

Women's Activities and Sandhills Social Events

BESSIE CAMERON SMITH, Editor

TELEPHONE 2-4512

Mr. Wavro to Give Christian Science Lecture Here Sunday

The way to gain enduring freedom and happiness will be the topic of a lecture on Christian Science to be given here by Paul K. Wavro on Sunday afternoon, February 21.

Open to the public without charge, the lecture will be sponsored by members of the Southern Pines Christian Science Church. Mr. Wavro will speak in the church auditorium, East New Hampshire Avenue, at 3 p.m. on the subject "How Christian Science Brings Freedom from Limitation."

Mr. Wavro is a native of Cleveland, Ohio. He withdrew from business in 1942 to enter the public practice of Christian Science healing. During World War II, he served as a Christian Science wartime minister. Actively interested in youth work, he was awarded the DeMolay Legion of Honor by the International Supreme Council Order of DeMolay.

VFW Auxiliary Has Inspection; Reports Activities

The VFW Auxiliary met on Wednesday evening of last week with Mrs. James Irvin presiding. Mrs. Eloise Kelly of Sanford, district junior vice-president, inspected the Auxiliary.

Miss Pauline Crain reported that due to illness, only $11 was realized from the March of Dimes party held at her home the evening of January 29, also that the Auxiliary was unable to hold the March of Dimes collection scheduled for Saturday, February 6, but that Paul Butler had asked that this be done on the 13th, weather permitting.

It was reported that Mrs. Louis Garty, Mrs. William Crain and Miss Pauline Crain attended the bingo party given by District 9 for patients at the VA Hospital in Fayetteville on January 26, for which the local Auxiliary provided 25 bingo prizes and 800 pocket size books.

Members made plans for a trip to the State Sanatorium at McCain on Friday to take Valentine favors for the child patients: paper valentines with a decorated cupcake attached to each.

Gail Given on Make-up Committee For College Play

Gail Given of Southern Pines, a sophomore at Woman's College in Greensboro, will serve as co-chairman of the make-up committee for the forthcoming Spanish production, "Take Two From One," by the Theatre of Woman's College.

Miss Mary Davidson Entertains Honoring Mrs. Charles N. Fitz

Miss Mary Davidson of Tompkins Cove, N. Y., who spends the winters at the Hollywood Hotel, was hostess at a Valentine tea there at 4 p. m. Saturday as a birthday compliment to Mrs. Charles N. Fitz, of Chatham, Mass. The guest list included 55, around 30 of whom were hotel guests, the others from outside.

VP Team Tops President's in Silver Foils Tournay

The Silver Foilers of Pinehurst played their annual President vs. Vice-President team matches Tuesday and the VP's, headed by Mrs. Arthur J. Lacey, captured the honors by winning 38 points to the 30.5 chalked up by the President's team, captained by Mrs. Daniel O. Delany. Forty-six members participated.

Beth Turner Serving On Committee for Religious Focus Week

Five visiting speakers are bringing emphasis to the Religious Focus Week theme "Quest for Meaning" on the Meredith College campus, Raleigh, February 15-19.

Anne Rowe of Raleigh is student over-all chairman. She is being assisted by four students, one of whom is Beth Turner of Southern Pines.

LEGION AUXILIARY AT PINEHURST HAS PROGRAM ON AMERICANISM AND DEFENSE

The Pinehurst American Legion Auxiliary met in regular monthly session at the Legion hut there on Wednesday night of last week with 13 members present and two guests, Post Commander George Hunt and Post Adjutant Paul Monroe.

Mrs. Willard Dunlap read minutes of the January meeting and Mrs. James Garrison made the treasurer's report. Mrs. Dan Lewis and Mrs. Ralph Horner gave highlights of the Post Officer's Conference held recently at Goldsboro, which they attended. The group voted to donate gifts of clothing, toys and records to the children's ward at the North Carolina Sanatorium as part of their Child Welfare program, these to be taken to the sanatorium by a committee within the next two weeks.

