Staff Members Of East Side Schools All Now Appointed

Seven new faculty members have been employed for the East Southern Pines elementary, junior high and high schools, it has been announced by Luther A. Adams, superintendent.

The West Southern Pines teacher list was not complete at the time of his announcement and teachers for these schools will be announced later.

Anticipated increased enrollment in East Southern Pines results in assignment of two additional teachers, one in the elementary school and one in the high school. The West Southern Pines teacher enrollment is expected to remain the same.

Assignment of the faculty members to grades or subjects was not listed in the announcement, except for the new teachers, as these assignments had not been completely worked out, Mr. Adams said.

The new staff members are:
1. Miss Violet Lester, supervisor for the Southern Pines and Pinehurst administrative units. She replaces Miss Mary Logan who resigned to become dean of women at Mars Hill College. Miss Lester is a graduate of the University of South Carolina, with a master's degree in Supervision. She has been associate professor of Education at Newberry College, in South Carolina, and supervisor of the Hamlet and Yadkin County Schools.

2. Daniel Kruger who will teach high school Chemistry and Science and will assist with coaching. He is a native of Marcellus, Mich., is married and the father of three children. Mr. Kruger is a graduate of Western Michigan University and Wilmington College. He has an A. B. degree in Chemistry and an M. A. in Guidance and Counseling. He is presently enrolled in the Mathematics Institute at Bowling Green University and will move to Southern Pines August 26.

3. Miss Gayle Brinkley, a recent graduate of East Carolina College, with a B. S. degree in Primary Education. She will teach a fourth (Continued on Page 13)

Entries Received In Tennis Events Here In August

The first two weekends in August will see the playing off of the Sandhill Tennis Association's two annual sanctioned tournaments—the Junior Sandhill Invitational August 2 through 5, and the Sandhill Invitational August 9 through 12.

Some 500 invitations have been mailed to players in North Carolina and in neighboring states, and a number of entries have been received, according to Ray Schilling, STA president.

The tournaments, started in 1948, are a joint project of the STA and the town summer recreation program. John Williams, assistant high school coach who is serving as recreation director, will be director of both tournaments, with Norris L. Hodgkins, Jr., again serving as tournament chairman.

ANSWER FILED AT CARTHAGE

Moss Denies Allegations Of Suit

W. O. Moss, well-known horseman and landowner, answering the $25,000 suit of Mrs. Jennette G. Pitts, has denied all her allegations of a severe and unprovoked beating which she said was administered by him on May 28. Both principals reside at Manly.

In his answer, filed this week in the clerk of court's office at Carthage, Moss denies having struck Mrs. Pitts with his hands or any instrument, or that he touched her in any way except in taking from her a jack handle, with which he said she struck and injured him.

The alleged incident took place on the Old Yadkin Road, leading

EXCITING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE

Area Girl Scouts Enjoy Vermont 'Roundup'

By BETSY GRIER
Friday, July 21, 1962
Safe and sound, but sleepy, our 1962 Roundup patrol got off the train at Port Henry, N. Y. We had a wonderful trip up, which will be one of the highlights of the entire Roundup. The 8,500 girls here came by trains, buses and special cars.

After leaving Durham on the train, we had a two-hour wait in Greensboro where we were welcomed by the mayor and had a small party. When we boarded the train we discovered that our porter, who told us his name was Jones, had converted our seats into berths. After a night spent on the train we woke up in Washington where we breakfasted at the Savarin. There we switched to daylight saving time. Following this two hour stop we went on to New York. While in New York we enjoyed lunch at the Hotel New Yorker, a tour through the United Nations building, and a Circle line boat cruise around Manhattan Island. All of this was completed by 9 o'clock and we took a bus to Grand Central station where we once again boarded our Region VI train.

When we awakened we were near Port Henry so we ate our continental breakfast, detraind, and got on special Roundup buses which carried us about 30 miles to Button Bay.

We arrived at our campsite at approximately 9:30 and immediately set up camp and built our table. We were here at last! Being the first Region of girls to arrive, we had the pleasure of welcoming most of the other campers.

Our first days were spent looking over the Roundup, taking pictures, swapping, visiting, attending meetings (correspondent, first aider, commentator, patrol leader), and just plain camping.

Thursday night our first arena event was held. Included in this event were addresses by Mrs. Charles U. Culmer, president of the Girl Scouts of the U.S.A., the Honorable Fay Keyser, Jr., Governor of Vermont, and Lt. Gen. Garrison H. Davidson of the United States First Army. Both Vermont and the First Army (Continued on Page 8)

5 Boys, Leaders Represent U. S. At Iceland Event

Iceland sounds like a fine place to be during the current heat wave in the Sandhills.

