Charge of Second Degree Murder on Docket Next Week

A second degree murder charge against Alec Everett, 30-year-old "hermit" accused of the pistol slaying of Henry Boggs, about 50, in September, is on the warrant docket of cases to go to the grand jury at the opening of a term of Moore County Superior Court in Carthage Monday. Judge Allen H. Gwyn is scheduled to preside at the one-week term for trial of criminal cases.

Everett was arrested after he sought out Sheriff W. B. Kelly and told him that Boggs was dead near Everett's isolated cabin off the Southern Pines-Carthage road. He said then that he had shot Boggs, who had been living intermittently with him in the house for several months, when Boggs started choking and beating him. An autopsy showed that Boggs had been shot twice with a pistol, in the area of the stomach.

Also on the warrant docket for the grand jury Monday are these cases:

Bernice McLeod, rape; James Wooten, Oscar McGill Dunlap and Vornie Harrington, assault with intent to commit rape (three separate cases); Billy Cole and James Walton, felonious breaking and entering and larceny; Richard Cole, accessory after the fact of breaking and entering and larceny; Ronald Collins Brown, felonious breaking and entering and larceny and receiving stolen goods; Mario Rivera (listed with four aliases), receiving stolen goods; and Robert Lee Hunter, breaking and entering.

Also: Milton C. Thomas, and Billy Gray, breaking and entering; Charles Prevatte, secret assault; John Dennis Greene, assault; Roy W. Berry, public drunkenness; James S. Blue, public drunkenness and possession of seal-broken whiskey; William H. Wood, drunken driving; Robert D. Ashley, drunken driving and illegal possession of whiskey; Martin E. McCaskill, Jr., speeding; Robert L. Garrett, worthless check; Frank Cox, Jr., larceny; and Raymond Lloyd Brown, larceny.

The rape charge (of a girl over 12 and under 16) against Bernice McLeod, young Vass Negro, originated last August 2 at a night club near Vass. The Negro girl involved said that McLeod dragged her into some bushes and assaulted her. He left the state but returned and surrendered voluntarily to Vass police September (Continued on page 17)

Sandhills Horses Win Show Honors

Pike's Peak, Mrs. Eleonora E. Sears' bay gelding, created the big excitement at the National Horse Show this year when he retired the East Hampton Trophy for Conformation Hunters.

Ridden to perfection by Mrs. E. Hogan, (Joannie Walsh, to her many Sandhills friends), this fine show horse and hunter cleared the fences at Madison Square Garden in perfect form to win handsomely over stiff competition.

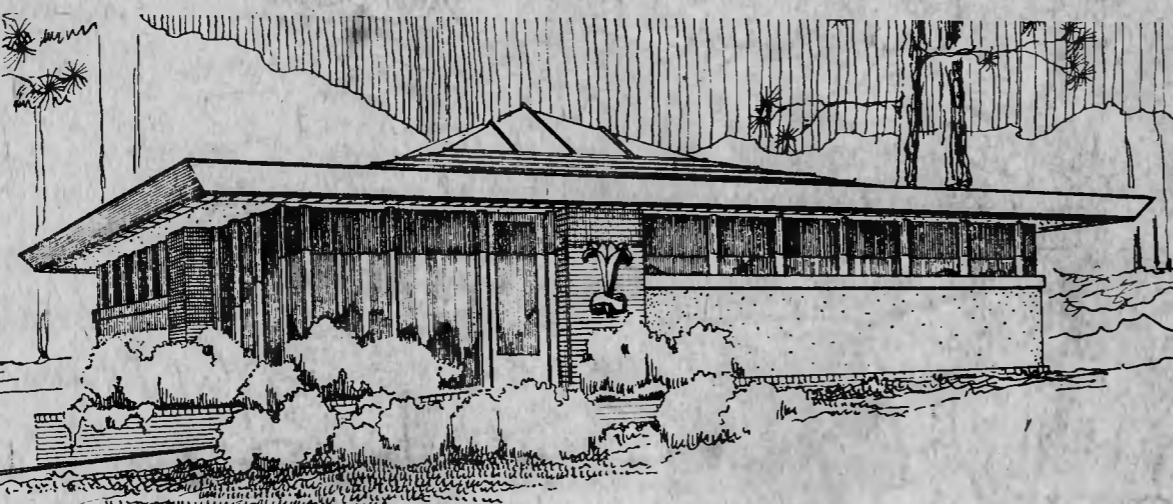

Requirements for winning this famous trophy are: that it must be won three times before becoming the possession of the horse's owner, and the rider must be a member of a recognized hunt and attired in full hunting livery.

Adding an extra filip to this spectacular triumph last week was the fact that Miss Sears' entry had won three times in succession. Only one other horse since the trophy was established (Continued on page 8)

PROPOSED BUILDING for the headquarters of the North Carolina Society for Crippled Children and Adults to be built in Southern Pines, is pictured in this drawing by the architect, E. J. Austin of Southern Pines. Tentative plans call for about 3,000 square feet of floor space in the structure.

