Robert S. Reynolds, 19, Killed in 1-Car Wreck; Judson Key Badly Hurt

A one-car wreck on the Whispering Pines Road, a mile and a half beyond Niagara, at 4:35 a. m. Wednesday cost the life of one Moore County man and seriously injured another.

Robert Stoman Reynolds, 19, of Carthage Route 3 died at St. Joseph's hospital soon after admission. He was married, an employee of Fletcher Southern near Southern Pines.

His companion, Judson Key, about 40, also of Carthage Route 3, hospitalized with serious head injuries could not be questioned and State Highway Patrolman Henry A. Hight, Jr., investigating, said he could not immediately determine who had been driving and what had caused the wreck.

Hight said the car, after rounding a curve as it traveled toward Carthage, was out of control for 345 feet, going off first on the right, then the left, hitting a culvert, and overturning into a deep ditch from which it apparently bounced back out onto the highway. The 1953 Chevrolet four-door, belonging to Ray Reynolds, father of the dead youth, was demolished. The farmer got only 38 cents of the food dollar in 1939. He got 40 cents in 1940 and 53 cents in 1945 (the peak war year).
