

WARREN T. WHITE

White To Speak To Kiwanis At Pinehurst Meeting

Warren T. White, assistant vice-president of the Seaboard Air Line Railroad, will speak to the Sandhills Kiwanis Club at the club's luncheon meeting Wednesday of next week. The club will meet in the Crystal Room of the Carolina Hotel at Pinehurst.

Mr. White, who has been assistant vice-president of the Seaboard since 1950, has long been a friend of the Sandhills and is widely known here. J. Talbot Johnson will be in charge of the program.

A graduate of Clemson College with the Bachelor of Science Degree, Mr. White served two years as an infantry officer in the United States Army during World War I. He has been associated with the Seaboard Air Line Railroad for 35 years. In his capacity as head of the Industrial Department of the Seaboard, he has been responsible for the location of scores of industries in the South, bringing many millions of dollars in annual payrolls to the communities in which these new enterprises were established.

Under his direction the railroad pioneered in the development of pulp and paper industries in the Southeast. He is an enthusiastic worker in behalf of sound conservation measures and he has made notable contribution toward the advancement of forestry in the Southeast. Mr. White organized a division of forestry in Seaboard's Industrial Department in 1936.

In May, 1937, Mr. White was awarded a Scroll of Honor by Clemson College for having rendered distinguished service to the industry and agriculture of his native state—South Carolina.

Mr. White is the author of numerous articles which have appeared in magazines and trade journals of national circulation. He has spoken to various civic clubs, commercial groups and other organizations throughout the South, as well as in the North.

AT FAIR—Miss Ann Herring of Winston-Salem, "Miss North Carolina" of 1960, left, visited the commercial display of the United Telephone Company of the Carolinas, Inc., while she was at the Moore County Fair in Carthage last week. Robert C. Bishop, commercial supervisor for the company, is demonstrating a pushbutton telephone for Miss Herring. Miss North Carolina helped to judge the "Miss Moore County High School" beauty contest at the fair last Wednesday night in which the winner was a Southern Pines girl, Patsy McRee. Louise Chappell of Carthage was first runner-up, and Mary Lynn Odum of Vass second runner-up. Rosie Chandler was the other entry from Southern Pines High School. The winner and runners-up were presented prizes by the Carthage Jaycees, sponsors of the week-long fair which featured agricultural exhibits and other attractions. (Tysinger photo).

NOTICE OF LAND SALE

Under and by virtue of the powers contained in and in execution of the duties imposed upon me by a certain judgment of the Superior Court of Moore County, North Carolina, entered in an action therein pending entitled "MOORE COUNTY vs. Norman Chavis and wife Evelyn Chavis, J. T. Johnson, Attorney, T/A Johnson & Johnson I will on Monday, the 28th day of November, 1960, at 12 o'clock noon, at the Door of the Moore County Courthouse, in Carthage, North Carolina, offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash the following described lands and premises, to-wit:

18/100 of an acre with a house at 805 West Penn. Ave., in the Town of Southern Pines as described in Deed Book 146 at page 29, Public Registry for Moore County.

This is the same property conveyed by Sheriff C. J. McDonald to G. M. Cameron, Trustee for Moore County, July 22, 1956, recorded in Deed Book 209 at page 19, and pursuant to an order by the County Board of Commissioners. (Minute book 10 at page 30-71256) a deed of conveyance was made and delivered to Evelyn Chavis and husband Norman Chavis which has never been recorded. This property sold subject to any taxes that may be due the town of Southern Pines.

The above property will be sold subject to all taxes that have accrued since the year 1958, and I will require the successful bidder to deposit twenty per cent of his bid with the Clerk of Superior Court as evidence of good faith.

This 29th day of October, 1960.
P. H. WILSON,
Commissioner.
