Civic Club Has Musical Program

At the Civic Club's final meeting of the season Monday, Mrs. John Creech introduced Mrs. D. L. McGoogan and her daughter, Jane, who gave a delightful musical program after the business meeting.

Mrs. McGoogan, accompanied by her daughter at the piano, sang "Alice Blue Gown" and "If I Loved You." Miss McGoogan played Beethoven's "Variations on a Theme," and as her final selection, Mrs. McGoogan sang "The Holy City."

Mrs. Avery Evans, president, was given a rising vote of thanks for all she has done for the club during the past year.

Hostesses were Mrs. Marvin Cornell and Mrs. William Caton. Tea was served at the table centered with a charming arrangement of azaleas and spirea made by Mrs. J. D. Sitterson, who also poured. Another of her lovely arrangements, of pink and white dogwood, decorated the top of the piano.

There will be a benefit dessert bridge and game party for the club, to be held Friday, April 19, at 1:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. R. M. Cushman at 190 North Valley Road. Reservations should be made with Mrs. Avery Evans at 695-8332.

Hollywood Hotel Has Many Spring Visitors

Miss Katherine Wiley and Miss Langdon Bellows both entertained guests for luncheon during the past week at the Hollywood Hotel.

Other recent arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Nicholas of Clairton, Pa.; Miss Elizabeth Morris of Savannah, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wilkinson of Union Level, Va.; the Rev. S. W. Wilkinson of Snow Hill, Va.; Mrs. E. Tappan Stannard of Easton, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. D. Clinton Dominick of Newburgh, N. Y.; Robert C. Tripp of North Conway, N. H.

Gustave A. Peduto and M. A. Perrille of Jersey City, N. J. and Anthony Augustine of Bayonne, N. J. are here for some golf.

Mrs. S. Tudwell of Pleasantville, N. Y. has joined her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Grant; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Edwards of New York City are visiting the George Pottles.

Other guests are Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Moloney of Boston, Mass., with their daughter; Paul Sargent of New York City; Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Walker of Allentown, Pa. and Phillip Smith of Detroit, Mich.

John Hauser Speaks On Blood Program At Guild Meeting

John Hauser, chairman for 1963 of the blood program for the Moore County Chapter of the American Red Cross, was the speaker Tuesday afternoon at the monthly meeting of St. Joseph's Hospital Guild.

Mrs. Lee K. Smithson, Guild vice president, conducted the business meeting.

The speaker told the group that the quota for Moore was 1,440 pints for the year—the same as last year. He pointed out that 78 per cent of the quota was reached in 1962. There will be 14 visits of the Bloodmobile to the county, Mr. Hauser said.

Hostess at the social hour following the meeting was Miss Marguerite Wolf. Mrs. Smithson and Mrs. Walter Davenport poured.

Local Bird Club Takes Field Trip, Lists 27 Species

Southern Pines Bird Club members spent an enjoyable morning in the region of Lakeview Friday, making a list of 27 varieties, including horned larks, nesting at the Airport in Knollwood, and a blue-gray gnatcatcher just arrived from the South.

As tomorrow is Good Friday, the meeting will not be held but the Club will meet as usual Friday, April 19.

MISS CAROL AUDREY WALSH is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael G. Walsh of Stonebrook Farm, who announce her engagement to Charles Thomas Colgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colgan of New York City. The prospective bride attended Notre Dame Academy in Southern Pines and graduated from Sacred Heart Academy in Belmont. She assists her father in the training of race horses at Stonebrook. Mr. Colgan is attending law school at Catholic University in Washington, D. C. While attending St. Bonaventure University in Olean, N. Y., he served as a second lieutenant in the Army ROTC program. He is a Deputy Grand Knight of the Knights of Columbus. A November wedding is planned.

'THE STONEYBROOK' TO BE FOLLOWED BY STEEPLCHASE BALL ON SATURDAY

A gala Steeplechase Ball will climax social festivities Saturday night following the Stonebrook Hunt Race meeting that afternoon.

Paul Kelly and his 18-piece orchestra from Greenville will play for the semi-formal dance, to be held from 9:30 to 1:30 in the National Guard Armory on Morganton Road.

The Steeplechase, held annually over the course at noted trainer Mickey Walsh's Stonebrook Farm off Youngs Road, is always attended by knowledgeable horsemen and women, who come to race their horses, or merely to watch.

But the race is also a top social attraction, coming as it does at the height of the spring season when this resort area is full of sportsmen and vacationists and it is "holiday time" for numerous young people who attend colleges and prep schools throughout the country.

