HUNTER TRIALS AND HUNT BALL ATTRACT MANY VISITORS FROM SEVERAL STATES

This weekend will be a gala one in the Sandhills, with visitors from far and near for the Hunter Trials Saturday and the Hunt Ball and Dinner to be held that evening at 7 o'clock at the Moore County Club. Many of these are annual visitors, enjoying reunions with friends of the same interests, while others are here for the first time.

Among the former group are Mr. and Mrs. J. Blain van Urk, authors, who have been coming down from the North for several years. Mr. van Urk has written several books and is an internationally known authority on horses, hounds and foxhunting. Mrs. van Urk has written books and magazine articles.

Stopping at Howard Johnson's Motor Lodge for their stay are Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Clark of Syracuse, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Ousby, Jr., and daughter, Naomi, of Courtland, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. John De Ments and son, and Miss Marcia De Ments, Oswego, N. Y. Others from New York State include Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Miss Sharon Clark, Randy Clark, Ted Raulston, Mr. and Mrs. Rodman Tilt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hulberth and Miss Yolanda Langerman.

Arriving at the Hollywood Hotel today are: Mrs. S. D. Dodge, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwards, New York State; Mr. and Mrs. David Hoffman, Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Julian and Mr. and Mrs. Mack E. Jones, Connecticut; Mr. and Mrs. John Taws, Pennsylvania; and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Opfer, Maryland.

Savannah, Ga., will be well represented by Mrs. Sarah Stillwell, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Peoples, Robert Cabbell, Gerry Von Schaick, Tayloe Compton, Jack Saunders, Miss Mary Swan Sprague and Mr. and Mrs. Lassiter.

Connecticut visitors include George Morris, who is a member of the United States Olympic team, David Wright, and Miss Gay Tate, who will have as guests her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Blase deSibour of Virginia. Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Nichols of Fairfield, Miss Sue Burke and George Morris are guests at the Southland Hotel.

The Firestone family and Mr. and Mrs. Max Bonham will be here from Camden, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Newton Mayo, Mr. and Mrs. Monk Nolan and Delmar Twyman, from Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. Noel Moss from Massachusetts, also Mr. and Mrs. Pyemont, Mr. and Mrs. George Clements from Pennsylvania and John Cakebread of Toronto, Can.

HOSPITAL

Members of the Medical Staff have agreed to review all emergency requests for blood at Staff meetings each month to be certain the privilege of ordering blood for emergency cases is not abused, Mr. Howerton said.

A card explaining this new procedure, which has been prepared by the local chapter of the Red Cross, will be presented each patient upon admission. The procedure will also be thoroughly explained by attending physicians and office personnel of staff physicians.

If Moore County continues to drop behind in raising its quota of blood, the eventual cancellation of the blood program for Moore County may follow, Red Cross officials said.

The new policy is designed to prevent such cancellation.

Frances Butler's Country Kitchen

How long has it been since you treated your family to Apple Turnovers and Chess Tarts? Last week I spent considerable time in the kitchen, and made a batch of each. They are both such old-fashioned sweets — but my, how good they taste! My apple turnovers were almost gone before they made the dinner table, but that happened to be the day my teen-age son was home. He made away with three as soon as they came out the oven!

Turnovers are often called "fried pies," but baking them helps a little on the calorie count. They are so easy to do — just pick up a package of dried apples next time you are marketing, and follow directions for pie or apple-sauce. I use a little grated nutmeg along with the cinnamon. Roll out the pastry fairly thin and cut in rounds about 4 or 5 inches in diameter (one of your canisters is fine for this job). Put a good tablespoon of the apple mixture on pastry, fold over and press edges together with floured flour. Bake in hot oven (450) about 15 minutes or until nicely browned. As soon as mine come out the oven, I glaze them with a thin confectioner's sugar icing — with a bit of lemon juice for flavoring. Cool on rack or serve warm.

The little chess tarts are quite a favorite in our family. We always have them at family picnics — and wouldn't think of going to a Bethesda Homecoming without a big supply of them! They are so easy to make — wonderful for so many occasions when you want something really yummy! They are best made in very small muffin pans, but if you do not have the smaller size pans, the regular size will do — but cut the pastry with your 3" cookie cutter and fit the rounds into the pans. It will take only a tablespoon of the filling for each tart.

