By ANN J. McNEILL Students Chosen

Ann Arey and Michael Cleary, students at Aberdeen High School, have been selected to attend the 1963 N. C. Junior Science and Humanities Symposium March 14-16 at the University of North Carolina.

Excitement, the spirit of keen competition, cheers of parents and friends, and eager Cub Scouts filled the Fellowship Hall at Bethesda Church last Thursday evening when the annual Pinewood Derby of the Aberdeen Cub Scouts took place.

Members of the five dens displayed their original designs and the speed of their tiny racers in the competition.

Winners in the three categories were: Henry Tribble, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tribble, speed; Mike Dunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Dunn, most unusual racer; and John Hedden, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hedden, the prettiest racer.

Miss Lena Stewart has arrived to spend two months here and to be with her mother, Mrs. Robert Stewart.

Miss Carol Jean Wynn of Appalachian College, was weekend guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wynn.

Mrs. H. Clifton Blue spent the early days of this week in Raleigh and attended the meeting of the Sir Walter Cabinet on Tuesday.

Miss Dorothy McNeill of Chapel Hill and Dr. and Mrs. John Robertson and family of Pembroke were weekend guests of W. H. McNeill and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Copley and children were called to Virginia Thursday due to the death of Mrs. Copley's grandmother.

Mrs. Catherine Burns and Mrs. N. A. McGill spent Tuesday in Raleigh.

Blue Warns Move To Redistrict Might Backfire

Moore County's Board of Commissioners were favored at their monthly meeting Monday with a visit from the upper echelon in the political picture. Both State Senator W. P. Saunders and Speaker of the House, and Representative from this county, H. Clifton Blue, walked in to pay a visit to their Courthouse colleagues.

Said Mr. Blue: "I just came along to see you folks and Mr. Webb. Be glad to do what I can, always, but it'll suit me fine if there isn't anything you'd like me to do."

Questioned as to how their legislators felt about the current talk that Moore County might follow the example of Richmond and ask to withdraw from the Eighth District, the two took somewhat different stands.

Senator Saunders repeated his opinion as expressed to a Pilot reporter last week, saying he was in favor of such a move. "We ought to go in with Hoke under Alton Lennon in the Seventh," he said. "We'd do better to be in a group with more nearly the same interests."

Mr. Blue advised caution. "This is something that could backfire," he said. "We don't want to do anything hasty that we would perhaps regret later. It needs a lot of thought."

Mr. Saunders explained that "Cliff and I are in rather different positions. He has to think of the whole state, while I can concentrate on the county. Personally," (stressing the word) "I'd like us to get out; I don't like to be represented by a Republican, but I want to do what the people of Moore County want."

Said Mr. Blue: "I asked for the job" (of Speaker of the House) "and I take the responsibility," a statement that brought understanding nods of agreement from his hearers.

Home Demonstration

The Bethlehem Club held its February meeting with Mrs. Laura Kelly. This was an interesting meeting as all the members like to grow flowers. The lesson was on "Successful Rose Culture." The discussion was given by Mrs. Kelly and Mrs. Barber.

Since growing a new vegetable is one of the goals for this year, this too, was discussed. The new climbing okra is a space saver for those who like this vegetable. Two hills will supply a family but this needs to be planted early as it is slow to bear. Salad bowl lettuce is another easy-to-grow and space-saving vegetable. This can be used as a fill-in in flower beds.

Crans Creek Club The February meeting of the Crans Creek Home Demonstration Club was called to order by the president, Mrs. R. R. Thomas, at the home of the hostess, Mrs. Lloyd Thomas.

Club members were reminded to read at least one book and three if possible during the year. Coming events of importance to our club are: "The Music School" to be held Wednesday, February 20, at the Presbyterian Church, Troy, and "The Tailoring Workshop" starting March 6 in the home agent's office at Carthage.

Miss Flora McDonald taught the lesson, "Food Facts and False Claims," giving a quiz about meals, weight reduction, food values and foods and disease.

After the meeting, Mrs. Robert Coffey showed some of the hats she had made, with a few pointers on hat making. A work-shop on "How to Design and Make Your Own Hats" will be taught by Mrs. Coffey at the March meeting.

After serving refreshments, the hostess, Mrs. Lloyd Thomas, showed members through the newly added rooms of her lovely home. Of special interest to each member was her new sewing room.

Mrs. Robert Hendrick will be the hostess for the March meeting.

SUNRISE THEATRE

"Taras Bulba," the much heralded multi-million dollar screen adaptation of the classic tale of the Cossack's fight for freedom from the Poles in the 16th century, starring Tony Curtis and Yul Brynner, opens Sunday at the Sunrise Theatre, through United Artists release.

To duplicate the terrain of the Ukrainian steppes, the setting of the story, Academy Award winner Harold Hecht spent several months on location with cast and crew in a remote area of Argentina closely resembling the singular topography of the rugged Ukraine.

The screenplay by Waldo Salt and Karl Tunberg unfolds the tale of Taras Bulba, a great warrior who raises his two sons in the tradition of the fighting Cossacks, where ability to ride, fight and die well is ingrained from birth.
