Appreciation... I am grateful to the Democrats of Moore County for my renomination to the North Carolina House of Representatives without opposition for a ninth consecutive term. I also appreciate the Republicans not sponsoring an opposition candidate for the post. In the past I have tried to serve the whole citizenship of Moore County in matters coming before the General Assembly. I am always glad to have the suggestions and opinions of the people of Moore County concerning matters which the General Assembly must act upon. I am grateful and humbled with the confidence which you have bestowed in me since I first became a candidate for the House in 1946 and I look forward to serving you again in the 1963 General Assembly. Sincerely, H. CLIFTON BLUE
