Fashion Show

The Sandspur and Woman's Clubs were delighted with the fashion show presented Thursday evening by the second year Home Economics students of Miss Jessie Ellis. The girls were lovely in their two piece outfits which were fully lined and each of a different design. "Alice in Wonderland" was the theme for the revue with Teresa Luck as Alice. Linda Godfrey gave a humorous reading and Linda Williams, Libba Johnson and Joyce Blue sang with Mrs. W. A. Johnson, Jr. as pianist.

Mrs. James Rector presided at the meeting and Mrs. Leslie Gordon presented the program. In behalf of the clubs, Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Rector, Mrs. Daniel Patterson and Mrs. E. L. Sutphin were hostesses at a social hour honoring the students, their mothers and the club members. Mrs. Archie Farmer presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Rector served iced cakes.

Church Women Meet

Mrs. John Thompson and Mrs. Roy Carter presented a program on "Unity in Worship" at the meeting of the Presbyterian Women Monday evening. They were assisted by Miss Cora Donaldson, Miss Treva Auman and Mrs. Clyde Auman. Mrs. Glenn Lewis, chairman of the nominating committee, presented Mrs. John Thompson as vice-president of the church women. Mrs. R. B. Lewis presided at the meeting and gave the call to worship.

Mother-Daughter Dinner

Senior Girl Scout Troop 27 entertained their mothers at a mother-daughter dinner Friday evening in the recreation hall of the Presbyterian Church. Plans were formulated for the troop to attend the National Camp for Girl Scouts at Camp Rockwood near Washington, D. C. at some future date.

Attend Planning Meet

Mrs. Harold Markham and Miss Tressie Auman attended a planning session Sunday afternoon at Brownson Memorial for Vacation Church School Leaders.

Worship

A workshop on the New Covenant Life Curriculum will be held in the Carthage Presbyterian Church beginning Sunday at 7:30 and will continue through Thursday evening. An excellent program has been planned and the Presbyterian congregation is urged to take advantage of this opportunity.

She will hear such outstanding speakers as Mrs. W. B. Landrum, field worker of Little Rock, Ark., Edwin Wiggins, Rotary scholar, of Hong Kong, China, and Bishop Garber of Richmond, Va.

In USAF

Donnie Shaver was recently inducted into the United States Air Force and is receiving his basic training at Lackland Field, Texas. Donnie, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Shaver, says he has never been busier but he would have time to read letters from his friends back home. His address: A. B. Donald K. Shaver, AF1482-5065, Box 1524, Flight 366, Lackland AFB, Texas.

May Court Attendant

Judy Upole has been selected as an attendant at the May Court at Lees-McRae College.

School Highlights

Patrolman Willis Austin spoke at the student assembly at the school Friday afternoon on highway safety. He pointed out some traffic violations which cause accidents such as drunken driving, speeding, following too closely, driving on wrong side of road, improper passing, improper turns, reckless driving, stop sign violation and failure to sound horn when passing.

Among the qualifications to become a member of the North Carolina State Highway Patrol, according to Patrolman Austin, a high school diploma is essential. To solve the highway problem, the speaker pointed out, the following are important: public cooperation, legislation, and driver training. He closed by saying the patrol is on the highway to help and not to cause trouble.

Student Organization President Clare Cole introduced the speaker and John Blue gave a devotional.

On Tuesday, a representative of the Armed Forces talked to the seniors at the school.

Leaving today, Thursday, Misses Tressie Auman and Bert McCrummen will represent the school at the North Carolina Education Association State Convention in Asheville.

Coach Otis Boroughs announces the following top three free-throw winners, girls, Sharon Richardson, Frances Pusser, and Geraldine Garner. Boys, Billy Baughn, Johnny Robbins and Darrell Jenkins.

MYF Attends Meeting

The Methodist Youth Fellowship attended a sub-district meeting at the Candor Methodist Church Sunday evening. A missionary from Taiwan gave an inspirational talk, which she illustrated with slides. Attending with the local fellowship were Mrs. E. L. Sutphin and Roy Swearingen.

WCS Program

"What Should I Tell My Children About Money?" was the topic for the WCS program Monday evening at the Methodist Youth Building. Mrs. Paul Tart was assisted in presented the program by Mrs. Vivian Tucker, Mrs. Ben Brewer, Mrs. W. A. Johnson, Jr. and Miss Alberta Monroe. Mrs. James Rector gave a worship service. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. M. J. Davis and Miss Blanche Monroe.

Birth Announcement

A son, Byron, was born Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Pete Drye of Surfside Beach. Mrs. Drye is the former Miss Harriet Jo Monroe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Monroe of Charlotte. This is the first grandson for the Monroes and the baby is also a grandnephew of the West End Monroes and Dr. Clement Monroe of Pinehurst.

Personals

Spending Tuesday with the Melvin Hartsells were Mrs. Burke Wiles and Mrs. Fred O'Connor of Salisbury. Friday evening, the Hartsells were guests of Mrs. C. H. Hartsell and the John Carters at a family dinner honoring Dr. and Mrs. Clayton Carpenter who, with Cindy and Patricia, are visiting here from Johnson City, Tenn.

Weekend guests of Mrs. Jennie Teeter were Mrs. Charlie Kerr and Mike, Rodney, and Daryl of Charlotte. Mrs. Kell Brown of Troy was a Sunday overnight guest of Mrs. Teeter.

Accompanying Bill Jackson, Jr. home from Columbia University for the spring holidays was Boydan Walewski, a Fullbright Exchange student from Zodz, Poland. The two spent a week in Williston, Fla. as the guests of the Rev. Steve Huntley, a former Davidson College friend of Bill's. They enjoyed swimming at near-home well tanned.

Misses Blanche and Alberta Monroe have returned from an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Monroe in Coral Gables, Fla.

The National Society for Crippled Children and Adults and its affiliates have invested more than $19 1-2 million in facilities and services for the physically handicapped, according to a report by the organization.
