

The Pinehurst Page

MARY EVELYN de NISSOFF, Editor TELEPHONE OX 2-6512

Dr. J. S. Aldridge Weds Miss Petzold In Michigan

The marriage of Miss Helen Elizabeth Petzold, daughter of Mrs. Herman G. Petzold, of Grosse Pointe, and the late Mr. Petzold, to Dr. John Symington Aldridge, son of Dr. and Mrs. Albert H. Aldridge, of New York, took place Saturday at St. Paul's on the Lake, Grosse Pointe Farms.

The Right Rev. Frank J. McPhillips officiated. Mrs. Paul Dettloff was her sister's only attendant and Mr. Richard Mattingly was best man.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's grandfather, Mr. William A. Petzold.

The bridegroom is the grandson of the late Dr. and Mrs. John Symington of Carthage and a nephew of Mrs. James R. Euchanan of Pinehurst. Mrs. Euchanan visited the Aldridges in New York and went with them to the wedding.

The couple will live in New York. The bride, who was introduced to society at a ball at the Grosse Pointe Club in 1957, is a graduate of the Convent of the Sacred Heart, Noroton, Conn., and the Duchesne Residence School, New York.

Dr. Aldridge is a graduate of Cornell University and Cornell Medical College. After serving as a medical officer in the Navy, he trained in obstetrics and gynecology at the Woman's Hospital in New York.

Terri Horner, 6, Has Party Saturday At Community House

Mrs. Thomas V. Horner gave a party Saturday for a number of her daughter Terri's friends on the latter's sixth birthday.

The party was held at the Community House, where the children played musical chairs and other games. They had refreshments of ice cream, cake and drinks and all were given favors of Japanese lanterns filled with candy and balloons.

Bettye McCaskill: Semi-Finalist in Miss N. C. Pageant

Winner of a $150 scholarship as one of 11 semi-finalists in Saturday's Miss North Carolina Pageant was Bettye Louise McCaskill, who entered the Jaycee-sponsored beauty and talent contest at Charlotte as Miss Carthage, a title she won June 5.

The Auburn-haired daughter of the J. Hubert McCaskills of Pinehurst was first runner-up in last year's Miss Pinehurst Swimming Pool contest. For her talent spot in the Charlotte show, she sang several Scottish folk songs.

A graduate of the Pinehurst High School, Bettye spent her freshman year of college at St. Andrews in Laurinburg but plans to enter the National Academy of Broadcasting in Washington next fall.

Her chaperone in Charlotte during the several days the 80 Miss N. C. contestants spent there was Charla Marcum of Southern Pines, who two years ago as Miss Sanford won the title "Miss Congeniality" in the Miss N. C. Pageant.

Hunt Installed In Legion Office

George W. Hunt of Pinehurst was installed Sunday as vice commander of the 11th District of the American Legion.

The installation took place during a state-wide meeting at Newton, when incoming Department (State) Division and District officers were installed. Francis M. (Mike) Meginnis of Rockingham is the new 11th District commander.

Legion posts in the 11th District are those at Southern Pines, Pinehurst, Aberdeen, Carthage, West End, Hoffman-Marston, Elerbe, Hamlet, Rockingham and Raeford.

Newspaperman Speaks At Men of Church Meet

H. Clifton Blue, editor of the Sandhill Citizen of Aberdeen and top candidate for Speaker of the House of Representatives in Raleigh, was the speaker at the Wednesday evening dinner meeting of the Men of the Community Church at McDonald's Chapel near here.

Mr. Blue's topic—"The Christian in Politics."

TEERING OFF * WITH deNISSOFF

The Roundup

The army has supplied 100 tons of tents and a 100-bed field hospital at Button Bay, Vt., the campsite on Lake Champlain where "acres of girl" Scouts, that is, are convening this week for the Roundup.

Girls from 50 states are taking part in the roundup, part of the 50th anniversary celebration of the Girl Scouts of America.