SOCIETY FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN

Group to Move Offices Here

Fifteen members of the board of directors of the North Carolina Society for Crippled Children and Adults, meeting in Winston-Salem last Thursday night, voted 8-7 to transfer the headquarters of the organization from Chapel Hill to Southern Pines.

George Hodgkins of Southern Pines, a member of the board, said that the decision was reached after a "heated argument." However, he noted, letters from four directors who were not present at Winston-Salem indicated that three favored the move to Southern Pines and one was opposed. Expectation is that the move would be completed within a year, he said.

The Winston-Salem meeting was attended on Friday by Mrs. William Wood of Pinebluff, president of the Moore Chapter of the Society, and Mrs. Graham Culbreth of Southern Pines, a vice president and service chairman of the county chapter, who was installed as a state director Friday and so was unable to take part in the Thursday night voting on moving the headquarters to Southern Pines.

Mr. Hodgkins said that the proposed headquarters building would be located on a lot that would be donated to the Society (Continued on page 8)

300 Expected For Golf Carousel to Start November 16

Starting with early arrivals on Sunday the Southern Pines Jaycees are preparing to play host to some 300 persons who will be in town next week in conjunction with the eighth annual Golf Carousel.

"There will be approximately 225 persons competing in the four-ball match play tournament and this will be a record. Each year, the field has grown progressively larger and the Jaycees feel this is a vote of confidence and shows the high esteem in which our tournament is held both in the United States and Canada," said Eddie Ervin, Jr., tournament chairman.

The tournament is scheduled next Thursday through Sunday at Pine Needles Lodges and Country Club and at Southern Pines Country Club.

For $20 an individual is offered six days of golf, a get-acquainted party, which is next Thursday night, and an informal dance next Saturday night. Green fees alone would amount to $30 for six (Continued on Page 8)

BLOOD COLLECTION SET AT PINEHURST

In a special one-day visit to the county, a bloodmobile from the Red Cross center at Charlotte will be at the school gymnasium in Pinehurst, Tuesday, November 14, from 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Quota for the visit is 125 pints.

Local Red Cross officials urged generous giving of blood Tuesday as the county is lagging far behind its quota in collections for this year.

Blood given by Moore residents makes possible a system of obtaining blood from the Charlotte center, a system used by both hospitals in the county.

Youth Killed in Night Wreck on South May Street

A Hoke County youth was killed here this morning when his car went out of control on the South May Street curve at Morganton Road and bounced from one pine tree into another, spinning around and throwing him out.

Local police identified the dead youth as Clarence Glendon Odom, Jr., of Route 1 Aberdeen.

The accident occurred about 1 a.m. when the 1953 Ford, traveling south, went off May St. on the left and skidded and turned for a total distance of 225 feet, smashing into first one tree and then another. When it came to a stop it had spun completely around and, in a totally demolished condition, was again headed south. The body of the driver was found on the parkway 21 feet away.

Young Odom was a 1959 graduate of Aberdeen High school. With his father he operated a service station on the Laurinburg Road. Both the home and business are just over the line in Hoke county.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Odom; three sisters, Mattie Elizabeth, Sarah Frances and Helen, all of the home, and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Greene of Wagram.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at Bethesda Presbyterian church, Aberdeen, conducted by the pastor, Dr. W. C. Neill, assisted by the Rev. Brooks Patten of Page Memorial Methodist church. Burial will be in Spring Hill cemetery at Wagram.

Many Books Ready For Special Week

For Children's Book Week—November 12-18—a wide variety of new books will appear on the shelves of the Southern Pines Public Library, announces Mrs. Stanley Lambourne, librarian.

An appropriate display will be arranged for the Art Gallery by Mrs. Alwin Folley and Mrs. Maxwell Forrest. Children are invited to visit the library, and if not members, sign up for a card.

For those who are not yet able to read, there are picture books such as "New Shoes" by Sam Vaughn, illustrating all the delights and problems of selecting new shoes, and in the Easy-to-Read group, "John and His Thumbs" by Leonard Shortall will provide encouragement for those who have been accused of "being all thumbs."

Others include: Zip-Zip and the Red Planet by Joan M. Schealer, Christmas Is a Time for Giving by Joan Walsh Anglund, Becky's Christmas by Tasha Tudor, Tim and Tom Play Ball by Charlotte Steiner, Lonesome Little Colt by C. W. Anderson, Puppy-Dog Tales by N. D. Watson, Cat Tales by N. D. Watson.

Raggedy Ann Stories by Johnny Gruelle, A Day of Winter by Betty Miles, Katie and the Sad Noise by Ruth Stiles Gannett, The Terrible Mr. Titmeyer by Moore and Adelson, A Little House of Your Own by B. Schenk de Regniers, Why? . . . Because (Continued on page 19)

Junior Hunt Club to Stage Race Saturday

The Sandhills Junior Hunt Club, recently formed organization of young riders in this area, will have a point to point race starting at 2 p.m. Saturday and invites the public to watch along the course.

The race will begin at Scotts Corner and will end at Boyd's Field, in the "hunting country" out Youngs Road.

Among the judges expected to be on duty are Beverly Gray, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stratton, Miss Gay Tate, Mrs. Verdie Caddell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harper and W. O. Moss.