And that's just where five Explorer Scouts and two adult leaders, from this area, will be for about the next week.

They're flying there from New York tonight, expecting to arrive Friday morning, to represent the United States at an international meeting of some 5,000 Scouts, in observance of the 50th anniversary of Scouting in Iceland.

Leader of the group is David Drexel of Southern Pines, Scoutmaster of Troop 873 here. The assistant adult leader is Melvin Turlington of Lillington.

The Explorers going are Bobby Ganis and Melvin Gardner, both of Southern Pines; Chuck and Rick Lewis, twin brothers, of West End; and Bob Oelrich of Sanford.

The group hopes to be able to do some mountain climbing, as well as take part in the anniversary observances. They will return in about 10 days.

The trip began last night when they went to New York City by train, planning some sightseeing in New York today.

Local Young Man Fatally Injured At Carpet Plant

Aldon Winfred Shelton, 20, of 310 North Page St., a weaver at the A. & M. Kargheusan carpet manufacturing plant at Aberdeen, died Friday at Moore Memorial Hospital of accidental injuries suffered at the plant Wednesday night.

Shelton was away from his own loom, helping another weaver, when "somehow a button was pushed" and his head was caught in the machinery, a company official stated.

The machine was immediately stopped, help was rendered and within seven minutes the injured man was being transported by ambulance to the hospital.

He had been employed at the Karagehusan plant about a year. A native of Moore County, he is survived by his wife, the former Sylvia Tillman; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Collis B. Shelton of Carthage Rt. 2; three sisters, Mrs. Bernice Lynthucum, Mrs. Betty Monroe and Miss Brenda Shelton, all of Carthage, Route 2; two brothers, Bill, of Cameron, and James, of Sanford.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at Red Branch Baptist church, conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Billy Metters, with burial in the church cemetery.

BENSALEM CHURCH TO BE DEDICATED

Dedication of the new Bensalem Presbyterian Church, near Eagle Springs, will take place at the 11 a.m. service Sunday, with a picnic lunch to follow on the church grounds.

The new structure replaces a 99-year-old building burned in March, 1958. All former members and friends of the church are invited to attend the events on Sunday.

The Rev. D. B. Graybeal, pastor, will preach, assisted during the service by the Rev. H. A. McBeth of Eagle Springs, the Rev. Grover Currie of West End and the Rev. Lacy McDuffie of Candor.

Reconsideration Of Library Bond Issue Set Monday

Mayor John S. Ruggles has called a special meeting of the town council, in the conference room at town hall, for 3 p.m. Monday, to reconsider a proposed bond issue for an addition and improvements at the Southern Pines Library.

The meeting followed a request for reconsideration by the library board of trustees which met Monday night at town hall. A majority of the trustees voted to ask the council to include the proposed $25,000 library bond issue in an upcoming election on bonds for sewer and water system improvements and a West Southern Pines swimming pool.

In a special meeting last week, the council had voted to proceed with plans for the water, sewer and swimming pool issues but had taken no action on the library proposal, after opposition to it on the part of two library trustees had been revealed.

The full board of trustees was present at Monday's meeting; Chairman W. Lamont Brown, who presided; Miss Lockie Parker, secretary; Councilman Morris Johnson, Mrs. Glen Rounds, Fred Brindley who was appointed to the board two weeks ago, replacing C. H. Bowman; and Mrs. James Boyd.

The library bond issue request is for $20,000 for an addition at the rear of the library, to permit more shelf, reading and working space, and $5,000 for new shelving and equipment.

Blood Collection Slated Next Week, Here, In Carthage

An American Red Cross bloodmobile from the blood center at Charlotte will make two visits in Moore County next week.

It will be at the high school cafeteria in Carthage from noon to 5:30 p. m. Monday and at St. Anthony's School in Southern Pines from 11 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. Tuesday.

The Jaycees are recruiting donors for the collection here. In Carthage, members of the Sorosis Club are in charge.

The Charlotte center supplies blood of all needed types to both the hospitals in this county—a system made possible only by donations of blood at periodic collections.

Books, Cards Wanted For Troops In August

The American Red Cross office at Fort Bragg has requested donations of paperback books and playing cards for distribution in field hospitals during August maneuvers.

Books or cards may be left at the office of the Moore County Red Cross chapter, 244 S. W. Broad St., or at Hobbs Grocery, Pinehurst.

James Gouldsbrough With Local Plant

James Gouldsbrough has been appointed general manager of Fletcher Shuttles, Inc., Edward T. Taws, Jr., president, has announced.

Mr. Gouldsbrough, a native of England who was formerly general manager of a broadloom shuttle manufacturing plant in Mexico and has 25 years of experience in the industry, has assumed his duties at the plant on the Carthage road near Southern Pines.