The actual statistics are staggering, especially in comparison with the first Girl Scout campout, when Juliette Low of Savannah, Ga. took a group out on a camping trip in March, 1912.

For instance—the state of Vermont installed a 250,000-gallons-a-day water system tapping the lake—432,000 meals will be served during the period July 18-31 and there will be 14,000 campfires.

Eleven special trains or coaches, 100 chartered buses and a hay wagon were used to transport the scouts; an outdoor arena for 10,000 persons, including the 1,700 adults in charge, was built by the scouts and the New England Telephone and Telegraph Co. built a microwave tower to handle long distance phone calls. Now that last item sounds like camping out with modern conveniences.

Everything seems to be weighed in tons—tons of food have been donated—including masses of the specialty of the state—maple syrup—and a pageant of folk dancing and singing will be climaxed with the awarding of 12 college scholarships and the presentation of a two-ton birthday cake.

There will be 150 girl guides present, from as far as Japan and Nigeria.

And, naturally, we're very proud of the three Sandhills representatives who are among the eight delegates from the Central Carolina Council—Betsy Grier of Pinehurst, Susan Huntley of Southern Pines and Betty Lou Funderburk of Aberdeen.

Still Around When we occasionally request a respite from the constant assault to the eardrums of modern folk tunes like "A-hab the A-rab" and "Locomotion," our young fry, who's been a-listening hard on his shiny new transistor comes back with "I'll bet you listened to this kind of stuff when you were in your 'teens."

We plead guilty, but the kind of stuff we had to listen to seemed to us much more tuneful—like Glenn Miller and the Dorsey brothers—maybe the orchestras sounded better or the vocalists—maybe we're just cranky with advancing age.

We were surprised to see, however, that one of the music stores in the state is advertising exclusively numerous albums by that old-timer, Frank Sinatra, who first learned to moan with Tommy Dorsey's band. How come these oldsters are still around and still popular?

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Thompson are spending a two weeks vacation in Waynesville.

T. Palmer Jerman, who has been occupying his home here for a short visit, returned this week to New York City. He was joined for the weekend by daughter, Virginia and son, Tom.

Capt. and Mrs. George F. Shearwood returned home Tuesday after several days with her sister in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Here for a visit with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Swaringen, are Debbie and Kathy Swaringen while their parents, the C. E. Swaringen, Jr. and their son are on vacation.

Mrs. Hulon Cole got home Friday after spending a month with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Biggers in Hertford.

Returning today from a trip through the Western part of North Carolina are Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keith Wedlock and their daughter, Joann.

Wiley Barrett, who has been at Camp Monroe as a counselor for the past two weeks, will be home next week, returning to Camp Monroe as counselor the following week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bowles and three children, of Cheraw, spent Friday visiting friends here.

Junior Golfers Winners Listed

Monday's weekly session of the Junior Golfers at the Pinehurst Country Club produced the following winners in the two classes into which the young players are divided for their summer program of instruction:

Class A
Low Net—First, Marty McKenzie, 70; Tony Yearby and Ronnie Currie tied for second.
Low Putts—First, Charles Currie; second, Boris deNisoff.

Class B
Low Net—First, Charles Shockley, 40; second, Bryan Currie; third, Buddy Smith.
Low Putts—First, Jeffrey Stewart; second, Sara McGowan.

Legion and Auxiliary Sponsor Square Dances

The American Legion A. B. Sally, Jr. Post 350 and its Auxiliary will hold a joint picnic supper meeting and family night Wednesday night, July 25, at 7 p. m. at the Legion Hut on the Aberdeen Road. This was announced at last Wednesday's meeting of the Auxiliary, presided over by President, Mrs. George Hunt.

It was also announced that weekly square dances will be held at the Hut, beginning Saturday, July 21, under auspices of the Post and Auxiliary.

Refreshments were served after the meeting, which was opened and closed with prayer by Chaplain Mrs. D. C. Horner.

maxed with the awarding of 12 college scholarships and the presentation of a two-ton birthday cake.

