

A new honor has been presented to "Mr. Golf," Richard S. Tufts of Pinehurst, Photo and details, page 13.

THE PILOT

Buy a poppy Saturday from the American Legion Auxiliary and help disabled veterans and their families.

VOL. 42—NO. 22

TWENTY-TWO PAGES

SOUTHERN PINES, N. C., THURSDAY, APRIL 19, 1962

TWENTY-TWO PAGES

PRICE: 10 CENTS

CUP WINNER—The Junior Builder's Cup, given by the Sandhills Kiwanis Club annually to an outstanding senior in a Moore County high school, was won this year by Annette Thompson of West End High School, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Thompson of Jackson Springs, shown receiving the award from Chris Sham-burger of Southern Pines, a member of the club. In the background are some of the students who sang during the same program at Aberdeen school Friday night in the annual Piquet Music Festival for school glee clubs, also sponsored by the Kiwanis Club.

TO RUN MONDAY THROUGH SATURDAY

Hyndman to Defend Title in North & South Golf Tournament at Pinehurst

The 62nd renewal of the North and South Invitation Amateur Golf Championship will be held at Pinehurst April 23-28, Monday through Saturday. Presenting the best in men's amateur golf, the event is one of the oldest consecutive tours in the country.

Getting underway at the Pinehurst Country Club on Monday the field is limited to 125 players and this year's star-studded entries will mark the strongest to date.

An eighteen-hole qualifying round over the exacting 6,900 yards of the par 72 Championship Number Two Course will determine the 64 places for match play beginning Tuesday. Two rounds Wednesday will be followed by single rounds Thursday and Friday and 36-hole finals Saturday.

Last year's North and South champion, William Hyndman III of Huntingdon Valley, Pa., will defend his title. Past champions entered again include 1961 runner-up and winner in '58, Richard D. Chapman of Palm Beach, Fla.; three-time winner William C. Campbell of Huntington, W. Va. (1957, '53 and '50); 1954 titleholder Billy Joe Patton of Morganton; 1951 winner Hobart Manley, Jr. of Savannah, Ga.; Mal Galletta of Old Westbury, N. Y., who took the title in 1944; and Frank Strafaci

GOLF FINALISTS

Miss Clifford Ann Creed of Alexandria, La., will meet Mrs. Charles Wilson of Gladwyn, Pa., at 10:15 a. m. Friday in finals of the 60th North & South Invitation Golf Championship for Women, at the Pinehurst Country Club.

In semifinals matches played this morning, Miss Creed defeated Miss Marge Burns of Greensboro, 5 and 3, and Mrs. Wilson beat Mrs. John Dyson of Sugarloaf, Pa., 4 and 3.

of Miami, Fla., champion in 1938 and '39.

Newcomers to the tourney include the National Amateur Champion, Deane R. Beman of Arlington, Va., and Congressman Jack Westland of Washington.

The advance entries include 52 of last year's qualifiers, in addition to champion Hyndman and runner-up Chapman, semi-finalists Charlie Smith and Cobby Ware, Augusta, Ga., and quarter-finalists Bill Harvey, Greensboro; Dale Morey, Morganton; and George Rowbotham, Villanova, Pa.

McCaskill Named Manager of Kennedy Campaign For Congress in Moore Co.

J. Frank McCaskill of Pinehurst was named this week by John P. Kennedy of Charlotte as Moore County manager of the Kennedy campaign for the Democratic nomination for Congressman from the 8th District.

Kennedy, a representative in the General Assembly from Mecklenburg County, is opposing incumbent A. Paul Kitchin of Wadesboro for the nomination.

In announcing McCaskill's appointment, he said: "I am delighted at having Frank's leadership in the Moore County campaign. He is taking this post because he agrees that the Eighth District needs a positive and creative approach to government. I know that with his direction, we will fight a spirited and successful campaign."

McCaskill had already begun this week to set up an organization throughout the county. A number of assistants and committees, to help with the Kennedy campaign, will be announced later.

A native of Biscoe, who grew up in Jackson Springs and Pinehurst, along with his well known and politically active brother, J. Hubert McCaskill, Frank McCaskill is chairman of the Pinehurst Precinct Committee, manager of the Pinehurst Laundry, a member of the volunteer fire department and a past president of the Pinehurst Lions Club. Active in politics and a Democrat all his life (he recalls that he first voted for Al Smith in 1928), McCaskill is a member of the Pinehurst Community Church, has been county campaign chairman for the March of Dimes and has been active in other charitable drives and in Boy Scout work. He is married to the former Myrtrice Wicker and they have two daughters.

