Coffee Hour

The Rev. and Mrs. Rene Bideaux were honored at a coffee hour at the Methodist parsonage on Sunday afternoon, December 27, between the hours of four and five o'clock. The Rev. and Mrs. Brooks, Patten received at the door, welcomed the guests, and presented them to the receiving line composed of the honorees and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Edge, parents of Mrs. Bideaux.

The parsonage was decorated throughout the entertainment area with Christmas decorations. The refreshment table was overlaid with a white cloth and centered with a wreath of greenery and red berries. Lighted tapers in silver candelabra accented by greenery completed the setting. Mrs. Pat Satterwhite and Mrs. H. W. Doub poured coffee and guests helped themselves to individual cakes.

Around 60 friends called during the social hour.

Leave for Costa Rica

The Rev. and Mrs. Rene Bideaux and children spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Edge, and left on Monday evening by train for a stop-over in Savannah, Ga., to visit Mrs. Bideaux's sister and family and then on to Miami, Fla., where they will leave on December 31 for Costa Rica. They are being sent to Costa Rica as missionaries from the Methodist Church and go with the prayers and interest of their many friends and relatives in Aberdeen.

Home and Garden Club

The December meeting of the Aberdeen Home and Garden Club met with Mrs. H. W. Doub and Mrs. F. S. Weaver as hostesses in the home of Mrs. Doub. Christmas decorations were used in the home, with Christmas gifts
