Mrs. Oliver to Speak at First Baptist Church

Mrs. John S. Oliver, missionary to Brazil and member of the First Baptist Church, will be the guest of the pastor at the 11:00 o'clock service on Sunday, as First Baptist enjoys a "day of World Missions."

Mrs. Oliver, or "Ginny," as she is affectionately known, was granted an extra period of furlough after the untimely death of her husband, but is going back to Brazil in June, so this will be the members' last chance to hear her before she returns to the mission field.

Though she has very graciously given her time in speaking to many groups in the church and using dolls, trinkets, and colored slides to illustrate her talks, this will be the first time the congregation has had the opportunity to hear her preach in her home church.

Sunday night at 8:00 the pastor will give a mission-centered sermon entitled "The City Set on a Hill."

The public is cordially invited to share both services.