At that location Fletcher Shuttles is housed in a 15,000-square-foot addition to the plant of Fletcher Southern, of which Mr. Taws is also president. Fletcher Southern, with John Sullivan as general manager, makes shuttles for narrow fabric looms.

Both companies are units of Fletcher Industries of Cheltenham, Pa., which bought the assets of the Watson-Williams Manufacturing Co. of Pinebluff, broadloom shuttle manufacturers, early this year, changing the name to Fletcher Shuttles and moving the operation to Southern Pines. Total area of the combined plants is 45,000 square feet and the two companies employ some 75 persons, divided about equally between the two industries. Fletcher Shuttles has been in full production for three months.

Mr. Taws said this week that Fletcher Shuttles welcomes Mr. Gouldsbrough to its executive level "not only because of his reputation" (Continued on Page 8)

County Won't Divert Agriculture Building Funds to School Use

A delegation from the Moore County Farm Bureau, headed by S. R. Ransdell, Jr., of Aberdeen, president, protested to the county commissioners last Wednesday the diversion "for any other use" of a $73,500 budget item earmarked for a county agriculture building.

JONAS TO BE AT EVENT IN ROBBINS

Rep. Charles R. Jonas of Lincolnton, Republican candidate for 8th District Congress in the November election, will appear and speak at the annual Farmers Day celebration in Robbins, Saturday August 4, it was announced this week.

The Farmers Day event will feature display of nearly 200 horse-drawn wagons and other old vehicles from over the state. Full details of the program will appear in next week's Pilot.

Mr. Jonas, Congressman from the former 10th District, is opposing Rep. A. Paul Kitchin of Wadesboro, Democrat, for the new 8th District seat in the House of Representatives at Washington.

Moore County is in the new 8th District which was formed at direction of the 1961 General Assembly.

Hamel vs. Hufford, Tufts vs. Avery In Golf Semi-Finals

Little League Game Protest Withdrawn

Shirley Wooster, secretary of the Southern Pines Little League, said today that James E. Pate, coach of the Braves, has withdrawn a protest he entered on playing off a tie game with the Cardinals, coached by Joel Stutts, at the end of the second half of the Little League season. Action on the withdrawal has not yet been taken by the league's board of directors, but it is expected that the Cardinals will be officially declared the second half and full season champions of the four-team local league.

ed for a county agriculture building.

The commissioners at their regular meeting July 2, facing the urging of the Moore County and Southern Pines school units for increased capital outlay appropriations, had discussed a division of the $73,500 item for the benefit of the units, to enable them to let contracts on projects for immediate construction.

Though such a change appeared imminent, the tentative budget for 1962-63 was adopted unchanged on July 2, to lie open for 20 days. Adoption of a permanent budget must be done by Saturday.

To the Farm Bureau group, the commissioners responded only that they "would have to do what they thought best, in their considered judgment." Commissioner W. S. Taylor stated he favored holding the $73,500 intact for the time being. This is what was done.

The Farm Bureau members, who each year for the past seven years have seen the reserves for their long wanted building diverted, begged that this time the funds be held intact until a November bond election can take place.

School contracts pending were those for the Union Pines consolidated high school and the West Southern Pines high school. While scaling down their requests to what they called a "bare minimum," representatives of the Moore County and Southern Pines school units both sought enough to let contracts on bids already received for the first two phases of, their planned four-phase buildings.

At last Wednesday's special meeting, another protest of school plans was heard. Joe Lennon and J. K. Melvin, Jr., Aberdeen, urged that all funds for the West Southern Pines high school be withheld until the Aberdeen, Pinehurst and Southern Pines boards could thoroughly discuss the possible consolidation of their Negro high schools. This would include not only a share of the $73,500, but the $81,500 already in the tentative budget for the West Southern Pines building. Estimated final cost of the building is $375,000.

The commissioners suggested to the Aberdeen group that they "proceed through proper channels." (Later that day, they informed the Southern Pines board no additional capital outlay funds would be forthcoming this year. With a reserve of $61,500, and the anticipation of $81,500, the Southern Pines board let contracts last Wednesday night for a total of $99,701 for construction of Phase A of the West Southern Pines school, consisting of a heating plant and seven classrooms.)

Vass Group Asks Rural Fire Truck

A delegation from the Vass-Lakeview area was to meet with the county commissioners at Carthage this afternoon to ask inclusion of funds for a rural fire truck, to be stationed at Vass, in the 1962-'63 county budget.

Final approval of the tentative budget which is now open for inspection in the office of the register of deeds at Carthage, must be given by Saturday.

A request for a fire truck in the Vass area was made by a delegation appearing before the commissioners several months ago.