J. FRANK McCASKILL

Kennedy named a Lee County campaign chairman also during the past week—Jimmy Love, 29-year-old attorney, of Sanford.

Lutherans Buy Tract For Church, Also Parsonage

Today the United Evangelical Lutheran Synod of North Carolina announced the purchase of approximately six and a half acres of land adjacent to the Fairway Motel on U. S. 1 as a future site for Our Saviour Lutheran Church Mission of Southern Pines. The land was purchased from Sandhill Estates, Inc. for $24,000.

The Synod also announced the purchase of the Dale residence on East New York Ave. directly across from the Southern Pines High School, as a parsonage for Pastor and Mrs. Jack Deal and family. Mr. Deal will move here on May 16 to become the first full time Lutheran Minister and Mission Developer for this area. The purchase price for the Dale residence was $11,500. Extensive alterations and additions to the parsonage will begin shortly. Two additional rooms and one full bath will be added. One room will be used as a church office until permanent facilities are available.

It is expected that construction of a church and classrooms will begin within the next two years. Construction is expected to be by units with the first unit being classroom area.

Our Saviour Lutheran Church is presently conducting Sunday School and Church services each Sunday in the Civic Club building on Ashe Street. Dr. L. E. Blackwelder, former superintendent of the Lutheran Lowman Home for the Aging, is serving as supply minister for the local congregation.

Many Visit New Local Bank Branch

An estimated 4,000 persons visited the South Broad Street Office of the Citizens Bank and Trust Company of Southern Pines, as the bank staged the formal opening of the new bank branch Monday from 4 to 9 p. m.

Norris L. Hodgkins, Jr., said that about 3,500 persons registered at the building—a modern structure of 3,000 square feet—and that at least 500 more are estimated to have attended the opening program or dropped in for a look later in the evening.

A. E. Rhinehart, manager of the local stock brokerage office of Eastman, Dillon and Co., was the winner of the console television set given away in connection with the opening.

(Continued on page 5)

TROTTER TIME TRIALS

The Pinehurst Driving and Training Club will conduct an official record meeting (time trials for horses) over the Pinehurst mile track at 10 a. m. Tuesday, April 24, it was announced this week. In a news item on page 12, the date of the trials is incorrectly given, although it appears correctly in an official notice on page 13.

Wimberly Files, Withdraws; Few Races in Primary

A race for sheriff was in prospect for the May Democratic primary in Moore County, shortly before the noon filing deadline Friday, when C. G. Wimberly of Aberdeen filed against incumbent W. B. Kelly, but Wimberly withdrew as a candidate this week, "in the interest of party harmony."

A former State Highway Patrolman, Wimberly resigned four years ago to run for sheriff and was defeated by Kelly in a runoff. He has recently been working as water plant operator for the Town of Aberdeen. Sheriff Kelly is a former State Highway Patrol corporal.

The end of filing time Friday produced only three Democratic races: T. Roy Phillips of Carthage, of the county board of education is opposed in District 1 by H. Lee Thomas of Carthage, former county superintendent of schools, while J. A. Culbertson, Robbins, who is serving as chairman, faces Mrs. John L. Frye of Robbins in District 2. There is a three-way race for coroner, with candidates W. K. Carpenter, Sr., of Pinebluff, E. R. Kerns of Carthage and J. W. Cranford of Robbins all seeking the office.

For all the other offices at issue, incumbents are unopposed. There is one incumbent Republican, Oscar W. Bailey, Mineral Springs township constable.

Constable L. F. Woods of Greenwood township seeks reelection, while in McNeill town-

(Continued on page 5)

166 Pints Blood Given In 2 Days

An American Red Cross bloodmobile from the ARC blood center at Charlotte collected 100 pints at Robbins Monday and 66 pints at Vass Tuesday, it was reported by the local Red Cross office. A quota of 125 pints had been set at each of the two stops.

Mrs. Audrey K. Kennedy, executive director, said that the next visit of a bloodmobile to Moore County would be a one-day stop at Pinehurst on May 28. Details will be announced.

Both of the hospitals in Moore County obtain needed blood of all types from the Charlotte center.

Brother, Sister Will Not Join Peace Corps

Gerrie and Bob Madigan, who had expected to enter the Peace Corps as a unique sister and brother team, have withdrawn their names from the list of Peace Corps volunteers, Bob Madigan said this week. They are the daughter and son of Col. and Mrs. Don Madigan of Southern Pines. Gerrie is a sophomore at College-Conservatory of Music, Cincinnati, Ohio, and Bob is a senior at Southern Pines High School.

Merchants Council to Have Meeting Monday

The Southern Pines Merchants Council will have a general membership meeting at 7:30 p. m. Monday in the court room at town hall. All interested persons are invited to attend.