Mrs. Paul Monroe, chairman of the Americanism and Civil Defense Committee, presented Mrs. Ralph Horner, who gave a talk on Americanism work of the Auxiliary, outlining a five-point program: Americanism in the home, unit, youth groups, adult groups and community. Mr. Monroe spoke on Civil Defense, stressing family preparedness, warning signals, CONELRAD instructions, fallout protection and community plans outlined in "Handbook for Emergencies" which was distributed to each home in the community by the Boy Scouts several months ago in conjunction with the Civil Defense program.

The March theme will be "Community Service and Unit Activities and Constitution and By-Laws," according to announcement by Mrs. Horner, president, who urged all members to be present.

Sandwiches and cupcakes in the Valentine motif and coffee were served during the social hour by Mrs. Bert Clayton and Mrs. Edith Raymond.

Baptist Circles Hold Meetings

Circle 3 of the WMU of the First Baptist Church met Tuesday evening, February 9, in the fellowship hall for a covered dish supper. Mrs. George Little presided over the business session which followed, and Mrs. B. W. Harris had charge of the program. Miss Mary Logan showed a film, "Alcohol in the Human Body." Thirteen members attended.

Mrs. Allan McLaughlin was hostess to Circle 5 Tuesday morning. Mrs. Norman Caudle and Mrs. Maynard Mangum were guests and there were eight members present. Mrs. Frank Hale and Mrs. David Gamble had the program.

Church of Wide Fellowship Notes

Sermon theme on "Brotherhood Sunday," February 21, will be "Personal But Not Individual."

The Youth Fellowship meets in the fellowship hall at 6 p.m. The program: "Why Not One Big Church?"

The Executive Board of the Women's Fellowship will meet Thursday, February 25, at 12:15 p.m., in the church parlor.

The general meeting of the Women's Fellowship will be held at 1:00 p.m., as a luncheon meeting. Mrs. F. C. Lester of Asheboro will be guest speaker.

Mrs. Hodgkins Named Area Chairman for Goucher College Fund

Mrs. Norris L. Hodgkins, 305 North May Street, Southern Pines, has accepted appointment as area chairman for the 75th Anniversary Fund of Goucher College.

A private, independent women's college, Goucher accepts no government subsidy. The goal for the 75th Anniversary Fund is $5 million, of which $2 million is expected to be contributed by Goucher alumnae.

Funds raised will be used to increase endowment for faculty salaries and student scholarships, and for three new buildings needed to complete the new campus in Towson, Maryland, near Baltimore.

Dogwood Grove Sponsors Valentine Party for Juniors

Dogwood Grove No. 253 sponsored a Valentine party for the junior circle and camp members and their little friends at the Woodmen hall Friday night.

The hall was gaily decorated with large valentines on the walls, and smaller ones with suckers attached were hung at various heights from the ceiling, for which each child "bobbed."

The children enjoyed bowling, darts and bingo and prizes were given the winners. The door prize, a coloring book, was won by Margaret Ann Phipps.

Those attending the party were Judy, Gene and Sue Norton, Mary T. Sue and Dempsey Bailey, Virginia Meares, Penny Henderson, Jack Goldsmith, Donnie Smith, Fletcher Adcox, Carolyn Perham, Patty Woodall, Michael and Richard Bohlander, Margaret Ann Phipps, Teddy and Glen Yearby, Kim, Charm, Wanda Vicki and Tony Yearby.

Others enjoying the fun with the children were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Norton, Mrs. John Goldsmith, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Bailey, Mrs. Raywill Pearce, Miss Barbara Pearce, Mrs. Florence Perham and Miss Mary Scott Newton.

Mrs. Ted Yearby and Mrs. Alvin Adcox had charge of all party arrangements and they served refreshments of valentine candies, cookies and cold drinks.

St. Anthony's Mardi Gras Takes Place At Armory Saturday

Mayor Robert S. Ewing and Mrs. Voit Gilmore, honorary chairman, will lead the Grand March, one of the features of St. Anthony's Charity Ball to be held February 20 at the National Guard Armory. Frank McCaskill of Pinehurst will serve as master of ceremonies for the evening. Mrs. Raymond Dougherty is general chairman of the event.

