

VOL. 41-NO. 5

SOUTHERN PINES, N. C., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1960 TWENTY-TWO PAGES

PRICE: 10 CENTS

Danger On Highways Stressed

The State Highway Patrol's month-long December "special emphasis campaign" to cut the year-end traffic toll in lives, injuries and property damage will reach its peak over the Christmas week-end and during the final week of the month.

Patrolmen in Moore County and over the state are working extra hours and using every facility to help control holiday traffic at one of he most dangerous season of the year. Thirteen persons were killed on Christmas Day last year on North Carolina highways, the public was reminded.

As of 10 a. m. Monday, 1,144 persons had been killed in traffic accidents in the state this year, as compared with 1,131 killed to the same date in 1959.

Moore County highway patrolmen who will be working during the holidays are Pfc. E. G. Shomaker of Southern Pines, Pfc. J. F. Swaim of Pinebluff, Pfc. R. R. Samuels of Aberdeen, Pfc. T. S. Clark of Robbins and Pfc. H. A. Hight, Jr. of Carthage. 27 Deaths Predicted

The N. C. State Motor Club predicts that 27 persons will be killed in North Carolina traffic accidents during the long Christmas weekend.

The official fatality count will start at 6 p.m. Friday, December 23, and extend through midnight Monday, December 26, (Continued on page 18)

Office Building Being Built Near Howard Johnson's

A $50,000 office building, with a wing to contain four new Howard Johnson Motor Lodge units, is under construction near the Howard Johnson's Restaurant and Motor Lodge on No. 1 highway south.

14

R

HELLO SANTA! - Last weekend was Santa Claus time for hundreds of Southern Pines children, at Christmas parties staged by local organizations. Shown here are a few of the many kiddies who met Santa at the Elks Club Sunday afternoon. Also on Sunday afternoon, at the Veterans of Foreign Wars post home, children were greeting Santa Claus and getting rides on ponies and a town fire truck. Refreshments were served to all at both parties and there were gifts and favors. Another party was held at West Southern Pines Saturday afternoon-see photo (Humphrev photo) on page 8

Cheer Baskets To Be Distributed To Many Friday

Members of John Boyd 'Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, are winding up preparations for their annual Christmas Cheer program today and plan to distribute 75 or more food baskets to needy families of the Southern Pines area Friday afternoon.

A. O. Monroe, Jr., chairman of the program, said that five pickup trucks with two or three post members on each truck will make the distribution to families whose need is certified by the Moore County Welfare Department.

In addition to food, toys and other gifts are being distributed to families with children. VFW members have been busy for several weeks repairing and painting toys given to the Christmas Cheer program. Some additional toys were purchased.

Mr. Monroe thanked all who have helped the program with food donations placed in grocery store containers, with toys or with cash donations. Funds are still welcome, he said, and should be sent to "VFW Christmas Fund," Box 226, Southern Pines.

Hospital Asking 'Neighbor Aid'

The Neighbor-Aid Fund at Moore Memorial Hospital, set up last year to give or loan money to patients otherwise unable to pay their hospital bills, is nearly exhausted, Robert S. Ewing, the chairman, discloses in letters sent out soliciting continued support of this effort. Over 100 families and individuals have been helped in the past year with the funds raised by voluntary subscriptions, his letter states. The funds are allocated by a committee of hospital directors.

"Our initial funds are about exhausted," Mr. Ewing says in his appeal letter, "but still we must care for many who have nowhere else to turn. By helping our neighbors, we are in turn helping our- urday of this week, closing at that they receive aid, your hos-week, the bulk of Christmas mail will have been handled, said

Property Revaluation In County Authorized To Be Done by

BACK-TO-SCHOOL

Back-to-School Day for pupils of the Southern Pines Schools will be Thursday, December 29, Supt. Luther A. Adams reminds the young people. This earlier return means that local pupils may look forward to a longer Spring holiday.

The Pinchurst and county system schools will resume classes Monday morning, January 2.

General Holiday Planned Monday;

Some Take More

Southern Pines and Moore County will have a general holi- time as a rural station in the area day Monday, since Christmas could be provided. They will reclosed for the day. Banks will be They signed multiple copies of closed and post offices will be on a project application for a $115,000 their holiday schedule.

Christmas shoppers.

At Carthage, courthouse offices will close at noon Friday, to reopen Tuesday morning. The regular meeting of the county commissioners will be held Tuesday. The Southern Pines post office was open last Saturday till 5 p.m. but will keep regular hours Sat-selves, for by being able to prove 12:30 p.m. By the end of this Rites Conducted

Professionals For $69.000

The Moore County commissioners wound up their year's work with three decisive actions at a special meeting Tuesday afternoon.

