SHILOH SCENE OF WEDDING UNITING MISS DORIS THOMPSON AND JOSEPH SMITH

Miss Doris Jayne Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Marcus Thompson, became the bride of Joseph W. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Smith and the late Mr. Smith, in a double ring ceremony in the Shiloh Presbyterian Church, Montrose, at 5 p. m. Saturday.

The Rev. George Houck performed the double-ring ceremony. Miss Stuart Harmon was organist and E. H. Poole was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown she had designed and created herself. Made of white silk organza and alencon lace, the bodice had appliques of lace forming a scalloped neckline. The skirt had appliques of lace and formed a large bow in back on which were appliqued lace roses. The skirt formed a chapel train. Her veil was attached to a crown of seed pearls and she carried a bridal bouquet of white gardenias and stephanotis.

Mrs. Jackie Baggett of Burlington was matron of honor and Mrs. William Tulloch was bridesmaid. Junior bridesmaids were Miss Joy Lucas, cousin of the bride, and Miss Brenda Bobbitt. All were dressed in coral silk organza featuring square necklines with bell-shaped skirts and large bow-effect in back. They wore matching picture hats and carried bouquets of daisies.

Miss Karen Samuels, flower girl, wore a white dress made identical to the bride's and carried an umbrella basket filled with rose petals. Jackson Smith, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Harold Thompson, brother of the bride, Robert R. Samuels, and William Russell and Glenn Russell, cousins of the groom. The mother of the bride wore a dress of blue lace with matching accessories. The groom's mother was dressed in pink lace with matching accessories and both wore orchid corsages. The couple received in the vestibule following the ceremony. Mrs. Talmadge presided at the bride's book. For traveling, the bride changed to a pale green summer suit, blue-green veil hat, and matching accessories. She wore a white orchid corsage. Following a wedding trip to Florida they will be at home in Winston-Salem.

Mrs. Smith is a graduate of Hoke County High School and has worked as a medical secretary to Dr. H. Morris Caddell in Aberdeen. Her husband is a graduate of Aberdeen High School, attended Wake Forest College, and is presently employed by Wachovia Bank and Trust Company in Winston-Salem.

Miss Garrison of Pinebluff Weds Michael Kinnard

Miss Frances Leonor Garrison of Pinebluff wore a 19th century batiste gown for her Sunday wedding to Michael Paul Kinnard of Charlotte.

The Rev. Paul West officiated at 4:30 p. m. in Ives Memorial Baptist Church. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Omar J. Garrison.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride carried a colonial bouquet of roses, tube-roses and orange blossoms. Her veil was attached to an orange blossom crown. The son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Kinnard of 1959 Maryland Ave., Charlotte, had his father as best man. Henry S. Hallett of Charlotte ushered with Robert L. Garrison, Omar J. Garrison Jr., and Joe Bilyeu.

The bride's sister, Miss Avon Diane Garrison was maid of honor. Another sister, Miss Elaine Garrison, was bridesmaid. They wore ivory organza dresses with matching picture bonnets and carried bouquets of ivory roses and bronze chrysanthemums.

Flower girl was Beth Buffkin. The bride is a graduate of Aberdeen High School and Carolina Business College. She is cashier for Domestic Finance Co. of Charlotte.

Her husband graduated from Lehman High School in Canton, Ohio, and served in the Army. He is a student at Charlotte College and manager for Kinnard Speed Equipment Co.

The couple will live at 5205A Monroe Road, Charlotte after a wedding trip to Blowing Rock.

Manly Pastor's Wife Given Surprise Party By Church Women

Mrs. Donald Maconaghie of Manly was honored last Friday night with a surprise birthday party in the home of Mrs. Eveleth Richardson.

Mrs. Maconaghie, having been requested to attend a special Women of the Church meeting arrived to find 23 ladies present who greeted her by singing happy birthday. She was practically speechless and completely unaware that anyone knew her birth date. When asked if she had ever had a birthday party before, she replied "Yes, but this is the first one since coming to the United States and its the largest I've ever had."

After a game, directed by Mrs. Louis Honeycutt, Mrs. Maconaghie opened and displayed her gifts.

The guests were then invited into the dining room where a large, beautifully decorated birthday cake with candles centered the dining table. Punch, nuts and

JR. WOMEN'S CLUB ENTERTAINS DISTRICT 9, N. C. FEDERATION AT COUNTRY CLUB HERE

The Leadership Institute for District Nine of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs was held Tuesday, August 28 at the Southern Pines Country Club, with the Junior Women's Club of Southern Pines, hosts to this affair.

The purpose of the meeting was to instruct clubwomen of the 22 clubs, which make up the District, in the full program of the Federation.

Following the General Federation, the State and District, "Themes"—this administration will stress "Our Heritage."

Mrs. D. M. Wood, District president of Hamlet, presided.

Mrs. Charles MacKintosh of High Point, 1st vice president of the NCFWC and Mrs. Jerry Leibhart, of Morganton, second vice president of State, presented plans and spoke on "Our Heritage," respectively.

Mrs. Phil Yarborough, Jr., of Sanford, Junior Director for the District, was in charge of the Juniors.

The six Departmental chairmen of the District are: Mrs. V. R. White, Fayetteville, Education.

Mrs. Ralph Gandy, Rockingham, International Affairs.

Mrs. Ralph Dodge, McCain, Home Life.

Mrs. J. W. Frye, Aberdeen, Public Affairs.

Mrs. Phil Yarborough, Jr. Sanford, Conservation.

Mrs. William Yarborough, Jr. Sanford, Conservation.

Sanford, Conservation. Mrs. William Hancock, Robbins, Fine Arts.

Also, Mrs. A. A. Williams, Hamlet, State Savings Bonds chairman and Mrs. Paul Barringer of Sanford, State Junior International Affairs chairman.

Continuing "Care" as a major project of the International Affairs department, all contributions will support "The Literacy" program to be promoted in the U. S. and eight foreign countries. In the U. S. this program will be projected through the public schools, and clubwomen will be asked to volunteer their services.

Through the Education department, announcement was made that two awards of $500 each will be given by the General Federation of Women's Clubs this year to clubs in the U. S. doing the best work on "Scholarships" in their local clubs.

The "Community Improvement" program which is jointly sponsored by the General Federation and the Sears Foundation, will again be a major project in the Public Affairs department for the coming two years.

The grand prize offered for the most outstanding work in this program by a Woman's Club, will be $10,000 given by the Sears Foundation.

Luncheon was served in the dining room of the Country Club.

Seventy-seven club women attended.
