Southern Pines

WE LIKE TO THINK ..."

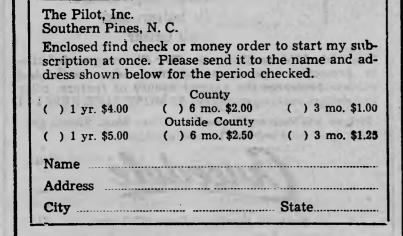

During recent years several new industries have come to Southern Pines and, by the looks of things, more are on the way. This means more jobs for local folks, more funds circulating in local pockets, more good citizens coming here to live . . .

During the past year a dozen or more drives have been held here for funds in support of better health, better education, to alleviate human need . . .

During the past year more people have come here to live, attracted by what they hear or have read of the climate, the sports, the pleasant living, the charm of a friendly, attractive community . . .

News of all this appears regularly in the columns of this newspaper and we like to think that The Pilot lends a hand in such good causes.

names like traitor, more than once. A notable example is the Biblical propilet Jeremiah. He was easily the most unpopular man in the country. Few believed him or believed in him. From the ruling class right down to the masses, he was considered to be a bad character. More than once he was put in jail or under house arrest as a dangerous character.

Yet he was, as history acclaims him, one of the great patriots of How do we know he was a patriot if his contemporaries could not see him in that light? For one thing, we now know, as his contemporaries would have known in time, that he was right. What he said would come true, did come

Another reason why we can see that he was a real patriot was that he did not pretend that all was well with his nation. He was brave and clear-sighted enough to speak out against abuses in church and state. He swung a strong axe against the trees of evil that overshadowed the land.

He talked very plainly about the sins and crimes of men at the top.

He did not even pretend to believe that his country could come out victorious after any war they chose to get into. He did not agree that God loved the children of Israel better than he loved any other nation, or that only in Israel could servants of God be found.

He even publicly called Nebuchadnezzar, an invading king, a servant of God. About the future of his country he had no illusions. He saw that their only hope was to yield to Nebuchadnezzar and to become a part of their empire; but this the Israelites could not think of doing. Their recipe for national security was military alliance with Egypt, a suicidal policy as Jeremiah tried to tell them. So they accused Jeremiah of being an enemy of his country.

But how much is a country helped by people who can never see any-

In all the hullabaloo over Jeremiah, people in his city either did not know, or would not notice, some facts that marked the man as a genuine patriot. For one thing, he went to some trouble to buy land, in an area already controlled by invading armies.

The prophet thus expressed in a practical (and expensive) way his conviction that (so to speak) there would always be a Judah. Furthermore, though we know he had opportunities to do so, he never went over or "defected" as we say, to the Babylonians. And at the end, so as to stay with his own people, he chose banishment, poverty and death rather than live in comfort in Babylon.

In the one-sided war between his country and Babylon, he could see that Babylon was stronger by far; but his own people were his communism there is only one way to do it . . . It is the one thing that people who talk about fighting communism generally fail to mention. We must construct a social order in which the goals of justice, mercy and morality take precedence over economic security, political power and technological progress." Some would call the writer of such lines no
