Women's Fellowship Holds Monthly Meet With Luncheon

The Women's Fellowship of the United Church of Christ held its monthly luncheon meeting last Thursday, February 28.

At the luncheon, preceding the meeting, the theme of Rim of East Asia was exemplified by the table decorations and a demonstration on the use of chopsticks was conducted by four of the members.

Mrs. J. Earl Parker, president, presided at the business session. Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Tom E. Shockley.

The movie "Rim of East Asia" was shown by Mrs. Carl Wallace, followed by a discussion period of the needs of the people of this territory.

The consolidated circles will meet March 14 at 10 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall, with the Rev. W. W. Schneider of the Children's Home at Elon as guest speaker.

MISS DIANA TOLAR

Christies Move To New Residence In Knollwood

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald J. Christie have moved into their new home at the corner of Swoope Drive and Crest Road in Knollwood.

The Christies, who came to Southern Pines last fall from Glenview, Ill., had been living at Highland Lodge while their house was under construction.

Mrs. Grinnell Wins Par Seekers Weekly Match This Week

Southern Pines School News

By JEANNE BUTLER
Career Guidance
Despite the snow and foul weather last Wednesday and Thursday, four high school girls went to St. Andrews College, Laurinburg. Paula Donigan, a senior, and Julia McMillan, Barbara Webb and Brenda Marshall, all juniors, attended the guidance program offered at the college. They were given aptitude tests and individual counseling concerning their career opportunities. This program is offered several times during the spring, to Presbyterian students in high school.

Sandlin Speaks
The tournament finals lured many students to Carthage Monday night, and many of the F. H. A. girls missed a wonderful talk given by J. E. Sandlin, Amertrotron executive who is a local school board member.

The girls who did attend were captivated by his speech on the importance and advantages of higher education. The business meeting was dispensed with and refreshments were served afterwards.

An F. H. A. officers meeting has been planned for next Tuesday afternoon, to discuss spring plans for the club.

Glee Club
The high school glee club, under the direction of Bill McAdams, has prepared several anthems for the Lenten Service to be held at the Methodist Church Sunday night, at 7:30. This is one of many such services scheduled during Lent.

The glee club has also been practicing arrangements for the annual Picquet Festival to be given some time next month.

Junior High Operetta
Mozart's "Magic Flute" will be presented by the junior high students Friday and Saturday nights. The eighth grade language arts class had listened to the operetta and adapted it in their own words. All of the students have a part in the production, either in costumes, properties, scenery, publicity, dancing, or in the cast. There will be two different casts performing each night, producing very worthwhile entertainment.

Booklet On New '3-Corner' Bridge Game Published

"Three Corner Contract," a 43-page booklet by Tom O'Neil, explaining his new bridge game that "eliminates the fourth player," has been placed on sale in this area at book shops, newsstands and some gift shops and hotels.

Mr. O'Neil, who lives at 110 Highland Road and owns the Little Nine golf course and Wedge Inn restaurant on Midland Road, has copyrighted the booklet which was printed by Hallmark Printers in Charlotte. In it he explains how he came to invent the new bridge game and how it works and credits Frank de Costa of Southern Pines with adapting the game to duplicate tournament play.

Some of the outstanding bridge players of the Sandhills have tried Three Corner Contract and like it, Mr. O'Neil says.

Wildlife Club's Officers Renamed

The Moore County Wildlife Club reelected officers Tuesday night at Carthage, and heard reports indicating that its clubhouse project is moving nearer reality.

Some obstacles loom in the way and the biggest one at present is finances, Albert Tufts of Pinehurst, general chairman of the club home construction project, told the gathering of 54 members and guests at the Carthage Hotel.

On 10 wooded acres west of Niagara, mostly given, a portion purchased, a dam and lake have been constructed during the past year and a road built into the property at a cost of something over $2,000. The money was secured through contributions and membership assessments and some $350 remains in the clubhouse account.

Reelected for their second terms were Ralph T. Mills, president, and Howard Butler, vice-president both of Southern Pines; Mrs. Estelle Wicker of Carthage, treasurer, for her eighth term, and Mrs. Cornelia Vann secretary, for her 11th.

President Mills presiding, announced that the April supper meeting will be held at the Pinehurst Legion Hut.

The second Commissioner of Internal Revenue, attorney, Joseph J. Lewis of Pennsylvania, in 1863 answered tax queries personally using a quill pen.

March Is 'Medal Of Honor' Month

March has been proclaimed as "Army Medal of Honor Month" by Mayor John S. Ruggles, marking the 100th anniversary of the first Medal of Honor on March 25, 1863.

The proclamation notes that "the Medal of Honor is presented by the President of the United States, in the name of Congress, to a member of the U. S. Army who, in action involving actual conflict with the enemy, distinguishes himself conspicuously by gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life, above and beyond the call of duty."

The proclamation asks that citizens of Southern Pines join the mayor in extending congratulations to all members of the United States Army who have received the Medal of Honor and extends cooperation to the Department of the Army and the local U. S. Army Reserve in the promotion of the anniversary.

ALWAYS THERE

For over 100 years the Red Cross has been a symbol of man's effort to use humanitarian principles as a guide for conduct in the world community. In 1963—the 100th anniversary of the Red Cross—some 990 nations and over 157 million people are members of the Red Cross and subscribe to its increasing efforts to aid all in need. Wherever or whenever there is need, the Red Cross is there . . . with your help.
