Aberdeen Man Is New Enforcement Officer With County's ABC Board

SCRATCH PADS, all sizes. The Pilot.

WATCH OUR ADS . . . YOU'LL FIND IT!

Reginald R. "Buck" Smith, a member of the Aberdeen police department for the past three years, has joined the Moore County ABC law enforcement staff.

C. G. Wimberly, former State Highway Patrolman, has accepted the post of night officer with the Aberdeen department, ending a retirement from law enforcement activities of about a year and a half.

Wimberly, a native of Chatham County, served as a patrolman in Moore for seven years, and was one of the most respected officers ever to serve here. He resigned in March, 1958, and was a candidate for Moore County sheriff.

He and his wife and four little daughters live on a farm near Aberdeen where he has an earthworm business.

Smith, 27, was sworn in Saturday as an ABC officer, replacing W. Keith Marks of Aberdeen, who resigned in June to accept a position in Florida. He is 27, a veteran of three years' service with the U. S. Navy, and married to the former Nancy D'Agostino of Harrisburg, Pa. They live in Southern Pines, where Mrs. Smith is employed by the telephone company. His employment brings the county ABC enforcement staff up to full strength, the other officers being C. A. McCallum of Carthage, chief, and W. F. Thrower of Robbins.