Lemon Chess Tarts
Put in bowl: 2 cups sugar (half light brown and half white), pinch salt, 1 tablespoon flour, 1 tablespoon cornmeal. Toss lightly with fork. Then add: 4 eggs, unbeaten, 1/4 cup butter, melted, 1/4 cup cream (or evaporated milk), 1/4 cup lemon juice, grated rind of lemon.

Beat until smooth and thoroughly blended. Then add about 1/2 cup ground or finely chopped pecans. Pour into tiny tart shells and bake at 350 degrees for about 20 minutes, or until browned. Makes 36 small tarts.

INS AND OUTS

Mrs. Frederick Jackson of Jefferson, Maine, is spending some time in the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Pierce. She came especially to be with her mother, Mrs. D. G. Stutz, who is ill at Moore Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Stutz is improving and it is hoped that she can come home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. George McHaffey of Lawrence, Ind., who have been vacationing in Florida, are expected to arrive Saturday to visit in the home of his niece, Mrs. Evelith Richardson, and family, in Manly.

DAR Meeting Iced Out Last Saturday

The February meeting of the Alfred Moore Chapter, DAR, scheduled for Saturday, February 13, at the home of Miss Meade Seawell in Carthage, was cancelled, due to sleet and snow, the regent, Mrs. Alexander B. Wilkins of Sanford, announces.

The next meeting will be held on March 12 in Lillington with Mrs. Henderson Steele, Eugene Lassiter and Mrs. A. G. Johnson as hostesses. The speaker will be from Pembroke Junior College.

INS AND OUTS

Warrant Officer and Mrs. Harold J. Cuff and family, who formerly resided here, moved back on Monday after having lived in Turkey since last April. Warrant Officer Cuff's tour of duty there was cut short by the illness of Mrs. Cuff, who was flown back several weeks ago for surgery at Walter Reed Hospital in Washington. She is in Southern Pines now, and is getting along well. Other members of the family returned to the States later, and Warrant Officer Cuff has now been assigned to duty at Fort Bragg.

LITTLE SYMPHONY

The orchestra is conducted by Dr. Benjamin Swalin who has appeared with the Little Symphony or full symphony at many concerts in Southern Pines in former years.

Dr. Swalin will present two free concerts for school children — one at the West Southern Pines school, for children who will come from all of the county's Negro schools, at 1 p.m. Thursday; and one at Aberdeen school for children who will come from the white schools of the county, at 10:30 a.m. Friday. Children who will hear the concert have been studying the music to be played.

The overture to the Cherubini opera, "Anacreon," will open the Thursday night concert, to be followed by Haydn's Symphony No. 96 ("Miracle") in D major.

Kenji Kobayashi, the Japanese violinist who was heard at Southern Pines with the Little Symphony last year, will play two selections on next week's program.

Sophia Steffan, soprano, will also be heard as guest artist. Miss Steffan is a native of High Point and attended Woman's College at Greensboro.

Mr. Kobayashi came to the United States with a scholarship to the Juilliard School in New York.

The program also lists "Fantasia on Greensleeves" by Vaughn Williams and the Bacchanale from Saint Saens's opera, "Samson and Delilah."

Of a musical family, Mr. Sokoloff is the son of Nikolai Sokoloff; distinguished orchestra director. The younger Mr. Sokoloff has been for several years a member of the staff of the Maness College of Music in New York City, teaching composition and harmony.

He teaches in New York three days a week and has a few private pupils in Princeton. He spends the rest of his time working on his own compositions. A one-act opera, based on one of Chaucer's Canterbury Tales, is now under consideration by several directors. Recordings have been made of several of his orchestral works.

"Canticle for String Orchestra" was written two years ago as a present to his step-mother, at the time of her marriage to his father, Mr. and Mrs. Noel Sokoloff have a year-old daughter, Julia.

STORM

(Continued from page 1) A few trees fell over on houses, causing damage. Others — tall, thin ones — snapped off part way up the trunk and crashed down on ornamental trees and shrubs and, in a few cases, on houses or outbuildings. Dogwoods and other hardwoods held up well under the ice, but many were broken when pine limbs fell on them.

Damage was heavy around town hall. Large cedar trees there lost big branches and branches were broken off a hardwood tree by the front entrance.

