Lutheran Church To Be Officially Organized Sunday

After two years of preliminary planning and effort, Our Saviour Lutheran Church will be officially organized Sunday, in a service at the Civic Club.

The congregation has increased during the two years from a group of about 20 interested persons, with no minister, to a group of about 90 who will be accepted into membership as part of the proceedings on Sunday.

The Rev. Jack D. Deal, who has served the congregation since June 1 of this year, working with the Board of American Missions, will receive on Sunday the church's official call to be the pastor.

Officiating at the organization service at 11 a. m. will be Dr. F. L. Conrad of Salisbury, president of the North Carolina Synod of the Lutheran Church, who will declare the congregation organized and will also preach.

Other steps to be taken Sunday are adoption of a constitution, election of officers of the congregation and election of nine councilmen.

Pastor Deal will take part in the service as liturgist.

A dinner will be served at the Civic Club after the service. Numerous out-of-town visitors are expected for the day's events.

Planning for the church's proposed church building, on a site near the Fairway Motor Court, off No. 1 highway, will be started at once, Pastor Deal said. An architect will be employed and it is hoped that work on the structure can be completed in 1963.

Public Invited To Visit Schools

In observance of American Education Week, November 11-17, parents of students and others with an interest in the Southern Pines schools are invited to visit the schools next week, Supt. Luther A. Adams said today.

"We hope that all interested persons will visit the various classrooms, have lunch with us in the cafeterias and stay as long as they can," Mr. Adams said. The national annual observance is designed to focus attention on public school education and the important role it plays in American life.

OUT ON A LIMB and complaining loudly was the grey and white tabby cat (see arrow, above) high in a pine tree on East Massachusetts avenue last Friday afternoon. To the rescue came Fire Chief Frank Kaylor with truck and ladder. Climbing 30 feet up, he had a hard time at first enticing the frightened kitty within his grasp, but she finally capitulated. Lending assistance on the ground, and cheering the rescue, were Town Manager Bud Rainey, Police Chief Earl Seawell and Patrolman C. J. Benner, who held the ladder. To Chief Kaylor, however, it was all in the day's work. "Looks like the same cat I got down out of another tree Sunday," he noted. The kitty didn't say. Once on the ground, she darted quickly away. A party at the Country Club Thursday is the first of several events scheduled. The Carousel dance, which is open to the public, will be held at the National Guard Armory Saturday night, November 17, starting at 9 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kosten of the Pine Needles Club staff are the tournament directors.

The many handsome trophies to be given will be presented at 5 p. m. Sunday, November 18, at the Pine Needles Club.

Bill Harvey of Greensboro and Reid Tolar of Raleigh, defending champions in the men's division, are expected for the 1962 event—the 9th Carousel successfully promoted by the Jaycees.

As usual, the tournament is drawing entries from several states.

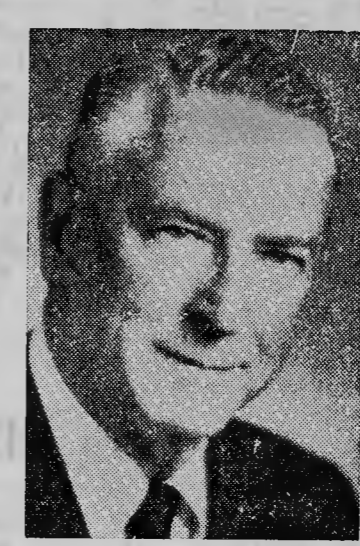

All 4 Town Bond Issues Win Approval

With about 775 Southern Pines citizens going to the polls, all four proposed town bond issues were approved on Tuesday in an election conducted separately from the county and state voting.

Majorities given the bonds ranged from 456 to 14 votes. The results: Water bonds ($105,000)—615 for; 159 against. Sewer bonds ($280,000)—608 for; 156 against. Library bonds ($25,000)—429 for; 324 against. West Southern Pines swimming pool bonds—390 for; 376 against.

Town officials will proceed at once with the necessary steps to issue the bonds, planning to sell only the amounts necessary to pay costs of projects as they are undertaken. Most pressing of the projects is sewage disposal plant improvement which must be started by the first of 1963, by direction of the State Stream Sanitation Commission.

Jonas Wins In District, Narrowly Loses Moore; Taylor Defeats O'Neal

CHARLES R. JONAS Elected to Congress

Charles R. Jonas, Republican, of Lincolnton, defeated A. Paul Kitchin, Democrat, of Wadesboro for the 8th District Congressional seat Tuesday, but Moore County remained in the Kitchin column by a slim margin of 78 votes.

The results: In the district—Jonas, 63,952; Kitchin, 52,804.

In the county—Jonas, 4403; Kitchin, 4481.

The hotly contested contest put in opposition two incumbent Congressmen—Jonas with 10 years in Washington as representative of the former 10th district and Kitchin six years representing the 8th. Redistricting threw them together. Kitchin won all six counties that were in his 8th District. Jonas took the counties new to the 8th, his native Lincoln and populous Mecklenburg which voted for him more than two to one, assuring his victory.

County Goes Democratic

Moore County elected a full slate of Democratic officials including five county commissioners and five members of the county board of education. Republicans had contested four commissioner seats and three on the education board.

In the most hotly fought commissioner race, Republican Challenger Wallace W. O'Neal of Pinehurst failed to unseat W. Sidney Taylor of Aberdeen, Democratic incumbent. Taylor polled 4,654 votes to O'Neal's 3,934. O'Neal's vote ran about 500 ahead of other Republicans in the commissioner contest.

A tabulation of the unofficial Moore County returns appears on page 8. Unopposed candidates do not appear in the tabulation, but their vote is listed in another story on this page.

Southern Pines Voting While two of the three precincts of the Southern Pines community went for Jonas in the Congressional races, they went comfortably Democratic in all the other contests, and the third (Continued on Page 8)

Hospital Wing To Be Named For Dr. Monroe: Tribute Honors Paul Dana

Meeting last week, the full board of directors of Moore Memorial Hospital at Pinehurst approved naming the proposed new surgical wing of the hospital in honor of Dr. Clement R. Monroe, surgeon who helped to organize the hospital in 1929 and who has practiced there for the past 33 years.

A resolution of tribute to the late Paul Dana of Pinehurst, secretary and treasurer of the hospital for many years, was adopted by the directors. In a third action, they appointed Eric Nelson of Pinehurst to fill the vacancy arising from the resignation of Nelson C. Hyde.

Dr. Monroe organized the staff and procured equipment for Moore Memorial (then Moore County Hospital) in 1929, before the hospital was opened, and was in charge of all departments during its first year of operation. Now associated with the nearby Pinehurst Surgical Clinic, he has practiced at the hospital since its opening and has been closely connected with all phases of its growth and development as the board noted, "a faithful, efficient and tireless member of the (Continued on Page 8)
