UDC Chapter Meets In Aberdeen With Miss Louise Blue

The John Blue Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, met last Wednesday, January 9, at the home of Miss Louise Blue in Aberdeen. Mrs. Forrest Locky and Mrs. D. B. Herring were co-hostesses.

President Mrs. O. A. Speight presided and Miss Pearl McMillan led the reading of the ritual and the salute to the flag.

Miss Jeanette Leach made a motion that the Chapter buy a new scrapbook; the motion was seconded and carried.

Mrs. H. W. Doub reported that she had sent gifts to the Confederate Home in Fayetteville at Christmastime.

The secretary was asked to read letters from the district officers and president outlining the work for the coming year. A donation to the scholarship fund was asked of the chapter, and Miss Louise Blue contributed $25.00 toward this fund.

Mrs. Mary Moore, on the essay committee, asked that members urge children in the schools to enter the essay contest. Cash prizes will be given for the winning essays on the subject "Women of the Confederacy."

Mrs. Speight accepted the book "Front Rank," a gift to the chapter from Miss Blue.

Mrs. E. L. Pleasants, in charge of the afternoon's program, presented Mrs. W. C. Neill and Mrs. R. D. Spear, who presented musical selections.

At the close of the meeting, guests were invited into the dining room where Mrs. Speight poured coffee and refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed table.

Dr. Lake Addresses Civic Club Members

The Civic Club had a very interesting meeting Monday afternoon when Dr. Julian Lake, pastor of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church, was guest speaker. He was introduced by Mrs. John S. Creech.

Dr. Lake spoke interestingly about questions he, as a counselor, had been asked. These questions were mostly of a theological nature, he said, and very earnestly asked. In many instances where minds were troubled by an exaggerated sense of a person's sin, he was able to reassure the questioner by saying that God had forgiven the sin, so the person should forgive himself and forget it. In many cases that would restore mental health and bring peace and happiness to the questioner, who often thought he had committed the unpardonable sin, which instead might be committed by a person with a self-righteous attitude.

Prior to Dr. Lake's talk a brief business session was held. Mrs. Dan McNeill and Mrs. Albert F. Grove gave a short talk explaining about cerebral palsy and mentioning the drive for funds to help the cause on January 24-26.

Tea was served by six hostesses: Mrs. Walter Smith, Mrs. Wade Stevick, Mrs. Donald Case, Mrs. W. C. Hilderman and the Misses Hazel and Norma Shiring. Mrs. Myron Hawk poured. Mrs. J. D. Sitterson was in charge of the table and room decorations.

MRS. JAMES J. DUNN

JAMES DUNN, GRANDSON OF LOCAL RESIDENT, WED IN PROVIDENCE, R. I.

Miss Ellen Anne Roberge and James Joseph Dunn received the Papal blessing at their 11 a. m. marriage Saturday, December 29, in St. Pius Church of Providence, R. I.

The Rev. Paul J. Bolton, cousin of the bridegroom, officiated at the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Henri A. Roberge of Providence, and the late Mr. Roberge. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. James J. Dunn of Providence, and the late Mr. Dunn. He is the grandson of Mrs. James S. Warman of Providence and Southern Pines, and the late Mr. Warman.

Henri A. Roberge gave his sister in marriage. Her ivory gown of peau de soie and alencon lace encrusted with seed pearls featured a portrait neckline, long tapered sleeves and a bell-shaped skirt. Her silk illusion veil was caught to a pillbox of alencon lace. She carried a cascade of Georgian orchids.

Miss Madonna M. Doarley was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Mary Anne Madden, Sarah L. Rogers, Joan B. Alson and Mrs. Michael Pagigistis. They wore floor length gowns of Christmas red velvet and headpieces of red velvet bows with matching tulle, and carried red and white carnations.

Flower girls Madonna Ann McGivern, a cousin of the bridegroom, and Laura Ann Roberge, the bride's niece, wore costumes which were replicas of the attendants' but with short, bouffant skirts. They carried small white baskets filled with red and white carnations.

John B. Costello was best man and ushers were John D. Riley, Robert B. Smith, Donald P. Riley and the bride's brother, John M. Roberge.

The bride's mother wore a gown of pink chiffon with matching accessories and a yellow orchid corsage.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a sheath of pastel turquoise peau de soie encrusted with seed pearls and sequins, a matching pillbox, and a white orchid corsage.

After a reception in the ballroom of the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel, the couple left for a wedding trip to Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

Southern Pines High School News

By JEANNE BUTLER

will be forthcoming in next week's column.

Luck to all on exams!

INS and OUTS

Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Norman Calcutt and family were their sons, Pat and John, of New Bern. Pat, who was seriously hurt in a traffic accident in Mobile, Ala. in June, is presently staying with John, who is an announcer with Radio Station WRNB in New Bern.

Panel Program

Monday night at the monthly meeting of the PTA, a panel discussion was held on the subject of school problems. The panel consisted of a faculty member, Don Moore, and four high school seniors, Lorraine Beith, Dianne Fields, Jim Ritchie and Ralph Hendren. The Rev. Carl Wallace of the United Church of Christ was the moderator. After the panel members expressed their opinions, the floor was opened for questions and comments from the audience.

The same questions discussed Monday night were debated in many classrooms this week.

Scenes of Shakespeare

The Theater in Education, Inc., a troop of actors from New York, was at Weaver Auditorium this (Thursday) afternoon to present scenes from Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet, Julius Caesar and Twelfth Night. Grades 8-12 were present at the program, and each class had been prepared for the presentations in their English courses.

This program was especially timely to the English IV class, as they are now in the midst of reading Macbeth.

Schedule Changed

Because of the Shakespearean presentation Thursday, the exam schedule for this week has been changed. They will now be given Friday and Monday, giving the students an extra weekend to work and worry.

Improvements

The senior class officers have presented a letter to the faculty suggesting several school improvements. More information will be forthcoming in next week's column.

About this question: "An independent local insurance agent is free to insure his client in whichever company he thinks best - he is not a captive agent of one company. He works for his client in filing and helping to collect his claim. Is this why 2 out of 3 people buy insurance from an independent local agent?"
