Outdoor Supper

The children and grandchildren of Charlie F. Barringer were at home Sunday and honored their father on his birthday at an outdoor picnic supper Sunday evening.

Mr. Barringer recently retired as conductor on the Norfolk Southern after serving 40 years. Mr. and Mrs. Barringer are vacationing this week in the Western North Carolina mountains.

Married 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Vest were entertained at a reception at their home on Route 1, West End, Sunday afternoon, by their eight children, on their 50th wedding anniversary. Also present were 20 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Music Club

The Carthage Music Club was entertained Friday night by Mrs. L. B. Womack and her mother, Mrs. R. L. Burns, at the Womack home on Sunset Drive, with Mrs. M. J. McPhail, president, presiding. The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. John Cline. Mrs. Charles A. Cox gave some interesting highlights on four composers and Mrs. John Cline reviewed the life of Strauss.

A piano solo, "The Blue Waltz," by Morris was played by Miss Mildred Sinclair. Mrs. Colin Spencer, Jr., played the "Merry Widow's Waltz" and a waltz by Charlotte Davis. A duet, "Invitation To The Dance," by Weber was presented by Mrs. L. R. Sugg and Mrs. H. G. Poole, and a piano solo, "On The Terrace," Evans, by Mrs. H. J. Hall.

Mrs. Harry Byrd of Branchville, S. C., and Mrs. Sam Deahl of Kenilworth, Ill., were guests of the club.

A frozen salad, sandwiches, and an iced drink were served. Mrs. Colin Spencer, Jr., and Miss Ruth Tyson assisted Mrs. Womack in serving.

Birthday Party

Kelly Meroney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Meroney of Rutherfordton, celebrated her first birthday last Thursday afternoon at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Wallace, on Pinehurst Drive.

A large birthday cake, decorated with pink rosebuds, topped with one candle, with Kelly's name across the top, centered the table. Pink candles in silver candleabra and pink streamers extending from the chandelier to the table completed the decorations.

Pink Dutch dolls, as favors, were given to the 12 little guests. Pictures were made of the group during the festivities. Individual iced cakes, ice cream and punch were served.

Personals

Mrs. S. V. Stevens and Miss Alberta Watson of Jonesboro Heights were Monday guests of Mrs. L. R. Sugg.

Mrs. J. E. Muse has returned home after a visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Muse, in Conover.
