Jaycee Awards

The Jaycees should be congratulated upon their fine choices of recipients of outstanding awards for the year. The Rev. R. D. Spear, Jr., received the Distinguished Service Award which was presented by the club president, Vann Clark. Mr. Spear, in the few years that he has been pastor of Aberdeen's First Baptist Church, has devoted himself to the entire community and has taken part in many of its activities.

Lynwood Moon was presented the Outstanding Boss Certificate, and Jesse Wilson was presented the "Jaycee Key Man Certificate."

These presentations were made at the JC annual Bosses and Award Night banquet held last week at the Howard Johnson Restaurant. Speaker of the evening was H. Clifton Blue, who also presented Mr. Wilson's award.

NOT GOOD MEASURE

Acreage is not a good measure of farm size. Acreage tells you nothing about acres of cropland, investment, size of operation, profits, etc.