Decorations, which are in the hands of Mrs. Norman Black and her committee, will follow a Mardi Gras theme, featuring floating balloons and clowns. Masks and balloons will be given, free. Dancing will be from 9 to 1, to music by Ed Turbeville and his orchestra, with a star vocalist as an added attraction. Dress is optional.

Those who have not made table reservations may do so by calling OX 2-6421.

Mrs. Lee Smithson is ticket chairman; Joseph Ganis is chairman of the Arrangements Committee, and Mrs. Hollis Thompson is handling publicity.

Beth Turner Serving On Committee for Religious Focus Week

Five visiting speakers are bringing emphasis to the Religious Focus Week theme "Quest for Meaning" on the Meredith College campus, Raleigh, February 15-19.

Anne Rowe of Raleigh is student over-all chairman. She is being assisted by four students, one of whom is Beth Turner of Southern Pines.

SCENE FROM OPERETTA — Above is a scene from the 2-act operetta "White Gypsy," to be presented this Friday at 8:15 p.m. in Weaver Auditorium. The enthusiasm of this group is typical of that of the entire 170-student membership of the Junior High School at East Southern Pines School, all of whom are taking part, on stage or off. Their parents and friends are equally as enthusiastic, as by Wednesday no more tickets were available.

(Photo by Humphrey)

RED CROSS HOME NURSING COURSE WILL START NEXT TUESDAY AT ST. JOSEPH'S

The Moore County Red Cross Chapter has completed plans for the home nursing course, which will be held on Tuesdays and Fridays, February 23, 26, March 1, 4, 8, 11, 15 and 18. Classes will be at St. Joseph's Hospital from 2 to 4 p. m., on each of the days shown above.

The program is designed to train persons in taking care of emergency situations in the home and neighborhood community. It is felt that this program can be particularly beneficial in an area such as Moore County, where the population is substantially in rural and small town communities.

NURSES OF DISTRICT 12 ADOPT NEW SCHEDULE OF FEES FOR PRIVATE DUTY

Adoption of a new schedule of fees for private duty nurses (registered) to become effective March 10 was the principal business at a dinner meeting of District 12, North Carolina State Nurses' Association, held at Blake's Restaurant in Candor on Wednesday evening of last week.

The schedule applies to the four counties included in the district: Moore, Lee, Richmond and Montgomery.

Mrs. Betty McLeod of Candor, district president, conducted the meeting and the Rev. Tom Apperson was guest speaker, using as his subject "Co-Workers Together for God."

The new schedule for general nursing is $14 for eight hours, the present rate being $12.50; 12-hour duty, $24; 20-hour duty, $30. Group Nursing: For first patient, 8 hours, $14; each additional patient, $8; for first patient, 12-hour duty, $24; each additional patient, $10; for first patient, 20 hours, $30; each additional pa-

Duplicate Bridge Club Lists Winners

With six tables playing, the Sandhills Duplicate Bridge Club held its weekly meeting Tuesday night at the Southern Pines Country Club. Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Worth, Jr. were winners. Dr. E. W. Bush and Fred Brindley placed second; Mrs. William J. Burke and Mrs. Margaret Lavery, of Pinehurst, third; and Mrs. James Pleasants and Mrs. Curtis Townsend tied with Mrs. Neill McKeithan and Mrs. Jean Edson for fourth place honors.

Brownson Church Women Send Blankets For Overseas Relief

World Missions was the subject of Monday night's regular monthly meeting of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Women of the Church, and in the business session, presided over by Mrs. A. L. Burney, it was announced that 107 blankets had been sent to the Church World Service Center in New Windsor, Md. for use where needed in foreign mission fields.

Mrs. Dan S. Ray, World Missions chairman, was in charge of the program, which consisted of a panel discussion of the work carried on by the Presbyterian Church in nine foreign countries. Mrs. Harvey Horne was moderator and Mrs. Wayland Blue Mrs. Ward Hill and Mrs. Joe Currie were on the panel. An offering for world missions was given.

The Calcotes Move To Mississippi

The Rev. C. I. Calcote, at one time pastor of the Manly, Vass, and Union Presbyterian Churches, will be installed as pastor of Lebanon-Monroe and Zion Presbyterian Churches, Pontotoc, Miss., on February 21.

