

REMINDER
The N. C. Department of Motor Vehicles reminds you that ordinary traction is not enough when driving on deep snow or glare ice.

Reinforced tire chains are the most effective aid. Snow tires are helpful in moderate snowfall but do not replace the need for chains in deep snow or on glare ice.

The Minister Speaks

The Rev. Kemper Fitch, pastor of Culdee, spoke to the Men of the Presbyterian Church Sunday evening at their supper meeting. The Rev. Mr. Fitch urged church members to rededicate their lives to the covenant which each made when he joined the church. The Rev. George Houck installed the following officers for the coming year: president, Archie Farmer; vice-president, Earl Auman; and secretary-treasurer, North Lewis. Special guests for the meeting were members of the Senior High Fellowship and their advisors, Misses Bert McCrummen and Tressie Auman.

Sub-District Meet

The Methodist Youth Fellowship was host to the Moore-Montgomery Sub-District meeting at the Church on Monday evening. The local presidents participated in a panel discussion on "What Daily Devotions Mean to Me" with Linda Williams representing the local group. The WSCS served refreshments, with the committee composed of Mrs. J. F. Sinclair, Mrs. E. L. Sutphin, and Mrs. A. J. Hanner. The advisors for the Youth Fellowship are Mrs. Hanner, Roy Swearingen, and the Rev. Aaron Tyson.

Birthday Party

Jennifer Clark celebrated her fifth birthday Wednesday with a party for the following friends: Robert Gordon, Cindy Craven, Susan Auman, Sunny Upole, Cary McDonald, Van Cole, Thad Rector, Mark McNeill, Martha Thompson, Jennifer McInnis, Kenneth McCaskill, and her cousins, Lisa and Karen Sidberry of Biscoe.

Assisting Jennifer's mother, Mrs. Robert Clark, with games and serving the guests were Mrs. Allan McDonald and Angus, and Mrs. Eugene Sidberry of Biscoe. There was four-tiered birthday cake decorated with a miniature maypole complete with flowers and ribbons and with that, the children had ice cream and punch. For favors, Jennifer had Santa Claus candles to mark each guest's place along with balloons, lollipops, and party hats.
