the high school cafeteria, are being distributed by the following civic clubs: Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions, Junior Chamber of Commerce, Parent-Teachers Association, and also by Hodgkins and Johnny Hall.

Tickets will be limited to 250 and there are a few for sale to the general public.

The public meeting in Weaver Auditorium, which follows the banquet and at which Governor Hodges will speak, is open to everyone. It is scheduled for 8 p.m., immediately following the banquet.

Gales Sentenced To Prison On Murder Charge

Donstan Gales, 46-year-old Jackson Hamlet Negro, lost his bid for freedom in Moore Superior Court Wednesday when a jury found him guilty of manslaughter in the fatal shooting of his wife Bertha. He drew a prison sentence of not less than 10 nor more than 15 years.

The verdict was the lesser of two of which Solicitor M. G. Boyette had said he was seeking one or the other—the alternative being murder in the second degree.

The defendant, freely admitting all circumstances of the shooting, had pleaded not guilty by reason of self-defense. His attorneys put up a stiff fight, and the trial lasted from early Tuesday afternoon till mid-afternoon Wednesday.

Gales in lengthy testimony related that his wife was advancing on him with a knife when he shot her in fear for his own life. Though another witness said he too had seen the knife, officers said no knife was ever found.

Sandhills Bowlers Plan Association

A preliminary organizational meeting was held Tuesday night at the Civic Club in Southern Pines preparatory to the formation of a Sandhill Bowling Association.

The meeting was called by Col. George H. Garde, manager of the OK Bowl in Southern Pines. W. C. Sanders was elected temporary chairman and presided at the meeting.

Nominations were made for the various association positions with voting to take place at the OK Bowl, ending Wednesday, August 26 at 7:30 p.m.

Nominated for president were: W. C. Saunders, Bill Thomasson, Joe Scott, Bob Vancannon and Stowe Cole. Secretary: Joe Carter, Jack Barron, Francis M. Marx, Tommy McNeill and P. G. McRee. Treasurer: Jim Long, William Lee Frank Pollock, Ed Cook and Walter Patnode. Directors: Bill Vancannon, Jim Johnson, Al Rowe and Ronnie Palazzetti.

Bill Vancannon and Al Rowe were named representatives to attend the State Bowling Association meeting to be held in Fort Bragg Saturday.

With one exception the completed teacher lists for both East and West Southern Pines schools were announced this morning by Superintendent Luther Adams.

The one exception, he said, is a mathematics teacher for East Southern Pines and that position is expected to be filled in the next few days.

Mr. Adams reminded parents this week that all children who are entering the school this year for the first time and who did not attend the pre-school clinic last spring may register at the elementary school from 9 a.m. to noon any day next week. All children entering the first grade must be six years of age or before October 15.

He said also that all first grade children must have received shots for whooping cough, tetanus, diphtheria, and a new regulation this year, they must have at least been started on the polio shots.

Students were reminded that school begins September 2, which is a Wednesday. On that day they are reminded to bring the usual fees. School will close at 12:30 on Wednesday, with the first full day scheduled for Thursday.

Teachers will meet at the school Tuesday, September 1, for a "teacher orientation day."

Mr. Adams said that school will be closed Labor Day. Other closings are set for October 6 for the Central District NCEA meeting in Lexington, November 26 and 27 for Thanksgiving and from the end of the year December 18 until January 4 for the usual Christmas holidays. April 15, a Friday, and April 18, a Monday, will be observed as vacation for Easter and school will close June 2.

The teacher lists:

PAIRINGS LISTED

Favorites Advance In First Rounds Of Play In County Golf Tournament

Bill Woodward, defending Moore County golf champion, won his first match last week in the campaign to retain his title. He defeated Will Wiggs of Southern Pines 2 and 1.

Woodward, conceded by observers to have an excellent chance to hang on to the trophy, is in for some trouble this year, however, as Henson Maples, greenskeeper at Pinehurst, showed his mettle by defeating Bill Thrailkill in first round competition by the lop-sided margin of 7 and 5.

Davis Worsham, who has been shooting consistently in the low 70's this year, defeated Charles Rose 1 up on 19 holes to offer himself as a candidate for the championship trophy.

The matches, being played on the No. 2 course at Pinehurst, also saw their first round results in the championship flight: Joe Carter defeated J. Hufford 4 and 2; Carlos Frye defeated Pete Tufts 1 up; Bill Sledge defeated Glenn Crissman 4 and 2; Bill Wilson defeated Tommy Currie 4 and 3; and J. H. McCaskill defeated Holy Sisk 6 and 5.