The Calcotes moved from their work with Mt. Bethel Presbyterian Church in Durham on February 1. Their new address is 939 N. Brooks St., Pontotoc, Miss.

Valentine Party Attendance Cut By Bad Weather

The ice and snow storm of last weekend cut the attendance at Moore Memorial Hospital Auxiliary's Valentine party to around 150, but those who attended are reported to have had a good time.

The school party was canceled, and other social events that had been planned were either carried out with small attendance or called off. In some instances people were unable to get through driveways because of trees that had been broken by the accumulation of ice.

Looking Ahead

LEARN MORE CLASS
The Learn More Bible Class will meet at 8 p. m. Monday at the home of Mrs. T. C. McFarland, 380 South Kensington Road.

LEGION AUXILIARY
The American Legion Auxiliary will meet at the home of Mrs. F. M. Dwight at 8 p. m. Monday.

INS and OUTS

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Grinnell and Mrs. Jean Edson returned Sunday night from a week's stay in Clearwater, Fla. Mr. Grinnell played in the Quarter Century golf tournament at Dunedin and the girls enjoyed golfing, swimming, sightseeing at St. Petersburg, and relaxing in the Florida sunshine.

Mrs. F. B. Howland of 125 Highland Road and nieces, Mrs. Gertrude Corbin and Miss Mary Corbin, of London, England, returned from a Florida vacation—just in time for the ice storm of last weekend. Miss Corbin has gone back to New York, where she had been for some time, and Mrs. Corbin is remaining for a longer visit with her aunt.

VIRGINIA MARSHALL JONES Accredited Bridge Teacher

Lessons and play every Wednesday morning at 10:15. Duplicate game every Friday night at 8:15. PRIVATE LESSONS
Carolina Hotel, Pinehurst

WE'LL GIVE YOU A FIT!

With

Camp

SURGICAL SUPPORTS AND APPLIANCES

LAST WEEK MRS. CULBRETH COMPLETED THE CAMP COURSE IN SURGICAL AND DAILY-WEAR FITTINGS FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN IN NEW YORK CITY.

COME TO OUR PRIVATE FITTING ROOMS FOR THE BEST IN SERVICE AND COUNSELING FOR FIGURE OR ANATOMICAL PROBLEMS, SURGICAL OR A GOOD-LOOKING GIRDLE OR BRA.

"It's The Fitting That Makes The Difference"

OPEN SUNDAY

CULBRETH'S

Southern Pines Pharmacy

Southern Pines, N. C.

Dana Koshak Celebrates Birthday With Party Tuesday

The home of CWO and Mrs. Edward J. Koshak at 145 South Ridge Street was the scene of a merry party Tuesday night when their daughter Dana celebrated her 15th birthday by entertaining a number of friends.

Colorful balloons were used in the decorations and refreshments in variety, including a decorated birthday cake, were served. Dana's friends presented gifts, and recorded music, dancing, games and charades were enjoyed.

Bridge Club and Guests Lunch and Play at The Hollywood

Twenty-two ladies—members of the Hollywood Bridge Club and guests—gathered around a large table decorated with yellow roses and yellow carnations for a luncheon at the Hollywood Hotel Tuesday, preceding the regular weekly afternoon of play.

Visitors included Misses Hazel and Norma Shiring and Miss Polly Dix, guests of Mrs. Everett Walker, and Mrs. N. L. Hodgkins, Sr., Mrs. H. J. Betterley's guest.

Scrabble was played at one table and the winner was Miss Norma Shiring. Winners at the four tables of bridge were Mrs. Ada Williams, Mrs. Louise Fitch, Mrs. Frank Thompson and Mrs. H. W. Allen.

Members not already mentioned who attended included: Miss Birdilia Bair, Miss Carol Day, Mrs. Carl Foss, Mrs. S. R. Jellison, Mrs. J. I. Neal, Mrs. P. P. Pelton, Mrs. F. M. Trimble, Mrs. Ernest M. Poate, Mrs. F. B. Pottle, Mrs. L. Sawyer, Mrs. Graff and Mrs. Charles N. Fitz.