MONDAY CLOSINGS

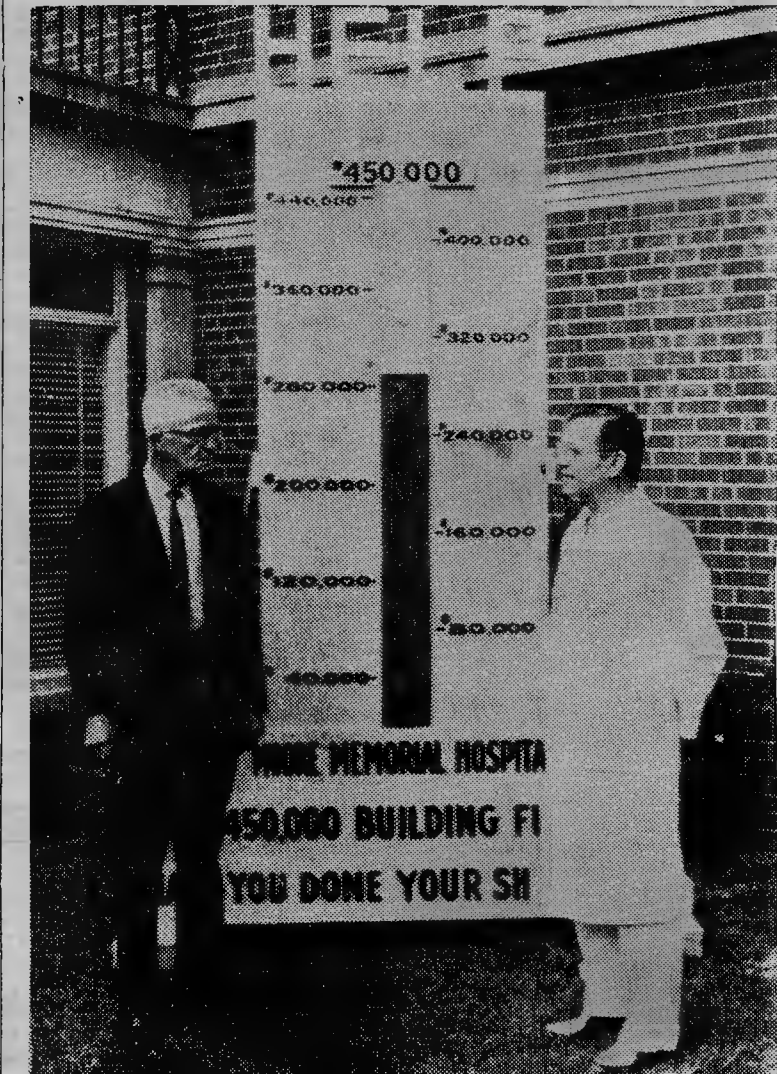

Schools, banks and most private businesses and offices will close for a holiday Monday. But U. S. post offices, for which Easter Monday is not a holiday, will not close.

Town and county offices and the local and Moore County libraries will be closed.

The local schools, scheduled earlier in the year to have a longer holiday, are putting in a full week, through Friday, to make up a day lost because of bad weather, but will be closed Easter Monday. Schools will open at the regular time Tuesday morning.

ABC stores in Southern Pines and Pinehurst will close Monday.

New Registration of Moore Voters Starts In All Precincts Saturday

GOING UP!—H. G. Poole of Carthage, left, chairman of the board of directors of Moore Memorial Hospital, and Dr. Clement R. Monroe, senior surgeon practicing there and one of the founders of the institution 30 years ago, examine progress of the hospital's $450,000 fund to build a new wing of the building. Since this photo was made Tuesday, the "mercury" has climbed above the $320,000 mark.

SADA Group to Tour Upper Part Of Moore County

Moore County will be host to the Sandhills Area Development Association in quarterly session next Wednesday, sponsoring a tour of several points of interest in upper Moore during the afternoon, followed by a supper meeting at Westmoore school.

This will be the first membership meeting since SADA became a five-county body, with the addition of Hoke to the charter participants, Moore, Lee, Montgomery and Richmond. Neal Cadieu of Richmond is president, heading the organizational structure with members from all five counties.

Each county is expected to provide at least 50 men and women interested in the development program, for a crowd of 250 or more taking part in Wednesday's tour. Co-chairmen are Moore Farm Agent F. D. Allen and Home Economics Agent Miss Flora McDonald.

They will meet at the courthouse at 2 p. m. to form a caravan, first heading north to visit the Alston House—the "House in the Horseshoe"—on Deep River at 2:30 p. m. They will be guests of the Moore County Historical Association in visiting the historic homestead, scene of guerrilla warfare during Revolutionary days which left bullet holes still visible in its walls, and later the retirement home of Governor Benjamin Williams.

