Southern Pines School News

BY JEANNE BUTLER
The Mikado
 The operetta, "The Mikado," presented last Friday and Saturday nights was a big success, and well attended both nights. The main cast, consisting of Jim Ritchie, Bobby Hiatt, Ralph Hendren, Joe Hiatt, Melvin Gardner, Lorraine Beith, Dianne Fields, Glenda Maness, and Judy Harriss, as well as the chorus, all performed beautifully. The set, designed and built by the Fine Arts Department, and the exquisite costumes, made complete this performance.

Oriented In Fashion
 This was the title of the annual spring fashion show presented by the Home Economics Department, at PTA Tuesday night. Some 40 girls modeled the garments that they had made in class or at home. Several children modeled outfits that the girls had made for them, and Joe Hiatt and Pat Dougherty displayed the sport shirts made for them. Bobbie Ann Hall narrated the show, and entertainment was provided by Ralph Hendren, Lorraine Beith, Dianne Fields and Anna Dell Smith. Miss Loree Kean, Home Economics teacher, is to be congratulated for the fine work put into making the show the success it was.

Induction and Installation
 The 1963 Student Council officers, elected two weeks ago, were inducted Wednesday morning in assembly. Jerry Bradley, outgoing president, installed Robert McCrimmon, next year's president, and then Robert took charge of installing the other new officers.

The F.H.A. will have its installation service in the Student Lounge Friday night. Bobbie Ann Hall, president, will then hand the gavel to Nancy Rowe, newly elected president.

To gain further experience and knowledge of the organization, Nancy Rowe is being sent to the National F.H.A. Convention in Kansas City this summer.

A dance for the club members and their dates is planned after the installation service.

Try-Outs
 Try-outs will be held tomorrow (Friday) after lunch in the gym for the purpose of electing the cheerleaders for next year. The chief will come from among those selected.

The purpose of the cheerleaders is to enliven the school spirit and cheer our various teams to victory.

Graduation Time
 It's almost here . . . that long awaited night, GRADUATION! The commencement exercises are scheduled for June 6, at 8 p.m. in Weaver Auditorium. Seniors will begin exams Friday, May 31, and will go through Tuesday, when the undergrads begin theirs. Awards Day will be held at 1:30 Monday afternoon, June 3.

The baccalaureate sermon, by the Rev. Maynard Mangum, of the First Baptist Church, will be on Sunday evening, June 2, at 8.

The speaker for commencement this year will be Dr. A. C. Dawson, Jr., former superintendent of Southern Pines Schools.

The senior honor students this year are: Dianne Fields, valedictorian; Joe Hiatt, salutatorian; Lorraine Beith, Ralph Hendren, James Ritchie, Judy Jones and Dana Tyson. These students have maintained a 90 or above average throughout four years of high school.

Also selected for academic achievement are the marshals. This year's marshals are, Richard Lewis, chief; Julia McMillan, Pat Baldwin, Sadie Fields, Nancy Rowe, Kathy Dougherty, Peter Difatta, Janet Howard, Charles Lewis and Terry Smithson.

After the graduation exercises Thursday night, a dance has been planned by the seniors' mothers for the seniors, their dates, marshals, faculty, parents, school board and alumni. The dance will be held in the Student Lounge and the Woody Hayes Orchestra will play.

Rainbow Installation
 Installation of new officers of the Order of the Rainbow will be held in the student lounge at the high school Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.
