Local Garden Club Invited to Coastal Garden in August

Mrs. Fred B. Howland was hostess to members of the Southern Pines Garden Club at her Highland Road home Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Clarence L. Von Tacky, president, told the group she attended the dedication of the new Southern Pines High School building Sunday, upon invitation, and that Norris L. Hodgkins expressed appreciation to the Garden Club during the ceremonies for its contribution of planting around the new building.

The president also noted that the Club had received a number of letters from persons who went on the House and Garden Tour, sponsored by the local Garden Club for the 14th year April 21, telling how much they had enjoyed the visit.

She informed the members that the club had been invited to the famous Elizabethan Gardens on the North Carolina Coast on August 18.

It was noted by the chairman of the flower box committee that improvement had been made and quite a bit of replanting done in the window boxes supplied by the club to merchants in the downtown area on Broad Street.

After the meeting, tea was served.

W. O. CAREYS JOIN GROWING COLONY OF FORMER SOUTH AMERICANS HERE

After sampling life in Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky and Arkansas, Mr. and Mrs. William O. Carey have decided to settle in the Sandhills and have purchased a home on Indian Trail Drive in Knollwood.

The former owner, Mrs. Paul Manget, lives in Greenwich, Conn. The sale was arranged by Barnum Realty & Insurance Co. of Southern Pines and the Col. George P. Hawes Agency, Inc. of Pinehurst.

The Careys formerly lived in South America; in fact, Mrs. Carey, who speaks with a charming accent, was born in Argentina but has been living in Uruguay.

Her husband, a native New Yorker, retired in 1956 as head of the Lone Star Cement Company's branch in Argentina. His daughter, Mrs. F. R. Hall, her husband and their two children, live in Montevideo where Mr. Hall is head of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey.

Mrs. Carey's son, F. Peter Morawski, now associated with the Edie Mining Company in Minnesota, is a former Marine and was stationed for some time at Camp Lejeune during previous years.

The Careys have joined a growing colony of South America residents who have migrated to this section—they are friends of the Leonard O'Malleys who moved to Southern Pines last summer and own a home on Maple Road.

Others include Bishop and Mrs. Louis C. Melcher and Adm. and Mrs. Thomas C. Ragan, both families now living in Pinehurst.

Legion Auxiliary Enjoys Pan-American Evening on Thursday

Last Thursday night, Mrs. Clara W. Sausser was hostess to the American Legion Auxiliary when a Pan-American program was presented.

After Mrs. Sausser gave the highlights of the material furnished by the Pan-American Union for the study this year on Columbia, four of her daughters, Peggy, Ann, Katy, Rosy, and their brother, John, sang the National Anthem in Spanish, then the Panama National Anthem, translating one verse into English. The children learned the language in a Spanish-speaking school in Panama City when Colonel Sausser was stationed there.

The business session was presided over by the unit president, Miss Gussie Cameron when several reports were given by committee chairmen, including rehabilitation, memorial and flag, legislative, Gold Star, and those attending the recent district conference at Rockingham.

The chairman of the nominating committee, Mrs. L. L. Woolley, presented the slate of officers for the coming year as follows: president, Miss Gussie Cameron; first vice-president, Mrs. Veta E. Gorman; 2nd vice-president, Miss Effie Bailey; corresponding secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Mabel Burns; recording secretary, Mrs. Allie B. Rose; chaplain, Mrs. Elizabeth Ritchie; historian, Mrs. Rachel McLaughlin; sergeant-at-arms, Mrs. W. E. Cox, Jr. It was voted unanimously to accept the slate as read.

Installation of officers will take place Tuesday, May 8th at the regular meeting to be held at the Park View Hotel.

One of the unusual dainties served by the hostess was sopa borracha, a cake made by a Panamanian recipe. Many colorful articles of clothing and householdware were on exhibit which had been purchased by the family while in the Canal Zone. All taking part in the program were dressed on a Panamanian costume.

The above meeting had been postponed two weeks.

AN ORIENTAL PAGODA of Chinese red, gold and black, surrounded by a rock garden, real grass and a splashing fountain, was the focal point of interest at the far end of the Southern Pines High School gym the night (Saturday) of the Junior-Senior Prom. The Juniors, traditionally entertain the seniors and are always responsible for the decor on the night of the annual formal dance. The entire gym, walls and ceiling, was hung with red, white and gold streamers with tinkling glass ornaments. Juniors, seniors and their dates entered through a tea house with an elaborate tea set on a low table. The orchestra was seated in a sampan over the pit filled with "simulated" water made of blue plastic; the boat's bow rose and dipped regularly as though from the action of a real body of water. A group of girls danced a formal Japanese fan dance, a fierce dragon of green papier mache and cardboard with gold glittering scales, breathing "real" red fire, slithered around the floor and colorful rickshaws all provided an authentic flavor to the affair.
