

Women's Activities and Sandhills Social Events

MARY EVELYN de NISSOFF, Editor

TELEPHONE OX 2-6512

MRS. CARLISLE TODD BASTIAN

MISS DONNA MCKENZIE IS MARRIED TO CARLISLE T. BASTIAN IN CHURCH RITES

Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church was the scene of the Sunday, July 15, double ring ceremony, at 5 o'clock, uniting in marriage Miss Donna McKenzie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McKenzie of Southern Pines, and SP4 Carlisle Todd Bastian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle M. Bastian of Larchmont, N. Y.

Decorations of magnolia and palms, baskets of white flowers and candelabra holding tall white tapers, formed a setting for the vows, which were exchanged before Dr. Cheves Ligon, secretary of Fayetteville Presbyterian and former pastor of the bride.

Mrs. John McPhaul, organist, and Robert Matthews, soloist, presented a program of nuptial music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of silk organza over taffeta, designed with sweetheart neckline with motif of Alencon lace, fitted bodice, and long sleeves which tapered to a point over the hands. Her bouffant skirt was caught up with handmade roses of the same fabric and ended in a chapel sweep. An elbow length veil of French illusion was attached to a coronet of pearls and crystals, made especially to complement the gown. She wore a pearl necklace, gift of the bridegroom, and carried a white prayer book adorned with a white orchid and showered with stephanotis and satin streamers.

Miss Clara Horner of Southern Pines was maid of honor. She wore a blue silk organza sheath dress with bouffant overskirt and matching net headress. She carried a cascade bouquet of white and blue shasta daisies with blue satin streamers.

Miss Gwen McKenzie, sister of the bride, Miss Melanie Bastian, Larchmont, N. Y., sister of the groom, Miss Patsy Garner and Miss Janet McKenzie, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of pink organza, designed like that of the maid of honor, and carried bouquets of pink and white shasta daisies with matching streamers.

Benjamin Davis of Ocala, Fla. was best man. Ushers were Eddie McKenzie, brother of the bride, Charles Watkins of Southern Pines, Albert Holt and Chuck Higgins of Ft. Bragg.

The bride's mother wore a beige lace sheath dress, matching satin shoes and headress. Her corsage was green cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Bastian, the groom's mother, wore a silk carnation print dress with matching hat and shoes, and a corsage of white orchids.

Mrs. Bastian is a graduate of Southern Pines High School and Sanford Business College. Mr. Bastian attended Mamaroneck schools and the Storm King School in Cornwall, N. Y., and is now attached to the 82nd Division at Ft. Bragg.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of Mr.

and Mrs. Alwin L. Folley on Kensington Road. After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to the North Carolina mountains and Larchmont, N. Y. Upon their return they will leave for Hawaii, the groom's new post of duty.

Among out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. Harry Renz, Brookfield, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bastian, Larchmont, N. Y.; Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Bastian, New Rochelle, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Davison, Orange, N. J.; Mrs. Lucienne Copeland and son Jimmy, Silver Spring, Md.; Mrs. John Mason, San Francisco, Cal.; Mrs. T. K. Gunter and daughter, Margaret, Moncure, and Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Ballard, Angier.

Social Courtships
A miscellaneous shower was given Tuesday evening, July 3 by Miss Clara Horner and Miss Patsy Garner in the Fellowship Hall at Brownson Memorial Church for about 40 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Jones complimented the couple with an outdoor supper at their home on North May street last Tuesday evening.

Miss McKenzie gave a breakfast for her attendants Sunday morning at Howard Johnson's, and following the rehearsal Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. McKenzie entertained for the bridal party and out-of-town guests at their home on Airport road.

Mrs. McKenzie had as her dinner guests on Friday evening at Jack's Grill Mrs. Bastian and daughter, Melanie, Mrs. Don Jones, Donna and Gwen McKenzie.

Dawn Leland Gives Outdoor Party For Younger Set

Miss Dawn Leland gave an outdoor party last Friday evening for her cousin, Jim Leland, who has recently moved to Southern Pines with his family. The affair, held on the patio at her parents' home on Kensington Road, featured decorations of green and white crepe paper with Japanese lanterns. Dancing and games were enjoyed by the younger crowd, along with Cokes and cookies.

Guests included Martha Parks, Anna Dell Smith, Janet Fullenwider, Maureen Hassenfelt, Casey McDonald, Harry Webb, Jeff Donovan, Dick Pollock, Eddie Briddes, John McLaughlin, Ronnie Bradlev and Billy Bodine.

Miss Robbi Austin assisted the hostess with entertaining.

RETREAT TO BE HELD
The annual retreat of the Presbyterian Women of the Church will be held at Camp Monroe on August 1 and 2. Miss Janie Robinson, Bible teacher in the Charlotte city schools will be the speaker on Wednesday evening. An interesting program has been arranged and a large attendance is expected.

Miss Myrna McRae Engaged to Wed Ralph Wallace

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Russell McRae of Lakeview announce the engagement of their daughter, Myrna Ruth to Jerry Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wallace of Heber Spring, Ark. The wedding will take place on Sunday, July 29 in the Lakeview Presbyterian Church at 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Hamlin Leaves Washington For Wyo.