There will be many informal gatherings around the spacious ringside, and picnicking parties will be the order of the day, with the gates opening at 12 so that spectators for the races, and pre-race events may get together and have their noon lunches. Various concession stands are tucked about the grounds for those wanting soft drinks and crackers to augment their own supplies.

Largest of the picnicking groups is expected to be that comprising N. C. Legislators and their wives.

Graduate Of Local High School To Marry, June 22

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas Brightwell of Randolph, Va. announce the engagement of their daughter, Pauline Hunter Brightwell to Donald Van Benschoten.

Mr. Van Benschoten, a graduate of the Southern Pines High School and of Guilford College, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Van Benschoten of Carthage. Both he and his fiancée are teachers in the Floyd E. Kellam High School in Virginia Beach.

Miss Brightwell is a graduate of Longwood College.

The wedding will take place June 22.

Past Presidents Of Local BPO Drove Honored At Dinner

At the regular meeting April 2, the Southern Pines BPO Drove honored past presidents of the organization with a dinner party and special entertainment.

The first president, known affectionately as "Mom" Scheipers to everyone, was unable to be present, but was remembered on the occasion with a gift.

Past presidents attending the dinner were: Mrs. Chan Page, Mrs. Don Jones, Mrs. Bryan Poe, Mrs. M. G. McRae, and Mrs. George Thompson, all of Southern Pines, and Mrs. G. B. Kimbrell of Aberdeen.

Miss Marion Difatta, president of the Drove, gave the new password to members present at the meeting, and announced that an initiation for new members would be held at the next meeting, April 16.

Mrs. Carter Weds Robert Harris In Home Ceremony

On Sunday afternoon, April 7 at five o'clock, Mrs. Barbara Z. Carter and Robert C. Harris were married at the home of the groom's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Swaringen on the Pinehurst Road. The Rev. A. L. Reynolds, Methodist minister, performed the ceremony in the chapel setting, using an improvised altar on which were Easter lilies and the proper appointments.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Decatur Richardson, sister of the groom, soloist, and Mr. Swaringen. The bride and groom entered unattended.

She wore an aqua tailored suit of shantung with matching hat and black accessories and a white orchid corsage.

After the ceremony, the wedding cake was cut and served at a reception in the couple's honor. Mrs. Richardson poured punch and Mrs. Donald Porter served cake, from the table covered with linen and beautifully appointed with a candelabra arranged with white flowers.

Mrs. Harris is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Zachary of Eagle Springs and is secretary of the West End Schools. Her husband, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Burl Harris of West End, is employed as a merchant at Windblow.

SUCCESSFUL TOUR

Mrs. James S. Milliken, chairman of the House and Garden Tour held Wednesday, reported over 600 persons went the rounds, viewing the five Southern Pines homes and gardens, and "Homewood" Gardens in Knollwood.

The weather was perfect, with bright sunshine and a little nip in the air, and the gardens on tour, as well as flowering trees and shrubs in the area, were at the height of loveliness, with pink and white dogwood blossoms, lavender wisteria and azaleas in widely-varied colors predominating.

A good majority of the visitors, from this and other states, enjoyed delicious luncheons of chicken salad, coffee, ice cream and cake, with volunteer hostesses serving at the historic Shaw House Tearoom, where the tour began. Luncheon was served inside, and picnic tables were also in demand in the spacious grounds outside.

The House and Garden Tour is held here annually, put on by and for the Southern Pines Garden Club.

Legion Auxiliary Plans Poppy Day Radio Program On April 19

The American Legion Auxiliary met Tuesday with Mrs. Dan R. McNeill. Miss Gussie Cameron, unit president presided.

Mrs. W. E. Cox was appointed chairman for Poppy Day, April 20. The annual Poppy Day radio program, with auxiliary members from Pinehurst and Southern Pines participating, will be held April 19 over Station WEEB (time to be announced). Rainbow Girls and Girl Scouts will assist in poppy distribution.

Mrs. J. S. McLaughlin, rehabilitation chairman, reported on the entertainment Monday night at the Veterans Hospital, Fayetteville, given in honor of volunteer hospital workers who had over 100 hours of work. This was attended by Post and Unit members Mr. and Mrs. Vernon P. Doughty, Mrs. Allie B. Rose, Miss Gussie Cameron and Mr. and Mrs. Dan McNeill.

Action was taken on selection of a local high school junior to represent the auxiliary at Girls' State at Woman's College in June. Mrs. Clare W. Sausser, Pan-American chairman, presented a program on the Dominican Republic.