At 3:15 p. m., they will visit the nearby Babcock Farms beef cattle operation, a model of its kind. They will see the fine breeder herd of registered Angus in their laddino clover and orchard-grass (Continued on Page 16)

THE WEATHER

Maximum and minimum temperatures for each day of the past week were recorded as follows at the U. S. Weather Bureau observation station at the W E E B studios on Midland Road.

	Max.	Min.
April 12	17	54
April 13	62	51
April 14	63	32
April 15	63	41
April 16	57	26
April 17	62	26
April 18	69	30

Hospital Drive Extended; 71% Of Goal Reached

The $450,000 Moore Memorial Hospital Building Fund Drive has raised $321,232 to date, slightly more than 71% of the objective.

At an All-Division Report Meeting held last evening, General Chairman William P. Saunders announced extension of the campaign to Tuesday, May 1, to give every volunteer salesman time enough to see his prospects.

"While the results to date are most encouraging," Mr. Saunders said, "we are quite concerned that committee members active in the campaign have not seen all their prospects. Many people have stepped me all through the county asking me when volunteers are going to ask for their help. I want to urge every community chairman and volunteer salesman in the campaign to call upon his prospects now so that everyone in Moore County may take part (Continued on Page 8)

WITH YOUNG PEOPLE IN CHARGE

Easter Sunrise Service Scheduled

Young people from local churches having groups associated with the Youth Federation, with some church young people from Pinehurst, will have charge of a community Easter sunrise service to be held at Memorial Field on

Moore County's new registration of all voters will start Saturday, to run through Saturday, May 12, with registrars at polling places each Saturday in all of the 19 precincts of the county.

All persons expecting to vote in the May 26 primaries must register before the end of Saturday, May 12. Registrars have books open at their homes or places of business on days other than Saturdays.

Local voters are reminded that the dividing line between the new North Southern Pines and South Southern Pines precincts runs east on Pennsylvania Ave., from West Southern Pines to May St., north on May to Connecticut Ave. and then east on Connecticut to the Fort Bragg line.

Polling place for North Southern Pines precinct is the fire station and for South Southern Pines the town hall.

Polling place for the newly formed Pinedene precinct, just south of Southern Pines and running about as far south as Westbrook's Market, is Jackson Motors on old No. 1 highway.

Town's Churches List Services on Easter Week-End

Church services in the remaining days of Holy Week and on Easter Sunday have been announced as follows by the churches in Southern Pines, in addition to a community sunrise service on Sunday, details of which are given in a separate story:

United Church of Christ, the Rev. Carl Wallace, pastor—Vigil of Maundy Thursday begins at 8 tonight with reception of members, baptism, Holy Communion and extinguishing of lights. The combined choirs will sing special Easter music at the 11 a. m. worship service Sunday.

Southern Pines Methodist Church, the Rev. Robert C. Moon, Jr., pastor—Maundy Thursday service of Holy Communion at 8 tonight. Mrs. Dewey Mims will sing "The Holy City." Easter Sunday services will be Sunday School at 9:45 and worship service at 11 a. m.

Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church—Good Friday service from 2-4 p. m. A guest minister, Dr. George E. Staples, will conduct the 11 a. m. worship service and preach the sermon on Easter Day.

First Baptist Church, the Rev. Maynard Mangum, pastor—the 11 a. m. worship service on Easter will be conducted by Dr. William C. Strickland, who is in charge of revival services being held in the church this week.

The evening service at the First Baptist Church on Sunday will feature the singing of Easter music by the congregation and the church choir, to be followed by a discussion, under the leadership of (Continued on Page 5)

JOHN CHAPPELL To Speak at Service

S. Bennett St. at 6 a. m. Sunday. The public is invited.

Speaker for the service will be John Chappell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chappell, who is a ministerial student at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Wake Forest. Representatives of all participating youth groups will have parts in the service.

An anthem will be sung by the Southern Pines High School Glee Club, directed by William McAdams. Ralph Hendren, high school junior, will sing the call to worship. Miss Cathie Sandstrom will be accompanist.

In case of rain, the service will be held at the United Church of Christ (Church of Wide Fellowship).

Other Sunrise Services Other community sunrise services scheduled for Easter morning over the county include:

At Old Bethesda Cemetery near Aberdeen, 6:30 a. m.

At the Vass Methodist Church, 6 a. m.

At the West End Methodist Church, 6 a. m.

In Cross Hill Cemetery, Carthage, at 6 a. m. (Methodist Church in case of rain).