From Mrs. Edwin L. Bliss, of Casper, Wyo., comes a note telling of the move her mother has made to the Rocky Mountain state. She adds her address, "if any of her old friends are writing to her." Mrs. Agnes Hamlin, Valley Manor, Paradise Valley, Casper Wyo. Mrs. Bliss, who will still be Lois Hamlin in the minds of many from the old days when she lived with her parents on the Hamlin dairy farm—now the Paddock property—adds a nostalgic line: "It always makes us glad to get The Pilot and learn of new developments and progress in the Sandhills and to keep in touch with old friends."

Birthday Party For Nancy Weatherspoon

Nancy Weatherspoon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert W. Weatherspoon, gave a party for her last week, celebrating her ninth birthday Thursday, at their home on South Bennett street.

The young guests played games and had their pictures taken, and later Nancy opened her gifts. A beautifully decorated cake was served with ice cream, punch, nuts and mints, "Take home" favors, drawn from a surprise basket, were given at the end of the party.

Guests included Karen Daniels, Debbie Martin, Sue Bailey, Sue and Judy Norton and Nancy's cousins Vicki Woodell of Southern Pines and Sherrill Boyte of Aberdeen and Terri Wilster, also of Aberdeen.

Coming in later in the evening for refreshments were Mrs. Isaac Woodell, Mr. and Mrs. James Weatherspoon, Mrs. Eugene Norton and Eddie Watkins.

Wednesday afternoon, Nancy had a picnic and swimming party given for her by her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Alden Bower, along with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Norton and their family, Sue, Judy and Gene.

HOLLISTERS ATTEND MEDICAL MEETINGS AND VACATION ON WEST COAST, HAWAII

Dr. William F. Hollister and his family returned to their Midland Road home last Tuesday after a month's trip to the West Coast and Hawaii, where he attended the annual convention of the Southern Society of Clinical Surgeons. The meetings were held in San Francisco and Honolulu, and were attended by approximately 50 surgeons from all parts of the south, most of whom had their families with them.

Leaving from the Raleigh-Durham airport June 14, Dr. and Mrs. Hollister and their two children, Freddie and Sally Ann, flew to San Francisco. Mrs. Hollister and the children did considerable sightseeing around the city while he was attending and participating in the many phases of the surgical clinics held at the University of California Medical Center, the Presbyterian Medical Center and Letterman General Hospital.

Freddie, an avid baseball fan and one of the local Little Leaguers, was thrilled to get autographs from several of the Big League players at Candlestick Park, where the Milwaukee Braves, Philadelphia Phils and Cincinnati Reds were playing.

Before sailing for Hawaii, the Hollisters went up the coast to Mt. Rainier, Wash. and then to Seattle for several days at the World's Fair. At Mt. Rainier they ran into a snow storm—12 feet deep—but the skiers were all over the place in shorts and no shirts!

A boat trip of five days on the Lurline, took them to Hawaii where they spent eight days on the islands of Honolulu, Maui and Hawaii. The conventions were held in Honolulu at Queens Hospital and Tripler General, where the surgeons were guests of Major General Tynes. Gen. Tynes is a brother of Miss Harriet Tynes, executive secretary of Children's Home Society, Greensboro.

The five days in Honolulu were

MRS. RICHARD GORDON SPAUGH, JR.

MISS EMILY LOU BARR BECOMES BRIDE OF RICHARD SPAUGH, JR. IN WINSTON-SALEM

Miss Emily Lou Barr became the bride of Richard Gordon Spaug, Jr. at 5 p. m., Saturday, July 14th, at Home Moravian Church in Winston-Salem. The groom's father, Dr. R. Gordon Spaug, President of the Provincial Elders Conference of the Moravian Church, officiated. Dr. James C. Hughes, pastor of Home Moravian Church, assisted.

Mrs. Spaug is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Barr of Winston-Salem. She graduated in June from the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina in Greensboro with a Bachelor of Arts degree. She will teach in the Winston-Salem city schools in the fall.

Mr. Spaug's mother, Mrs. R. Gordon Spaug, is the former Katherine Riggan of Southern Pines. Mr. Spaug is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Herbert O. Riggan and the great grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. William F. Junge, who were among the settlers of Southern Pines. He will receive his Bachelor of Arts degree from Moravian College in Bethlehem, Pa. in January, 1963. He is employed by the Wachovia Bank and Trust Co. in Winston-Salem.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory peau de soie fashioned with a scalloped neckline and yoke of beaded hand-run Alencon lace. The princess skirt with back lace panel extended into a court train. She wore a lace mantilla and carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Larry Albertson, sister of the bride, of High Point, was matron of honor. She wore a candlelight dress fashioned with lace basque trimmed with moss green velvet ribbon, and full taffeta skirt, and matching bow bandeau. Her bouquet was orange delight roses, grapes and green ivy.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Wayne Shugart and Miss Patricia Houk of Winston-Salem; Miss Barbara Gregory, college roommate of the bride, of High Point; and Miss Nancy Donnelly of Park Ridge, Illinois. Their dresses and flowers were like that of the honor attendant.