They agreed to accept the proposal of Associated Surveys, a national firm of professional appraisers with state office at Greensboro, for the decennial revaluation of real property for tax purposes, a job to be completed by October 1, 1962, at a cost of $69,-

They aecided their next fire ruck, the fourth to be purchased under their year-by-year rural fire protection program, would be designated for service in the western part of the county, and would be located at Robbins until such falls on Sunday this year, with advertise for bids on the fire town and county offices and most truck, since three they have on private businesses and offices hand have become outdated.

in provement program for the air-The Citizens Bank and Trust port, assuring the federal govern-Co. here will be closed Monday, ment that the county's half of but will be open Saturday morn- this cost is ready and available ing, from 9 o'clock to noon, for and that the county owns or has the convenience of merchants and the necessary easements on the property. Certificates of owner-Municipal buildings here—in- ship and easements, to be preparcluding the town hall, the Infor- ϵd by the county attorney, must cluding the town han, the finds mation Center and the public li-brary—will be closed Saturday beating a January 1 deadline of the Federal Aviation Agency.

> In the matter of the fire truck, the county rural fire protection committee met with the commisioners, after having first held a eorganization meeting of their (Continued on page 19)

Voit Gilmore, president of the Storey Lumber Co. and head of the local Howard Johnson operations, said that the new building will consolidate the administra-tive work of both the lumber firm Seen at Gallery; will consolidate the administraand the restaurant-motor lodge, permitting additional space needed. The offices are now located in the Graves Building on E. Pennsylvania Ave.

Occupancy of the new structure arranged by Dan Harvat this is expected March 1, Mr. Gilmore week in the Southern Pines Lisaid. Exterior construction will be brary art gailery while the li-There will be four rooms in the tions placed by Southern Pines office portion of the building and Garden Club members, with Mrs. a wing with the four motor lodge L. W. Miller in charge. units. The building will also make possible centralizing the teletype exhibit is pictured on the editoroperations of both the lumber ial page of today's Pilot which is company and the motor lodge.

E. J. Austin is architect and Christmas edition to carols, poet-Burton S. Perham the builder. ry and other items in the Christ-Both are of Southern Pines. mas spirit.

The Storey Lumber Co. which does a nation-wide wholesale wreaths over the mantel, greenbusiness, has only its administra- ery with red candles on the wintive offices at Southern Pines.

wide street between the Howard | a big "kissing ball." Johnson's restaurant and the Esso Standard service station has been side the doors are spotlighted at authorized and will eventually be night. extended west to the Hidden Valley residential subdivision now gallery will remain on view into under development.

GILMORE TELLS ABOUT VISIT

What's It Like at the South Pole?

Voit Gilmore of Southern Pines, 1 destination and then return it who on November 23 joined the to the club) to reach the South Chapei, will render the invocation growing but still small company Pole. The others were taken by and the benediction will be given of men who have set foot at the Adm. Richard E. Byrd, Lincoln South Pole, is telling the story of Ellsworth and Adm. Richard Beulah Hill Baptist Church. his second Antarctic adventure Black. (he went to the Antarctic but did The not reach the Pole itself two years Amundsen, reached the South Chapel. ago) in a series of articles for several North Carolina daily newspapers Development, flew to Antarctica on their return journey. as an observer with Operation Admiral Byrd flew over the Deep Freeze, the U. S. Navy's sup- Pole in 1929 and dropped a flag-Club of New York City, the Sou- ginning, that a human being set held December 31 as that was his thern Pines man carried the foot there since 1912. Lt. Cmdr. birthday. The first memorial ser- fornia for the past 14 years and fourth flag from the club (the cus- Gus Shinn of North Carolina, vice at Pinehurst was held last has been active on behalf of the tom is to carry the club's flag to .

Memorial Service Madonna Exhibit For Gen. Marshall Library Decorated Scheduled Dec. 31

The annual memorial service A Christmas exhibition based for Gen. George C. Marshall on the Madenna theme is being sponsored by the A. P. Sally Post 350. American Legion, of Pinehurst, is being planned for 10 a of old brick and board and batten. brary itself is gay with decora- m. Saturday, December 31, at the monument in Marshall Park, Pinehurst. The commanding general of Fort Bragg has been in-

One portion of the Madonna vited to speak at the commemor ration and place a wreath in memory of General Marshall on traditionally turned over in the behalf of the armed forces of the United States.

Commander George Hunt of the Pinehurst American Legion post. In the library, there are dow sills, a decorated Christmas Maness, president of the Pine-Mr, Gilmore also said this week tree in the children's section and hurst Lions Club, will also place already been hotel winter visitors that "Magnolia Drive," a 60-foot a design over the main arch with a wreath for the Lions.

Large candle reproductions out-

The Christmas exhibition in the rington of Pinehurst. January.

Mrs. George C. Marshall, widow of the late general, who is now when his pony bolted and threw to attend the service.

