What was probably their last swim of the summer was enjoyed by these boys and others of the Cardinals team, Southern Pines Little League champions, who were guests at the sponsoring Pine Needles Country Club for a cookout and poolfest Monday evening of last week.

Warren and Peggy Kirk Bell, Pine Needles proprietors, gave the youngsters a fine evening of entertainment at the new club pool and party included Joel Stubbs, Cardinals coach, and Mrs. Doris Brennen Weir, of Rhode Island, former Alpmpic world champion swimming star, who was visiting the Bells.

5 New Teachers Complete WSP Faculty List

Five new teachers were among the faculty members greeting their pupils at West Southern Pines schools last week.

Two had been employed just the week before as the result of some last-minute changes, enabling Principal H. A. Wilson to complete his faculty list in time. The five new members:

Charles A. Haywood, an honor graduate of St. Augustine College at Durham, is teaching science, in which he has a B. S. degree. Mrs. M. F. Haywood, an honor graduate of North Carolina College at Durham teaches home economics, in which she has the

B. S. degree. Edward C. Rodgers, who won his B. S. in music at Morgan State College, Baltimore, Md., is teaching a section of the eighth grade and assisting with the music program.

Mrs. Bernice James, a graduate of A. & T. College at Greensboro, has been substituting in the Greensboro city schools while raising her family. She is teaching a section of the seventh grade. Miss Betty Counts, a 1961 graduate of Winston-Salem Teachers College, who taught last year in Washington, D. C., has a third grade section. Both Mrs. James and Miss Counts have B. S. degrees in elementary education.

Rites Held Sunday For Isham Wallace, Route 1, Robbins

Funeral services were held Tuesday at Flint Hill Baptist Church for Isham Wallace, 80, of Route 1, Robbins, who died Sunday at St. Joseph of the Pines Hospital after an illness of several weeks.

The Revs. Amos Garner, Bennie Maness and Max Gilmore officiated. Burial was in the Wallace family cemetery.