Police and town street crews were out Saturday and again on Sunday clearing streets that were blocked by fallen trees or

MEMORIAL — Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Borst of Vass are shown receiving a plaque in memory of their son, Henry A. Borst, Jr., in recognition of his outstanding service to Scouting as advisor of Explorer Troop 810. The presentation was made by J. B. Perkinson of Southern Pines, Moore District chairman, at the 50th Anniversary Boy Scout service Thursday night at the Vass Methodist Church. (Photo by Humphrey)

Memorial to Henry Borst Given at Boy Scout 50th Anniversary Service

Vass Boy Scouts held a 50th Anniversary service at the Vass Methodist Church Thursday night, a feature of which was the presentation to Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Borst of a plaque in memory of their son who passed away last October 29.

The plaque was inscribed: "In memory of Henry A. Borst, Jr., 1914-1959, Advisor Explorer Post 810, Vass, N. C." The presentation was made by J. B. Perkinson of Southern Pines, Moore District chairman, who paid high tribute to Mr. Borst's service to youth.

performed a few poles down, but no such mass damage in fallen poles as was reported in the West End and Candor area which is served by the Central Telephone Company.

CP&L men on repair work numbered 114 at the peak of operations, Mr. Hill said.

During the storm there were only two general power failures in Southern Pines — one of them also affecting Lakeview, Niagara, Vass and Cameron. Other failures were local in origin, on smaller lines with fuses or oil switches, which were usually knocked out by fallen limbs causing wires to touch and short-circuit, Mr. Hill said.

One general failure in Southern Pines was 40 minutes Saturday afternoon when trees fell on lines on N. Bennett St.

The other was for 22 minutes Sunday afternoon, when a tree fell on a line on Pee Dee Road, at the David Drexel property. Both were main feeder lines from the Aberdeen sub-station. The Sunday break was the one that affected communities north of Southern Pines.

Perkinson's talk. They were George Griffin and Karl Schweinfurth, Jr.

The opening ceremony included an invocation by the Rev. T. Fant Steele, Jr., pastor of the Methodist Church, the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag, and a candlelighting ceremony led by David Crockett with 12 other Scouts giving the 12 points of the Scout Law.

The introduction of Scouting in America was given by the Flying Eagle patrol under the title, "Scouting Passes in Review." Johnny Smith served as reader. Eddie Smith impersonated W. D. Boyce, Chicago publisher who introduced Scouting in this country. Others in the pantomime were Franklin Baker, Philip Keith and Wayne Caddell.

Recognition of former Scouts and Scouters was by David Crockett. The list of Scoutmasters is as follows: P. A. Wilson, W. E. Gladstone, A. G. Edwards, Jr., J. A. Hudson, Wilford Lassiter, Ray Griffin and the present leader, Karl Schweinfurth. Around 100 Scouts have been enrolled since the first troop was formed in Vass, it was stated.

"Scouting Keeps Growing" was presented by Danny Williams as narrator and Wally Hutchinson and Danny McGill, of the Rebel patrol, who displayed cards showing the number of Scouts in various years throughout America.

A surprise element was the presentation to Scoutmaster Schweinfurth of a gift in appreciation of his splendid work with the boys. This was made by D. H. Williams of the Scout Committee.

The meeting closed with the singing of a verse of "God Bless America" followed by a benediction by Scout Danny McGill.

Tennis Group Elects Officers, Plans Tourneys

Members of the Sandhills Tennis association reelected Mrs. Robert M. McMillan president at their first meeting of the year held Monday night. Also reelected were Mrs. Charles Phillips, secretary, and Walter F. Harper, treasurer.

New officers elected were David Drexel and George H. Leonard, Jr., vice-presidents.

Mrs. McMillan appointed Norris Hodgkins, Jr., as tournament chairman, to head plans and operation of the two major tournaments sponsored by the STA during the summer, the Junior Sandhill Invitational and the Sandhill Invitational.

At the meeting, held at Mrs. McMillan's home, the members decided to hold the junior event in July and the senior in August, rather than combine them in one week in August as was done last year. While there are advantages for both sponsors and players in having them both the same week, unfavorable weather could throw off the timing, badly affecting the senior tournament, it was pointed out.

Ways and means of promoting an all-year program, with the possibility of having one court topped for all-weather play, were discussed, also the best ways of getting the clay courts into shape for spring and summer use.

ON HONOR ROLL

Bobby Watkins, son of Mrs. John Watkins, 295 W. Wisconsin Ave., recently was listed on the honor roll at Frederick College, Portsmouth, Va., where he is a student. An average of 90 or higher is required for the listing. He is a former student at Southern Pines High School. His course at Portsmouth is the equivalent of senior year in high school.