The Rt. Rev. Louis C. Melcher, D. D., minister of the Village

by the Rev. Max A. Gilmore of The monument is in the park,

Norwegian explorer, across the street from the Village Pole on December 14, 1911, with Retired generals, admirals and four companions. The British friends of the late General Mar-Scott. also with four, got there Mr. Gilmore, a member of the January 18, 1912, beaten by five shall in this area are expected to N. C. Board of Conservation and weeks - and destined for death altend the services. All residents which she owned with her three of the Sandhills and guests of the hotels are invited.

year.

port program for scientific studies. but it was not until 1956, when ber, 1959, at Walter Reed Hospital three brothers were born. Her mo-As a member of the Explorers Operation Deep Freeze was be- in Washington. The service is ther is a native of England.

and the second state - - -

(Continued on page 8)

Smith IV, from whom she was divorced in July, 1959. She has a daughter, Mrs. Robert Gunn of Bedford Village, N. Y., who is the mother of two girls, and a 17year-old son, Daniel. Her three brothers are Thomas Rudel of

New York City, William Rudel of Old Greenwich, Conn., and Jack Rudel of Montreal, Canada.

Until June of this year, when the firm was sold, she was a director of the Rudel Machinery Co., Ltd. of Montreal, Canada, brothers. Her father, who died in 1932, had operated the business General Marshall died in Octo- at Montreal where she and her

> Mrs. Smith has lived in Cali-(Continued on Page 8)

will have been handled, said Postmaster Max Rush. On Mon- At Arlington for becomes eligible for additional funds from the Duke Endowment Fund and the North day, the post office will be on Carolina Medical Care Commis- holiday schedule, with windows The Cunninghams sion, thus reducing hospital losses closed, no home delivery but with incurred as a result of such char- mail distributed to boxes and outitable work.

going mail handled as usual. The Pilot office will close after Contributions, which are taxdeductible, should be sent to today's edition is printed and will Country Club Tuesday. For de-tails see story on page 10. Neighbor Aid Fund, Moore Me-not reopen until Tuesday morn-ing.

Funeral services for Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cunningham, former Southern Pines residents who were killed December 11 in an airplane crash in South America. were held this (Thursday) morning in the chapel at Fort Myer, Arlington, Va., with burial following in Arlington National Cemetery

Mr. Cunningham's mother, Mrs. W. J. Smith of Akron, Ohio, notified friends of the Cunninghams here that the decision to have the services and burial at Arlington had been made after consultation with Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Goodrich -former Sanford residents now living in Florida, parents of Mrs. Cunningham.

Burial in Arlington National Cemetery was possible because Mr. Cunningham had been working under the U.S. State Department since 1956, when he left his post as town manager here and went to teach nublic administration-first i colle since at then at the University of Paraguay in Asuncion where the Cunninghams had their home at the time of their death.

The air accident occurred in Argentina when a small plane, carrying the Cunninghams and two other persons crashed, killing all on beard.

Mrs. Smith told persons here with whom she was in contact by lephone that she had met the ninghams' two children y, 9, and Tamara, 7, at New ity Saturday when they York (air from South Amer arrived b

The children she said, but th did not know ame ied the bodies of their Though details were lac apparently Mr. and Mrs. Good also met the pane at New York It was not kno vn here this week what disposition would be made of the childry. Members of the town council sent flowers, paying for them personally, as there is no.budgetary provision for such expenditures by the town.

MRS. C. M. RUDEL o'Pinehurst displays a photograph of her daughter, Mrs. Elizabetl Rudel Smith, who has been appointed treasurer of the UnitedStates in the Kennedy administration. (V. Nicholson photo)

Mrs. Smith Named U. S. Treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Rudel Smith, 49-year-old Kentfield, Calif., resident who was chosen Sunday by President-elect John F. Kennedy to become the next treasurer of the United States, is a former resident of the Sandbills who was active and interested in politics as a young woman here some 20 years

ROSS TOURNAMENT

The annual Donald J. Ross

nemorial golf tournament, a free-

for-all event for young golfers, will be played at the Pinehurst

FORMER SANDHILLS RESIDENT

ago. Her mother, Mrs. C. M. Rudel, there about 35 years ago, having friends as "Libby," lived in Southern Pines during her marriage to Frank W. McCluer, an attorney who was associated with J. Talbot Johnson of Aberdeen and who was killed in a polo accident at Pinehurst December 29, 1941,

She later married Frederick H.

staying in Pinehurst, is expected

Carolina National Guard commanded by Captain James E. Harhim against a tree.

The color guard will be supplied by Company D, 2nd Medium Tank Battalion of the local North will place a wreath on behalf of lives at Pinehurst in "Twin Cethe American Legion and William dars," the house the family built in Pinehurst since 1916.

Mrs. Smith, known to her