There will be 150 girl guides present, from as far as Japan and Nigeria.

And, naturally, we're very proud of the three Sandhills representatives who are among the eight delegates from the Central Carolina Council—Betsy Grier of Pinehurst, Susan Huntley of Southern Pines and Betty Lou Funderburk of Aberdeen.

Still Around When we occasionally request a respite from the constant assault to the eardrums of modern folk tunes like "A-hab the A-rab" and "Locomotion," our young fry, who's been a-listening hard on his shiny new transistor comes back with "I'll bet you listened to this kind of stuff when you were in your 'teens."

We plead guilty, but the kind of stuff we had to listen to seemed to us much more tuneful—like Glenn Miller and the Dorsey brothers—maybe the orchestras sounded better or the vocalists—maybe we're just cranky with advancing age.

We were surprised to see, however, that one of the music stores in the state is advertising exclusively numerous albums by that old-timer, Frank Sinatra, who first learned to moan with Tommy Dorsey's band. How come these oldsters are still around and still popular?

Here and Away

Here for the weekend with Mrs. Eva Conant were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wharton and daughter, Nancy, of Raleigh.

Spending some time with Miss Callie Batley here is her sister, Mrs. A. L. Wicker of Carthage.

The Wiley Garners spent last week visiting their son, Capt. Clyde Garner and his family at Myrtle Beach AFB, S. C.

Mrs. Worth Faircloth, Mrs. Clarence Garner and daughter, Susan spent recent week-end in Fayetteville with their sister, Mrs. C. J. Cole. They attended the cake cutting and wedding for Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Cole's daughter, Carol who was married in Trinity Baptist Church to William Gore of Fayetteville. Others from Pinehurst attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Neil A. Moore Sr., parents of Mrs. Cole, and, from Charlotte, Mrs. Cole's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Akins and daughter, Gaye.

Hugh Carter has gone to Somerville, N. J. to visit his mother and celebrate her 90th birthday with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Carter, Jr. and sons, Billy and Jimmy will arrive tomorrow for a visit. Mr. Carter will go back to Winston-Salem Sunday, leaving his family, but will return next weekend for his grandmother's (Mrs. T. A. Cheatham) birthday on the 29th.

Major and Mrs. James R. Wicker and children, Jill and Jackie have arrived from Barksdale AFB in Shreveport, La. for a week's visit with his parents, the Rassic Wickers and Nancy's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. B. U. Richardson.

Mrs. Martin J. Lawler and daughter, Peggy Jean of Geneva, N. Y. are guests this week of her mother, Mrs. V. Popham Mesick.

4 Scoring 88
Tops in 'Morco'

In the par bogey, all four partners tournament of Morco, men's summer golfing organization at the Pinehurst Country Club, the winners last week were Ray North, Joe Duffield, Joel Hufford and William Burke, who posted 42-46-88.

Morco is having an individual, medal play tournament this week.

Mrs. Harris Wins Weekly Tourney

Twenty-one members of the Sandhills Summer Club, women's golfing organization at the Pinehurst Country Club, played Tuesday in the club's weekly tournament a blind holes event.

Mrs. William C. Harris took first place with a net 21, with Mrs. Clement Monroe second at 22.

Next week's tournament will be medal play.

CONES GALORE—A whole big trailer full of longleaf pine cones stands behind these gentlemen—destined for Columbus, Ohio, where the Franklin Heights Lions Club will use them in a Christmas decoration project. Three members of the club are pictured here with two members of the Pinehurst Lions Club who helped them collect the cones. Left to right, Ed Swaringen of Pinehurst; Howard W. Messer, Lester C. Yarian and John Crego, all from Ohio; and Gordon M. Cameron of Pinehurst. The three visitors did some sightseeing in the Sandhills before they returned to Columbus. (Hemmer photo)

MISS STUTTS REPRESENTS MOORE

Sue Ingram of Mt. Gilead Chosen as Sandhills Peach Queen; SADA Meets

Nine "princesses" from five peach-growing counties paraded last Thursday night in their prettiest dresses, made brief speeches about peaches and answered unrehearsed questions in the competition for the 1962 Peach Queen crown.

