Witnesses to Convence at Fayetteville

Jehovah's Witnesses of the Southern Pines West Unit congregation will attend a circuit assembly in Fayetteville, May 18-20.

Joseph Mitchell, presiding minister, said that it has been necessary to cancel the regular week-end meetings from May 17-20 due to many persons being away for the Christian assembly.

"Faithfully Increasing Our Praise To Jehovah" is the select theme of the three-day assembly. Fayetteville Armory has been secured to accommodate the delegates. A peak of 500 is expected on the final day. All sessions are open to the public.

The Witnesses locally have arranged a free showing of the film "Divine Will International Assembly" on May 16, at the West Southern Pines School, beginning at 7:30 p. m. The film deals with Christian unity among nations.

2 Men Arrested, Others Sought After Shooting Spree That Wounded Women

Two Montgomery County men were placed in Moore County jail and six or seven others were being sought early this week by Moore and Montgomery County officers, in connection with a shooting Saturday evening above Robbins in which two women were injured.

Deputy Sheriff I. D. Marley said Mrs. Dewey Allred and her daughter-in-law Mrs. J. D. Allred received shotgun wounds when a group of men came to the Allred place on NC 705, seven miles north of Robbins, and opened random fire.

Campbell College Benefit Dinner Slated May 15

A clear title to a new science building may be in the offing as a 75th anniversary present for Campbell College at Buies Creek.

This is the object of a benefit dinner to be given at the Sir Walter Hotel in Raleigh May 15 by business and industrial friends of the school. Supporting the project as principal speakers will be Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges, Governor Terry Sanford, and Henderson Bek of Charlotte.

Occasion for the banquet is the one-hundredth anniversary of the late founder, Dr. J. A. Campbell and the seventy-fifth year of the academy and college he established at Buies Creek in 1887. Campbell, a junior college since 1926, is now in its first year as a degree-granting institution.

Sponsors of the event are business and professional friends of the school.

Richard Whites Buy in Kenwood

Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. White, former residents at Little River Farm between Southern Pines and Carthage, where Mr. White was employed for five years, have bought the former Hutchinson home on Fairway Drive in Kenwood. They have three sons, Brian, 5; Bobby, 3; and Andy, one year old.

Mr. White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald White of Aberdeen, is employed by John G. Hemmer, Pinehurst photographer. A graduate of high school in Macon, Ga., he served four years in the Marine Corps. He met his wife, the former Anne Marie Connary, daughter of Howard C. Connary of Stratford, N. H., and the late Mrs. Anna Platt Connary, while he was stationed at Portsmouth, N. H.

Mrs. White, who is a substitute teacher of mathematics and other subjects at Pinehurst High School, and also does private tutoring, was valedictorian of her 1951 high school class at Lancaster, N. H. She received her B. A. degree in mathematics from the University of New Hampshire in 1955. The Whites were married in July, 1956, and moved to the Sandhills in December of that year.