Losers in the championship flight make up the second flight. Results in other flights:

Second flight—Joe Montesanti defeated Tom Shockey by default; Harry Davis defeated Jack Carter 4 and 3; Ed Comer defeated George Short 1 up; and Bill Purcell defeated O. T. Parks 4 and 2.

Third flight—Dr. E. M. Medlin defeated Louis Honeycutt by default; Topper Parks defeated North Lewis 3 and 2; Bob Strauss defeated Jim Prim 2 and 1; and Harry Chatfield defeated Don Mangum 2 and 1.

Fourth flight—E. J. Austin defeated Boyd Starnes 1 up; W. F. Thrower defeated R. H. Johnson 3 and 1; Al Brezinski defeated Jim Besley 5 and 4; and Leonard Jones defeated Don Murray 2 up.

Fifth flight—W. M. Puckett defeated T. I. Wilson 2 and 1; Glenn Lassiter defeated H. L. Williams 5 and 3; Francis Rainey defeated Bill VonCanon 2 and 1; and Leonard Yearby defeated Frank Edwards 3 and 2.

Sixth flight—Fred Pollard defeated R. W. McLeod by default; Harold Collins defeated Walter Robertson 1 up; Earl Pickett defeated Dave Ginsburg 1 up; and Bobby VonCanon defeated Henry Turner 4 and 3.

Seventh flight—Frank Trotter defeated William R. Taylor 3 and 2; and Wells defeated Alexander by default.

Pairings this week:

Championship flight—Woodward vs Worsham; Joe Carter vs Carlos Frye; Maples vs Sledge; and Wilson vs McCaskill.

First flight—Wiggs vs Rose; Hufford vs Tufts; Thrailkill vs Crissman; and Currie vs Sisk.

Jaycees Announce Golf Carousel Dates In November Couples Division Is New This Year; Announcements Mailed

The 6th annual Golf Carousel, under sponsorship of the Southern Pines Junior Chamber of Commerce, will be played November 19-22, it has been announced by Norris Hodgkins, Jr., who is the Jaycee chairman of the event.

Some 7,000 announcement letters have been mailed, he said, and about 3,500 brochures describing the event will be mailed within the next two weeks.

The tournament this year, as in the previous five, will be played over the courses at Mid Pines, Pine Needles and the Southern Pines Country Club. Qualifying will be held November 19, the opening day, and the championship matches will be played at Mid Pines on November 22. Each year the championship matches move to a different club.

Hodgkins said one change of note from previous tournaments had been decided on for this year's event, the inauguration of a "couple's division." In the past, he noted, women who entered generally had their husbands as partners, or teamed with another woman. This year all women will be in the couple's division and will compete for separate prizes from the men's division.

What it boils down to, he further explained, is that there will be two divisions, one for couples, one for men. Each division will have separate prizes in each flight.

Charles Marcum of Southern Pines, a professional golfer who represents the Hillierich and Bradley sports equipment firm, has been retained this year as the tournament director.

An advisory committee, with representatives from each of the three clubs, has been meeting with the Jaycees for the past few weeks to make arrangements for the tournament. On the committee are Bill Weldon of Mid Pines, Warren Bell of Pine Needles, and Carlos Frye and Tom Shockey of Southern Pines Country Club.

Jaycee committee chairmen are as follows: brochure and advertising, Gene Lee; entertainment, Richard Mattocks; invitations, David Sedberry; finance, Tom Craven; and trophies, Joe Currie.

Thomas Ruggles is assistant general chairman.

Hodgkins said that entry fees would be the same as last year: $20 per person, $40 per team. The entry fee pays for four rounds of golf, all entertainment and the trophies.

Headquarters this year will be at the Pine Needles Club.

Hodgkins reminded local players who planned to enter that they may contact any of the Jaycees mentioned for further information.

Daniels Seeking Third Win In Net Tourney

Unseeded Player From Asheville Cops Junior Title

Tall black-haired David Morgan of Asheville won his first championship trophy this morning when he beat Jim Causey of Davidson 6-3, 6-2 in junior boys' singles finals of the Junior Sandhills Invitational.

The boys played a fine tough match, and Causey, just 15, put up a brilliant fight but Morgan had the edge in years and weight.

Morgan, fourth-seeded, had previously knocked off the No. 1 seed, Stanley Cocke, also of Asheville, while Causey ousted second seeded William Poore of Belton, S. C., in semifinals marked by upsets.

Causey, still eligible for boys' play (up to 15) was No. 1 seed in boys' singles and successfully defended his 1958 crown against Ray Stallings of Goldsboro, 9-7, 6-4.