When judging was over at the Sandhills Peach Festival held at East Montgomery High school near Candor, the diamond headgear rested on the golden curls of Sue Ingram, 18, of Mt. Gilead.

Representing Moore County in the group of lovely girls was Mary Alice Stutts, 18, of Pinehurst. When asked by the master of ceremonies, John Wallace of Troy, "Which do you like best, blondes or brunettes?" the black-haired beauty replied, "I've always thought I'd like to be a blonde. They win the beauty contests." As it turned out this time she was right.

Mary Alice, however, acquitted herself well, particularly in the three-minute speech in which, like the others, she came out unequivocally in favor of the delectable fruit, at its peak of annual production.

T. Clyde Auman of West End, president of the North Carolina Mutual Peach Growers Society, presided over the Festival, jointly sponsored by the Society and the Sandhills Area Development Association. It followed a banquet in the school cafeteria.

The day's program started with a luncheon at a nearby restaurant attended by the SADA executive council, headed by President Neal Cadieu of Rockingham, and 32 of the 50 members of the North Carolina Council of Area Development Associations.

During the afternoon, some 100 persons from the five SADA counties—Moore, Lee, Montgomery, Richmond and Hoke—toured the county, visiting points of interest—Steed's Nursery at Candor, the Indian Mound at Mt. Gilead, the Morgan-Jones bedspread plant (Aileen Mills) at Biscoe and a large peach-packing plant, among others.

Many more people came later, to swell the crowd at the Peach Festival to around 300. For the occasion, the school auditorium was adorned with dozens of baskets of Sandhills peaches, which

SECOND DAUGHTER

A second daughter, Green Callaway, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Emory, Jr. June 27 in Fredericksburg, Va. Mrs. Emory is the former Sylvia Callaway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Callaway, former residents of Pinehurst who now live in Skytop, Pa.

many of the visitors happily transported home.

Special Events

To Begin Revival At Beulah Hill

Special Homecoming Day services this Sunday, July 22, will mark the beginning of a week of revival at Beulah Hill Baptist Church near Pinehurst.

Featured on the day's activities will be the regular Sunday School services at 10 a. m., a children's day program at 11 a. m. and lunch on the grounds at noon, followed by a special service at which the recently paid church note will be burned.

In addition to the pastor, the Rev. Max Gilmore, several guest speakers will participate in the program. They are the Rev. Jerry Niswonger of First Baptist Church, Mt. Gilead; associational moderator; the Rev. Robert Johns of First Baptist Church, Biscoe; and the Rev. William Hancock of Robbins, former pastor of the church.

Evangelistic services will be held each evening Monday through Friday at 7:45 p. m., with the Rev. S. Glenn Whitley of the second Baptist Church, Fayetteville, bringing the messages. Special music has also been arranged for the services. The public is invited.

SUBSCRIBE TO THE PILOT—MOORE COUNTY'S LEADING NEWS WEEKLY.

MRS. BARRETT'S WEE SCHOOL

Kindergarten For Pre-School Age
Now Accepting Enrollment For OCTOBER 1 OPENING
For Further Information Call

CY 4-5475

Pinehurst, N. C.
jul19,26c

FRYE'S DINER

ABERDEEN - PINEHURST RD.

NOW OPEN

After Vacation Closing

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED

TO VISIT THE NEW ALL ELECTRIC

Gold Medallion Home

IN THE FOREST HILLS DEVELOPMENT

Off U.S. Highway 1 North of Aberdeen

SATURDAY and SUNDAY, JULY 21 - 22 — 2 Til 6 p.m.

Built By:

M. CROWELL ALMOND

For More Than 15 Years Quality Construction

And Satisfied Homeowners In This Area Have Been Our Only Advertisement.

M. CROWELL ALMOND

—BUILDER—

Phone WI 4-1526

Aberdeen, N. C.

