

Liquor, Assault Cases Predominate in Long Session of Moore Court Monday

Lendon Sanders, 41, of Eagle Springs made two appearances Monday in Moore Recorder's Court, the first with Major Sanders, 29, a cousin, in a whiskey law violation case, the second as prosecuting witness in an assault case against a Negro man who said he had shot at Sanders when he caught Sanders in the woods with his wife.

In the first case, Chief ABC Officer C. A. McCallum testified concerning an ABC raid which took place about noon on July 4 in the talc mine area. A small copper still of about five-gallon capacity was seized, along with three barrels of mash and some new-run whiskey. Lendon and Major Sanders were arrested at the scene. Lendon, pleading guilty of possession of illicit whiskey for sale, and of a still and manufacturing, drew a straight six months on the roads, with examination by a state physician ordered by the court. Major pleading not guilty, was found guilty of aiding and abetting, and drew three months suspended for two years on payment of $200 and costs.

In the second case, Robert Williams, Negro, of Robbins and been indicted by Lendon Sanders for assault with deadly weapon (pistol) and for waylaying from ambush. Found guilty on the first count, not guilty on the second. Williams told the court he had found Sanders in the woods with his (Williams') wife; that he fired at Sanders two or three times as Sanders ran, but didn't hit him. He failed to produce the pistol as ordered, telling the court someone had broken into his house later and stolen it. He drew a three months' sentence, suspended on payments of costs, and on condition he produce and surrender the pistol to the sheriff within 24 hours. Judge J. Vance Rowe also directed the sheriff to look into the alleged robbery, hitherto unreported by Williams.

Richardson Tried
Harvey Lee Richardson of New London, Route 2, one of six persons arrested last March in connection with the break-up of a large still between Pinehurst and Jackson Springs, made bond at that time but failed to appear for trial, and was brought into court Monday, through cooperation of Montgomery County officers. Pleading not guilty, he was convicted on testimony of ABC officers of unlawful possession of illicit whiskey and goods, wares, etc., for manufacturing, also of driving without brakes. On the whiskey count he drew six months suspended for three years on payment of $300 and costs, and on the traffic violation an additional 30 days or $25 and costs. Four other persons have already been convicted in the whiskey case and are now under a felony indictment for manufacture of poison liquor. A sixth one, Mrs. Betty VanHoy Helms, is still being sought.