Robert William Spaug was his brother's best man. Ushers were Larry Albertson, brother-in-law of the bride, and Ronald Gardner, cousin of the bride, of High Point; Wayne Shugart, William Hutchins, and the Reverend William Marshall of Winston-Salem; and Jerome Livengood III of Bethlehem, Pa.

After the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained in the fellowship hall of the church.

Rev. Wallace Returns From Blowing Rock

The Rev. Carl Wallace will fill the pulpit at the United Church of Christ Sunday, July 22. His theme will be "On Knowing God." Mr. Wallace and his family returned from Blowing Rock this week, after attending a Pastors' Family Conference.

The senior choir will rehearse Wednesday, July 25 at 7:30 p. m.

Out-Of-Towners Win at Duplicate Bridge This Week

Mrs. Sam Swartz of Salisbury and Jeff Cartier of Sanford were winners in Tuesday evening's bridge game at the Southern Pines Country Club. Second place winners were Mrs. Roy Grinnell and Mrs. C. H. Bowman, and Miss Katherine Wiley and Frank deCosta were third.

New Hair-Rivals

LAURA ANNE TINSLEY
Pfc. and Mrs. Philip Lee Tinsley announce the birth of a daughter, Laura Anne, on Thursday, July 12 at Moore Memorial Hospital, Pinehurst. Laura Anne weighed seven pounds, thirteen ounces. Her father, a field medic in the Army's Special Forces, left in March for Thailand where he is stationed on the southern border between Malaya and Thailand. The proud grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Leonard immediately sent a wire through the American Red Cross informing him of the safe arrival of his first child. Mrs. Tinsley, the former Susan Leonard, has been residing with her parents at their home on Massachusetts Avenue. She returned home with her daughter Tuesday.

Mrs. Currie Gives Program at Women Of The Church

Mrs. Joe Currie presented the program, "The Christian and Sunday," at the monthly meeting of the Women of the Church of Brownson Memorial Monday evening. Taking part in the discussion were Mrs. Elwood Blake, Mrs. Alice Bodine, Mrs. C. R. McCormac and Mrs. W. O. Spence. The program was prepared by Mrs. William J. Graham.

Mrs. J. W. Causey gave a report on the Synodical Training school held at Davidson College recently, and which she attended as a delegate from the church here.

IN AND OUTS

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McGobgan and children, Jane and Duncan, Jr., have returned to their home on Massachusetts avenue after several days vacationing at Ocean Isle beach.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard S. Ray and children, Sandra and Shaw of Winston-Salem, visited their parents Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Ray several days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lynn of Baltimore, Md. returned home Sunday after spending several days visiting Mrs. Lynn's family—her mother, Mrs. Bessie Swearingen, and sisters, Mrs. Jack Barron, Mrs. Charles Swoope, Mrs.

Walter Cook of Roseland, and her brother, Charles Swearingen of Aberdeen.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Kelly of Ridgewood, N. J. arrived at The Hollywood this week for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. James Pate had as their guests last weekend, her sister, Mrs. Rodney Wheaton and Mr. Wheaton and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rickers of Cohocton, N. Y.

Col. John W. Faulconer, who makes his home at The Hollywood, leaves this week for Tappanhook, Va. for a visit with his sister. From there he will go to Spring Lake, N. J. for a short stay.

NEW ARRIVALS!

Paper-back and Hard-back Books
JULY AND AUGUST HOURS
9:00 to 1:00 Monday Through Friday
CLOSED SATURDAY

Studio Bookshop

105 E. PENNSYLVANIA AVE. SOUTHERN PINES
GOREN BRIDGE AIDS PERSONALIZED STATIONARY

WISHING WON'T ALWAYS MAKE IT SO!

Wishing can be fun but it's really not a very practical answer to your desires. Don't throw any more money down the wishing well. Let me tell you about our Double Duty Dollar savings plan. Through this plan, you can be certain your dreams will come true. This unique idea combines savings and protection for the same dollar. Call today.

KEMPER INSURANCE
FIDELITY LIFE ASSOCIATION
A Mutual Legal Reserve Company

TOM RUGGLES
BARNUM REALTY & INS. CO.
OX 5-7251 Southern Pines, N. C.

If it concerns your health get it here!

Any product that has to do with your health, you can buy here with full confidence in its quality and freshness. Since safeguarding health is our business as well as our profession, we keep our stocks complete and up-to-date always.

Prescriptions filled with precision

Main Street

Aberdeen

Pack Up And Go With Your Clothes Dry Cleaned To New Freshness

Your vacation clothes boast a new look after Dry Cleaning by Crucedale. Clean clothes hold their shape better, fit better, and look better.

Crucedale Modern Texturize Dry Cleaning with built-in protection against perspiration odor, moth and mildew preserves the natural beauty of texture, color and design, making garments ALMOST LIKE NEW!!!

Pick-up and delivery in Southern Pines Mon., Thurs., Sat. Pinehurst Tuesday and Friday

Crucedale

Serving Southern Pines 25 Years

Al Cruce

WI 4-1600

Aberdeen