Three Young Men Enlist in Army; Hawks to Leave

Three young men from Moore County have enlisted in the US Army, S-Sgt. Paul Hawks, recruiter with headquarters at Sanford, announces.

They are: Specialist 5 Harold W. Williams, Route 3, Carthage, who re-enlisted for six years with assignment to US Army Europe. His last tour of duty was with the 8th US Army in Korea and he had previously served four years in the US Navy.

Jerry W. Hinesley of Carthage, who had attended Carthage High School. He enlisted for three years in the regular Army.

James Thomas Wallace of Pinehurst, a graduate of Dillon High School, Dillon, S. C., who worked with the Carolina Hotel, Pinehurst, before enlisting in the Army Airborne.

Sergeant Hawks, who has been recruiter for this area for several years, visiting Moore County towns regularly, said this week he expects to be transferred to US Army Europe as a recruiting career counselor, the latter part of June.

USMC Recruiter Honored; New Program Noted

Master Sergeant Richard M. Turner of the Fayetteville US Marine Corps recruiting station has received a plaque and certificate for enlisting more men in the Marine Corps than any other recruiter in the Southeast, during the third quarter of the fiscal year 1962. He opened the office in the Grace Pittman building on Hay St., Fayetteville, January 15 of this year and produced 166 per cent of his quota of recruits, January through March. Sergeant Turner visits Southern Pines regularly in his recruiting duties.

