

Tom Wicker Joins Tennessee Paper

Tom Wicker, former editorial writer and Washington correspondent for the Winston-Salem Journal, has joined the staff of the Nashville (Tenn.) Tennessean as an associate editor.

Wicker, a native of Hamlet, was at one time associated with the Chamber of Commerce here and was also employed as news editor of the Sandhill Citizen in Aberdeen.

Wicker, who is 33, is the author of six books, the best known of which is "The Kingpin," a story suggested by the 1950 Democratic primary in this state.

The members of the Presbyterian Church and their pastor, the Rev. W. A. Brown, extend a hearty welcome to all to worship with them at the annual Homecoming on Sunday, August 30. The 11 o'clock service will be conducted by the Rev. J. W. Hasel of Marion who is the son of one of the former ministers of this historic church. His father is buried in the local church cemetery. Dinner will be served on the grounds, and after a period of fellowship, a service will be held in the afternoon.

The Rev. and Mrs. Brown returned from a two-weeks' vacation Tuesday, visiting in Richmond, Va., and Massanetta Springs where they enjoyed seeing Martha Currie.

Laymen of the church conducted the worship services during their pastor's absence. George Ross spoke on the "History of Our Church and Its Importance to Our Christian Way of Life." Harris Blake spoke on our "Responsibility as Christians."

Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Clark with Janice and Noel are spending the week with relatives at Vero Beach, Fla.

Mrs. George Barta has returned to Little Neck, Long Island, N. Y., after spending two weeks with her father, M. A. Clark. Miss Evelyn Holliday spent last week with Miss Maude Poole in Raeford and the two visited friends in Belmont during the latter part of the week.

In Raleigh Tuesday were Mr. and Mrs. George Ross, who attended the funeral of W. Trent Ragland.

At White Lake last week were Mr. and Mrs. Ashton Richardson with Larry and Catherine and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Lambeth with Joy, Jim, and Joe. Joining the party on Wednesday for the remainder of the week were Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Thompson with Kenneth and Annette.

On Sunday, for the first time in five years, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Melvin had their family together. There were Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Melvin, Jr., of Macon, Ga., with their four children; Mr. and Mrs. Neil Melvin of Winston-Salem with their two children; Mr. and Mrs. John Caskey of Charlotte with their two children; and Mr. and Mrs. James Massengill of Newport News, Va. This made a grand total of 18 for a wonderful family get-together.

Mrs. Kimes Blake and her three sons were Saturday overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Blake of Columbia, S. C.

In Williamston for the weekend as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Whit Purvis were Mrs. Carl Hudson and Bill Purvis.

Attending the funeral of Mrs. Allie Betts Currie in Camden, S. C., on Saturday afternoon were Herbert Currie, Mrs. Duncan Patterson of Hamlet, and D. A. Patterson of West End.

Mrs. Lena Sullivan and Mrs. J. E. Currie were in Statesville overnight Sunday to visit their sister, Mrs. W. T. Warlick, who is ill in the hospital there.

In Myrtle Beach, S. C., recently were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henderson and Bobby, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Herndon.

WEST END NEWS

By SALLY AUMAN

A group of public spirited citizens met with William Friedman Thursday evening at the school in behalf of a sewing room to be opened here. Mr. Friedman represented the Southern Garment Company of Robbins hoping to open a branch of the company here providing an adequate amount of labor can be secured. There were 90 persons registered on Saturday for work in the sewing room which takes both experienced and inexperienced women. As to age, Mr. Friedman quipped that there is no use asking a woman's age since she will not tell it any way.

The following were elected to serve on the West End Development Committee and to confer further with Mr. Friedman: W. A. Johnson, Jr., Allan McDonald, Bob Youngblood, Fred Monroe, and Leslie Gordon.

The town is really on a boom with four buildings air-conditioned, John L. Frye Company, Youngblood's Drug Store, Phil Nardo's Barber Shop, and the Red and White. The next thing will probably be piped in music to lull the citizens into spending all their money and all they can borrow.

The Women of the Presbyterian Church met Monday evening. Mrs. George Houck related some of her interesting experiences of last month at Union Theological Seminary. Miss Treva Auman spoke on the recent retreat on Women's Work held at Camp Monroe. A program was presented on "Christianity on the College Campuses" by Mrs. Clyde Auman. Mrs. Bob Youngblood and Mrs. Z. B. Conrad were hostesses at a social hour following the meeting.

The WSCS of the Methodist Church met Monday evening in the youth building with Mrs. A. J. Hanner and Mrs. E. L. Sutphin as hostesses. Mrs. Fred Monroe gave a worship service and the program was presented by Mrs. E. L. Sutphin, Mrs. A. G. Tyson, and Miss Beth Richardson.

Returning home Sunday night following a 14-day trip through the New England States and Canada was Miss Alberta Monroe. Miss Monroe was particularly enthusiastic about her trip to the mouth of the St. Lawrence where she saw the raising of the new locks which were recently dedicated. In Boston she was delighted with the Longfellow home in which was the chair made from "The Spreading Chestnut Tree," also with Hawthorne's home and "The House of Seven Gables."

Miss Luna Monroe has been released from Moore Memorial Hospital after having surgery for a broken elbow which she sustained last week. Recent guests of Miss Monroe and Mrs. D. A. Patterson were Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Enney of Portsmouth, Va., Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Diggs of Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Monroe of Hamlet.

Bill VonCanon was an usher in the Robinson-Ewing wedding in Candor Saturday. Others attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. Alton Munn, Mrs. E. R. Outland, the Rev. and Mrs. George Houck, and Mrs. Bob VonCanon.

Guests of the Rev. and Mrs. George Houck are Mr. and Mrs.

John C. Cramer of Talara, Peru. Mr. Cramer, a brother of Mrs. Houck, is with the International Petroleum Company.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Chriscoe, Jr., vacationed last week in the mountains at Burnsville where they visited Mrs. Chriscoe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lewis, and her grandfather, Wade Honeycutt. The family also visited at Carolina Beach and were guests of the W. M. Chriscoes.

Mrs. Henry Brewer of Sanford, Miss Lalan Patterson of Pinehurst, and Miss Treva Auman attended the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Darius Auman, in Warwick, Va., Friday.

Calling on Bob Knox Monday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Emory Knox of Ashland, Ky., en route home after vacationing at Parris Island, S. C.

Reece and Tarrell Graham attended the Well-Digger Convention held last week at Carolina Beach.

Mrs. Gaston Simmons is a patient at Moore Memorial Hospital. Spending the week with John H. McCaskills and Woodrow McInnis families are Dr. and Mrs. Blue McInnis with Dalton and Janice, of Oklahoma City, Okla.

Donald Eifort, who is with the Alcoholic Tax Division of the Internal Revenue Department, will be transferred on the 23rd from his post in New Bern to Durham. Here in West End we are happy the Eiforts will be nearer, but sorry they will not be coming back home.

Calling on Mrs. Claude Auman Saturday afternoon were Mrs. Louis Jones and Miss Aida Jones of Nashville. On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Lena Ladu, Mrs. Rosa Bumpas, and Mrs. Beulah Womack of Carthage called on

Miss Tressie Auman and Mrs. Earl Auman.

It takes approximately 240 pounds of rubber built into your car to remove vibration, bumping, jolting, chilling, soaking and the like encountered in ordinary driving.
