Warren Bells' Young Daughter Improved

Peggy Ann Bell, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bell, has been critically ill in Duke Hospital, Durham, but is much improved this week, according to word from her father yesterday. Peggy Ann, whose fifth birthday was last Sunday, was stricken with a severe infection about ten days ago and rushed to the hospital where doctors fought for her life.

"She is coming along fine now," said Mr. Bell, "and is out of danger, but it will be a long recovery." Mrs. Bell is staying in Durham with her daughter.

Mrs. Daugherty Speaks At Rest Home Workshop In Raleigh Tuesday

Mrs. Vera Daugherty, owner operator of Daugherty's Rest Home on North Bennett Street, participated in a workshop meeting in Raleigh Tuesday of the North Carolina Association Homes for the Aged. Mrs. Daugherty was one of two rest home operators who were asked to speak at the meeting, held at the Sir Walter Hotel.

Also on the program was William A. Poole, director of the Baptist Homes in Winston-Salem. Mr. Poole showed a film, "The Loom of Love," starring Mrs. Vi Caulfield, a former Southern Pines resident who now resides at the home.

Mrs. Caulfield, who lived here for a number of years, has many friends in this section. She was a well-known movie star of the silent films era, and appeared with many famous players—among them the late Lionel Barrymore.

Mrs. Caulfield was a member of the First Baptist Church in Southern Pines and the film was shown in the church here several months ago.

Mrs. Barney Avery Entertains For Miss Judy Chandler

Help-a-Home New Project For Junior Woman's Club Here

The Junior Woman's Club of Southern Pines asks the help of local residents in their Help-a-Home project.

The purpose of Help-a-Home is to supply household items for families who do not have resources for home improvements. In many cases, an emergency, such as a fire, makes it necessary for families to require Help-a-Home service. Furniture or other household items can be used now or stored until a need arises.

Please call Mrs. Glenn Cox at 692-3424 or Mrs. James Field at 695-8021 if you have items to contribute.

MR. AND MRS. HENRY A. BORST are shown at a dinner party given in honor of their Golden Wedding anniversary at Dixie Inn in Vass Saturday evening. Hostesses at the party, which was attended by 38, were Mrs. C. L. Tyson, sister of Mrs. Borst, and Mrs. W. A. Muse, Miss Louise Leslie and Mrs. Russell Bullock, nieces, all of Vass.

MR. AND MRS. H. A. BORST OF VASS ARE HONORED AT GOLDEN WEDDING PARTIES

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Borst of Vass planned to let their 50th wedding anniversary, February 27th, pass quietly by, but friends and relatives had a different idea and the beloved couple found themselves in the middle of two delightful celebrations last week.

The first came as a complete surprise to them. Following the appearance of a brief item in the preceding Sunday's Methodist Church bulletin, congratulating the Borsts on their approaching anniversary, friends who knew of their untiring service and loyalty to the church began saying the church should honor them in some way. A group attending a study class Monday night discussed the matter after the study and came up with the plans for a reception to follow a business meeting scheduled for Wednesday night—the 27th—a meeting which the congregation had been asked to attend.

Around 50 people were present Wednesday night, and at the close of the discussion, the pastor, the Rev. David Moe, called the Borsts forward. He congratulated them, and Mrs. Henry Klingensmidt, president of the women's organization, pinned a corsage on Mrs. Borst and Edwin Finch, chairman of the official board, a boutonniere on Mr. Borst. Everyone present was then invited to the fellowship hall, which was bright with flowers.

The refreshment table, decorated in the golden anniversary motif, held a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a golden arch from which were suspended wedding bells. Pictures were made as the couple cut the first slice. Orange punch and nuts were served with the cake. The Borsts were presented from the church a gold-decorated crystal tray and glasses. They expressed warm thanks for the evening's honor.

Those taking an active part in carrying out the reception plans included Mrs. Charles Gschwind, Mrs. Horace Mullinix, Mrs. Klingensmidt, Mrs. Edward Griffin, Mrs. David Moe, Mrs. James Hudson, Bill Frye and others.

Saturday night Mrs. Borst's sister, Mrs. C. L. Tyson, and nieces, Mrs. W. A. Muse, Miss Louise Leslie and Mrs. Russell Bullock, all of Vass, honored the couple at a family dinner party at Dixie Inn, attended by 38. The table, arranged in U-shape, held arrangements of mixed flowers in shades of yellow and gold and gold candles in crystal holders. Favors for the ladies were golden slippers of china caught with ribbon bows for corsages. Gold edged place cards marked the seating arrangement and napkins had "Rena and Henry, 1913-1963" in gold. The Rev. David Moe gave the invocation. A four-course turkey dinner was served, the dessert course being ice cream in the form of slippers and decorated cake squares.

After dinner the group assembled in the private dining room, which was set up as a gift room, where the couple opened and displayed the many beautiful gifts, expressing their deep appreciation.

Guests were Mrs. W. Duncan Matthews of Southern Pines, who was wed in a double ceremony with her sister, Mrs. Borst; Mrs. William G. Parker and Miss Annie Borst of Cameron, sisters of Mr. Borst; the Rev. and Mrs. David Moe, pastor of the honorees and the hostesses; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Graham of Walterboro, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Graham, Miss Mary Lou and Steve Graham, of Graham; Mr. and Mrs. Julian Leslie, Greensboro; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fullenwider, Mr. and Mrs. "Buck" McKenzie, Southern Pines; Mrs. Marion Hinson, Fuquay Springs; and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Graham, Russell Bullock, Miss Marjorie Leslie Bullock, W. A. Muse, C. L. Tyson, Mrs. A. M. Cameron, Mrs. W. T. Cox, Miss Bessie Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean and Mrs. S. R. Smith, all of Vass.

Mrs. Borst is the former Rena Cameron of Vass. She and Mr. Borst, a native of Cameron, have spent practically all of their married life in Vass, where he served as mayor for 20 years. He retired nearly eight years ago after 48 years' service as railroad agent and operator. He is a trustee of the Vass Methodist Church and a former president of the Methodist Men's Club. Mrs. Borst has been treasurer of the church for 33 years and has been active in the Women of the Church since its organization. She was honored with a life membership last year. She is a charter member of the Vass Woman's Club.