Morgan and Causey also each took home a doubles championship trophy. Morgan and Cocke teamed to win the junior boys' doubles over Donny Dial of Columbia, S. C., and Fred Craft of Belton, S. C., while Causey and Jim Sloan of Clinton, S. C., beat (Continued on page 8)

Mrs. Jones Also Seeking Repeat As Event Opens

"Big Sam" Daniel of Leaksville and Mrs. Raymond Jones of Fort Bragg, returning to defend their 1958 singles crowns in the Sandhills Invitational, were each seeded No. 1 as play began today in the 11th annual renewal of the event.

Both drew first-round byes and will not see action until Friday. Singles and doubles will be played, and final rounds are expected to be played Sunday on the municipal courts.

Daniel, trying for his third straight win, will have plenty of competition. Other seeds in men's singles—No. 2, Bobby Green of Palm Beach Fla.; No. 3, Ed Hudgins, Greensboro, and No. 4, Jim Robinson of Columbia, S. C.

Green, a Duke medical student, defeated Southern Pines' Malcolm Clark two weeks ago to win the Eastern Carolina championship. Hudgins, a former national boys champion, is, like Daniel, a well known tournament winner, high ranked in the State and the South. Robinson, a newcomer here, is a former No. 1 player on the University of Tennessee team.

Mrs. Jones, former No. 1 player of her native France, made her North Carolina tournament debut here last August. She is the wife of Col. Raymond Jones of XVIII Corps, and the mother of four young children.

Among her competition are Lillian Seabrook and Sally Sebeck of Charleston, S. C., seeded No. 2 and No. 3, and Joanne Cooper of Charlotte, seeded No. 4. Miss Cooper, runner-up to Mrs. Jones here last year, has just successfully defended her title in the Junior Sandhills Invitational.

BAND PRACTICE

Students in all grades at the East Southern Pines school who plan to play in the band this year have been reminded that practice sessions are now underway.

William McAdams, the new director, requests that all band students report to the band room Mondays through Fridays at 9 a.m.

PROGRAM BEGINS THIS YEAR

Books On Alcohol Education Are Distributed In County's Schools

Books and booklets designed to aid in the inauguration of alcohol education in Moore schools, required under the law, were presented this week to the libraries of eight of the schools.

Libraries receiving the books, said John S. Ruggles, chairman of the Moore County alcohol education committee, were those of Southern Pines, Pinehurst, Aberdeen, Carthage, Robbins, Vass-Lakeview and West End, also Pinckney School at Carthage.

These are the county's larger schools. The others will receive the books later if they request them, Ruggles said, as more funds become available. The gifts are financed through State ABC funds, and will be used in eighth grade work.

Presentation of the books for the six schools of the county system (exclusive of Southern Pines and Pinehurst) was made by Ruggles at the Principals Conference held Monday at the Carthage School cafeteria.

Ruggles, who has for 10 years served as chairman of the alcoholic committee of the State Hospitals Board of Controls, under which the State Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center at Butler is operated, told the principals that many of the books are designed for general life adjustment, as alcoholism along with numerous other problems arises from maladjustment before or during the adolescent years. Today's thinking seeks prevention of emotional disturbance in youth, to cut down later costly and tragic ills, he said.

The Rev. Martin Caldwell of Southern Pines, executive director of the county alcohol education committee, also on hand for the presentation, told the schoolmen that, under formulas worked out for estimating prevalence of alcoholism, one out of every nine persons in Moore was destined to have alcoholic problems, and that there were in the county 1,500 present or potential alcoholics.

"To say 'we have no such problem' is wishful thinking," the Episcopal rector said. "We want

Col. Sitterson Is Deputy Secretary Of European Staff

Lt. Col. John D. Sitterson, Jr., 260 N. Ashe St., Southern Pines, has been assigned to headquarters of the U. S. Army in Europe where he is Deputy Secretary of the General Staff.

The 38-year-old officer, who arrived overseas in March, 1957, served with the Seventh U. S. Army headquarters in Stuttgart, Germany prior to this new assignment.

A 1937 graduate of Southern Pines High School, Colonel Sitterson is a 1942 graduate of the U. S. Military Academy at West Point. As well as attending a number of other service schools, he also received an M. A. in International Relations from Georgetown University, Washington, D. C., in 1953.

He commanded the 613th Field Artillery Battalion, armed with the Army's 280-mm cannon, at Fort Bragg, and in Germany, from the fall of 1956 until assigned to Seventh Army headquarters in July, 1958.

Annual Barbecue For Blue Knights Boosters Sept. 2

The Blue Knights Boosters Club has announced that the annual barbecue kickoff dinner will be held at the Southern Pines Country Club September 2.

R. M. Cushman, club president, said that the event, slated just two days before the opening football game for the high school team would be held at the outdoor grill. In addition to the dinner, he said, memberships will be renewed and there is a possibility that a rundown on the outlook for the football season will be presented.