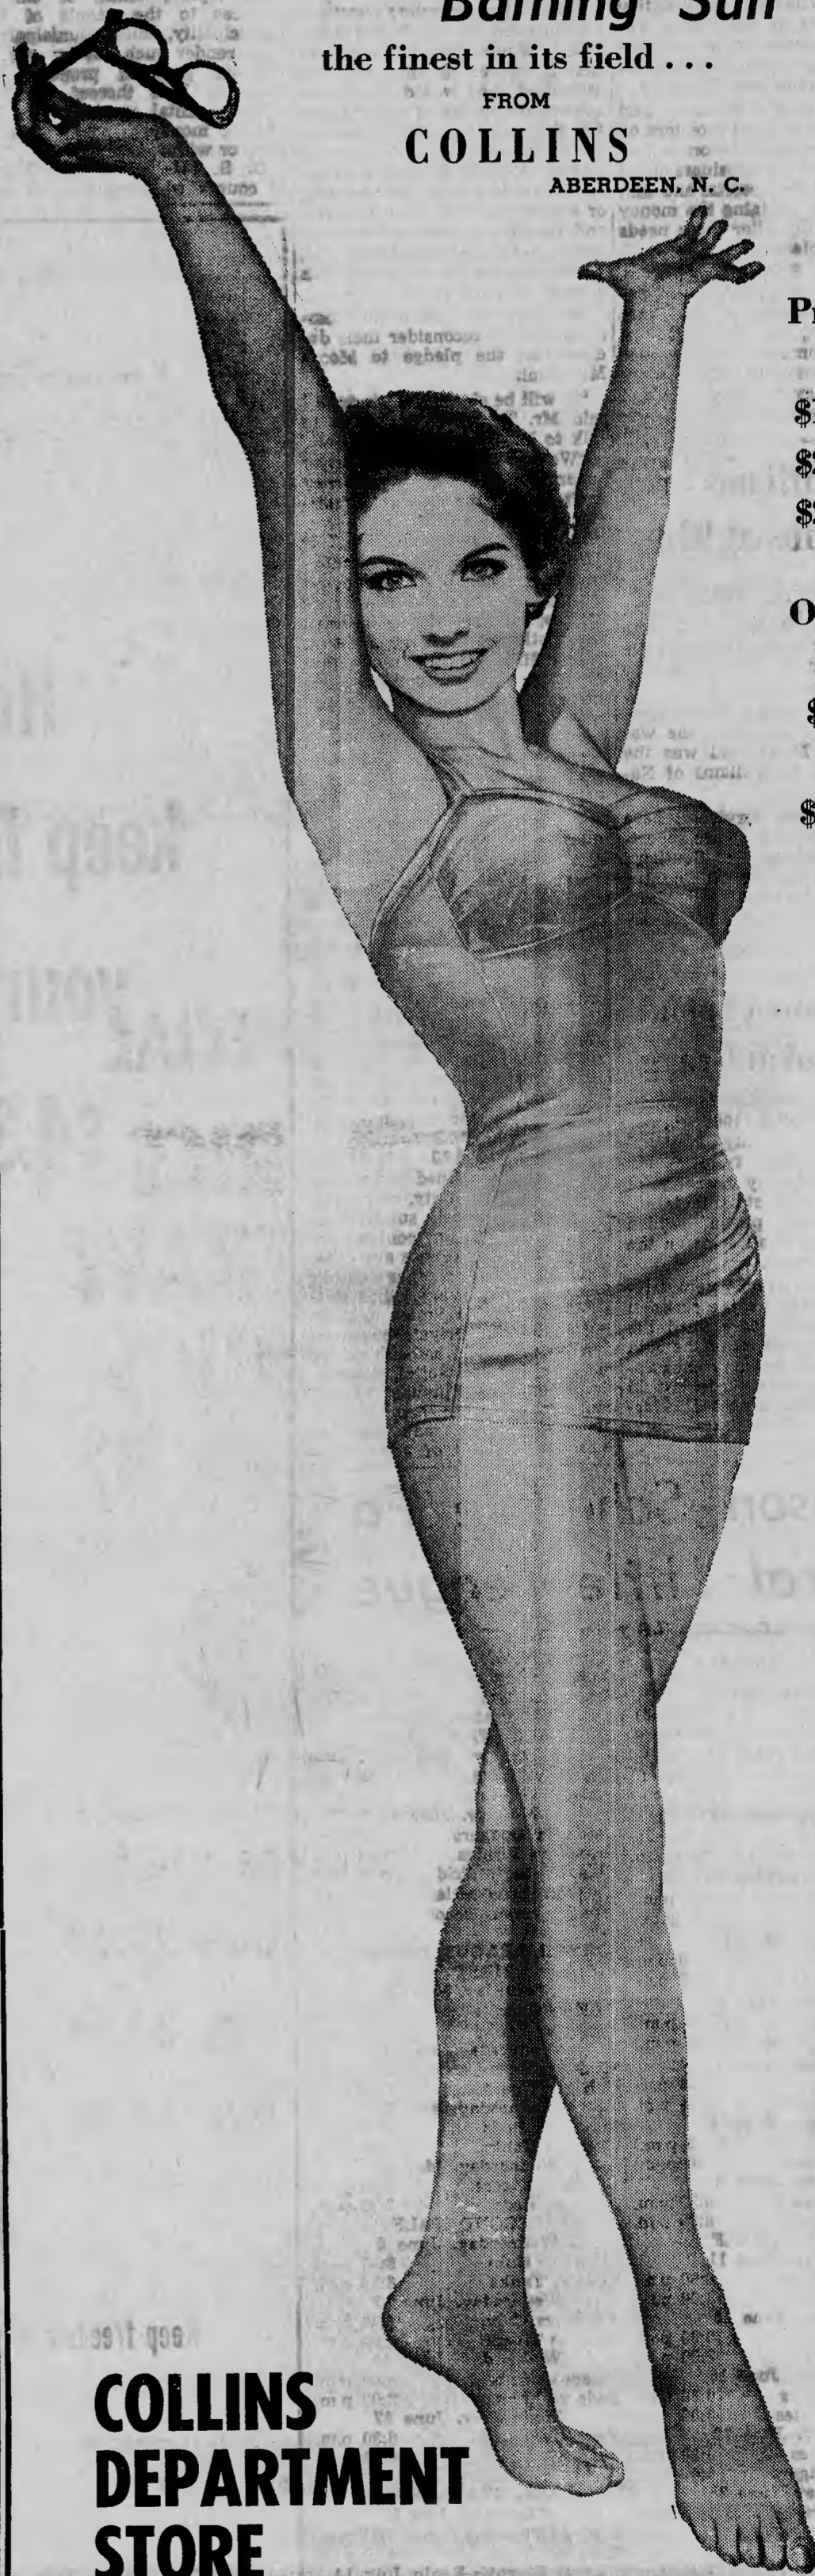

He recently announced that young men joining the Marines may now choose the Aviation Training Program at Memphis, Tenn., where instruction in numerous aviation specialties is given.

A Home IS BUILT ON A Woman's Thrift

DAD EARNS IT... Mom spends it That's the way things are in most families... and rightly so, because Mom is the manager of the family budget.

What she BUYS and how much she SPENDS determines what can be SAVED.

Think of how many extras... an unexpected medical bill, a new television set... you were able to pay for because MOM WAS SMART ENOUGH TO SAVE FOR IT!