Miss Tate and Mrs. Harper are instructors for the young riders.

COURT OF HONOR

A Moore District Boy Scout court of honor will be held in the elementary school at Eagle Springs, Monday, November 13, at 7:45 p. m.

Proposed State Bond Issues All Defeated

W. P. SAUNDERS

Saunders Heads Fund Drive for Hospital Wing

William P. Saunders of Southern Pines has accepted the chairmanship of a new building fund drive for Moore Memorial Hospital, the directors of the hospital were informed at a called meeting yesterday in Pinehurst.

Mr. Saunders, former director of the N. C. Department of Conservation and Development, former Moore County industrial executive and a longtime civic leader, also was elected a member of the board of directors, replacing Voit Gilmore who has resigned. Mr. Gilmore, though maintaining residence in Southern Pines, now heads the United States Travel Service, with headquarters in Washington, D. C.

Over $500,000.00 is to be raised between now and June of 1962, for the building of a new surgical wing, which will include two floors, to permit the hospital to be built up from its present 140 bed capacity, to over 200. Tentative plans have already been (Continued on Page 8)

Closings Slated For Veterans Day

Several public offices and banks of the county will close Saturday in recognition of Veterans Day, but business as usual is expected to be the order of the day with most offices and stores.

The Southern Pines town offices will close, but the Information Center and the public library will remain open, said Town Manager Bud Rainey.

Offices in the courthouse at Carthage will be closed all day Saturday. The offices normally close at noon on that day.

The Citizens Bank and Trust Co. here and other banks in the county will be closed.

Post offices will be on holiday schedule. Locally, this means no home delivery and windows closed but processing of incoming and outgoing mail as usual within the post office.

Alcoholic Beverage Control stores here and in Pinehurst will be closed Saturday.

Veterans Day, formerly known as Armistice Day, honors the veterans of all wars. It formerly marked the armistice that preceded the end of World War I in 1918.

DR. R. B. WARLICK

Dr. Warlick Will Head Kiwanians; Others Elected

Dr. R. Bruce Warlick has been elected president of the county-wide Sandhills Kiwanis Club, to succeed Dr. C. Robert VanderVoort. Both the new and retiring presidents are dentists living in Southern Pines. Dr. Warlick practices here and Dr. VanderVoort in Aberdeen.

Lawrence McN. Johnson, Aberdeen attorney, was elected vice president and John L. Ponzer of Southern Pines, engineer with the division office of the Carolina Power and Light Co., was re-elected secretary and treasurer.

Newly elected directors of the club are Luther A. Adams, Ralph L. Chandler, Jr., L. B. Creath and Dr. W. H. Johnson. Mr. Creath is from Pinehurst and the others live in Southern Pines.

Carry-over directors are Norris L. Hodgkins, Jr., and J. E. Sandlin, both of Southern Pines, and William C. Sledge of Pinehurst.

The new officers and directors will take office January 1, 1962, to serve throughout next year.

Christmas Lights Drive Launched By Local Jaycees

Letters have gone out to Southern Pines business and professional people from Thomas Ruggles, president of the Southern Pines Chamber of Commerce, asking for contributions to help the Jaycees get started on an ambitious business section Christmas lighting program.

Mr. Ruggles, who is chairman of the project, said this week that he had a fine response from merchants so far and urged that all contributions be sent in immediately, as decorations must be ordered within a few days.

The letter, which went to some 165 merchants and professional people of the Southern Pines business community, asks that each contribute $10 toward purchase of "English lantern post decorations," each of which is five feet tall, to be mounted by 30-inch brackets on utility poles.

Contributions should be mailed to Christmas Lighting, P. O. Box 145, Southern Pines. The Jaycee president said that contributions from persons other than merchants would be welcome. Many residents of the community, he said, as well as merchants, have (Continued on Page 8)

Garden Club Asks Bids on Planting

The Southern Pines Garden Club is considering planting around the new wing of the East Southern Pines High School and invites local nurserymen to submit bids.

Plot plans indicating the areas involved will be available at the office of the school superintendent next week.

Interested persons or firms should address bids to Mrs. A. V. Arnold, chairman of the projects committee, before November 27.

Dr. Swalin to Speak Twice Friday

Dr. Benjamin F. Swalin of Chapel Hill, who has been director of the North Carolina Symphony Orchestra since 1939, will be in town all day Friday, to discuss his work with the orchestra and to tell about his other activities in the field of music.

At noon he will speak to members of the Rotary Club, and at 6:30 p. m. he will address the Southern Pines Lions Club. Both the luncheon and the dinner meeting are at the Southern Pines Country Club.

Dr. Swalin is widely known throughout North Carolina and has many friends in Southern Pines where he appears annually with the North Carolina "Little Symphony," brought here by the Sandhills Music Association. The orchestra will again come here as the final concert in the 1961-1962 series presented by the Association, on Thursday, February 15, 1962.

Born in Minneapolis, Minn., Dr. Swalin became the youngest member of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra. Further studies were undertaken in New York relating to the musical art (Continued on page 8)