OVER 400 ATTEND RAZOOK'S SPRING FASHION PROMENADE AT CAROLINA

Winter bade a reluctant farewell to the Sandhills and "spring was bustin' out all over" as Razzoek's heralded the new season with a pre-Easter advanced presentation of 1963 Spring-Summer fashion firsts in the Carolina Ballroom Monday night for the benefit of the Moore Memorial Hospital Auxiliary and the Guild of St. Joseph-in-the-Pines Hospital. Mrs. Daniel O. Delany was general chairman.

Large pink and white dogwood sprays and a white picket fence brought the beauty of a Sandhills spring into the Carolina Ballroom. Background music was by Basil Freeman and his orchestra. Approximately 450 persons watched the panorama of day and night drama displayed in the perfect-by-day and lovely-by-night fashions. A surprising number of men attended this affair.

Show commentator was the fashion editor of the Charlotte Observer, Anne Parrish, who described each costume and pointed out the following special fashion trends:

—Colors: pure white, vanilla white, yellows, peach tones, tangerine, gold tones, turquoise, a predominance of pink from ice pink to shocking pink and into the poppy and oriental reds. Navy and black. It would seem that anything goes. A number of large flowered prints and a bold polka dot black and white ensemble were shown.

—Jackets: Accent on "easy" jackets, short, and worn with both daytime and evening dresses to give that charming costume look, both dashing and versatile. —Chiffon: is coming into its own again. Exquisitely jewel embroidered with that look of elegance. Others with flowing lines and a new draped cape effect falling from the shoulders to the waistline in back.

—Ball Gowns: Both short and long. Outstanding numbers shown by Razzoek's included:

Silk brocade coat with white damask dress and picture hat. Parisian "skimmer" of silk patchwork; colorful and saucy. Long coat and flowered dress of tone-on-tone peony pink and flowered hat of same colors. Poppy red Belgian linen suit—tone-on-tone flowered hat. Golden tone sparked with green costume dress and jacket. Hand-embroidered Madeira.

White linen and wool tweed resort coat with leopard collar. Bridal Dress—modern treatment of a period costume and bridesmaid dresses of royal blue and Irish green creating a dramatic effect. Lavish furs worn to dramatize the costumes were white jasmine mink, chinchilla "Breath of Spring" minks and black dyed sable, with the principal accent on stoles.

Bob Matthews, Southern Pines.

Miss Emmady Collins, a rising senior, has been elected house president of a new dormitory now under construction at Converse College.

She is the daughter of Harold A. Collins, Country Club Drive, and the late Mrs. Collins.

During her sophomore year at the 4-year woman's college, Miss Collins served as president of the Modern Dance Club. She has also served as freshman representative to the Student Christian Association and as a member of Dorm Council.

Miss Collins was installed in office Wednesday, along with other elected campus leaders for the 1963-64 session.

INS and OUTS

Misses Nancy Wrenn and Ruth White of Camp Awa-Niko, Swannanoa came here Friday to be with Nancy's mother, Mrs. Lyla Clark who is a patient at Moore Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Morgan returned last week from a three weeks' visit with their son and daughter and their families near Amarillo, Tex. While there they spent five days visiting places of interest in New Mexico, Colorado, Arizona and Utah. On the way home, they stopped off for a two-day visit at Fort Benning, Ga. with their daughter and son-in-law, Sgt. and Mrs. John Lingle.

Miss Diana Pearson of New York City is arriving for the Easter weekend and will visit her mother, Mrs. Annabelle Pearson on East Connecticut Avenue.

Weekend guests of Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Warlick on Hill Side Road, who will arrive Friday, are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Haven Becker of Struthers, Ohio and Dr. Warlick's brother, Conrad, a student at the University of Virginia.

Following the show, winners of door prizes announced were: Mrs. Charles Denny who won the grand prize—a sweater from Razzoek's. Mrs. Leon Johnson, Carolina guest, won a straw bag and consolation prizes went to Mrs. Hunter Hicks and Miss Margaret Campbell.

Additional ushers, whose names did not appear on the program, were Garrett Sutherland and Beth Turner of Southern Pines and Mrs. Donald Blinn and Jennifer Owens of Pinehurst.

TIME FOR A CHECK-UP

Your Property Insurance program may be in bad shape. For example, it may suffer from serious ailments like...

*Underinsurance — Not enough insurance to take care of increased property values and liability exposures.

*Obsolescence — Out of date contracts that don't offer today's "package discounts" and broadened protection.

*Inconvenience — Too many policies, premiums, renewal dates. Lots of red tape. A real nuisance.
