

Women's Activities and Sandhills Social Events

MARY EVELYN de NISSOFF, Editor

TELEPHONE OX 2-6512

Claire Cooper Wed To Mr. Miller In Simple Ceremony

At a simple ceremony held Friday afternoon in the garden at Littlefield, home of Frank B. Cooper on Indiana Extension, Mr. Cooper's youngest daughter, Claire Helene, was married to James Logan Millar, of Winnepeg, Canada.

Present for the wedding and hostess at the small reception and cake-cutting following the ceremony was Mrs. Margery Bilstad of Fargo, N. D., the bride's mother.

The bride was given away by her father. Her sister Kay, Mrs. James Hoyne of Minneapolis, was her only attendant.

Dr. Norman Helgason, of Cavalier, North Dakota, served as Mr. Millar's best man and the bride's two brothers, Kent and Frank Bryan Jr., were the ushers. The former, who lived here for several years, is now in New York; Eryan Cooper, who is married and has three little girls, is a teacher of English at the Air Force Academy in Colorado. Mrs. Helgason, the groom's sister, was in charge of the guestbook.

Especially welcomed at the event were Mr. Millar's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Millar. Born in Scotland, they emigrated and live in Winnipeg, some 60 miles north of the Dakota line, in the Canadian province of Manitoba. Both the bride and the groom are recent graduates of the University of North Dakota at Fargo, N. D.

Following a honeymoon of a few days, the couple will return here to "pick up their things" and then proceed to Waynesville, where Mr. Millar has a position with his father-in-law's firm in the evaluation project now being carried on in Haywood County.

ATTENDS MEETING

Mrs. L. A. DesPland Saturday attended the luncheon meeting of the North Carolina Division of the National Society of Magna Charta Dames and Barons, held at Schrafft's Country Inn near Durham. The main speaker was the Rev. Dr. Trela D. Collins of Durham.

Elected president to succeed Mrs. Arthur M. Proctor was Mrs. Zalphus A. Rochelle. Both are from Durham.

STUDIO NOTES

On the breast of that huge Mississippi called history, a foam-bell more or less is of no consequence.

LADY RICH

by Elizabeth Boatwright Coker 4.95
... NO FOAM - BELL, THIS ...

STUDIO BOOKSHOP

105 E. Pennsylvania Ave. Southern Pines

FATHER'S DAY JUNE 16

THE Finest Dad EVER HAD!
A TRUSTWORTHY NEW SELF-WINDING HAMILTON WATCH

Thin-o-matic T-650

$89.50

Fed. Tax Incl.

Self-winding.

Weatherproof.

*provided seal is restored if opened.

Perkinson's Inc. JEWELERS Southern Pines, N.C.

MISS SHIRLEY ANNE EASOME is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Easome of Keeling, Va., who announce her engagement to Brightman Kenneth Holliday, son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Holliday of Danville, Va., former residents of Southern Pines. The bride-elect is a senior at Dan River High School. Mr. Holliday is affiliated with Coming Glass Works. A July wedding is planned.

Southport Jr. Woman's Club Will Sponsor Arts Festival There

The Third Annual Southport Arts Festival, to be held June 14, 15, and 16, will be sponsored by the Southport Junior Woman's Club. The Junior Woman's Club, only one year old in Southport, hopes to attract this year more than the 2,600 visitors that viewed last year's show.

The festival will be opened at historic City Hall, Franklin Square, with an address by Mayor Eugene Tomlinson at 2 p. m. June 14. Music and entertainment will be on the calendar of events for June 14 and 15 and judging of the show will be June 15 with awards presented by Miss Brunswick County, Carol Johnson of Bolivia, June 16 between 4:00 and 5:00. The Thalias of Wilmington will present their production of Dial M for Murder Saturday night at 8:00 p. m. at the School Auditorium in conjunction with the festival.

Entry in the Southport Arts Festival is open to any artist. Registration will be held at Southport City Hall from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m., June 13. Any artist desiring entry blanks or further information can contact Mrs. Floyd Lewis or Mrs. William N. Williams, Southport.

Wedding At Culdee Church Unites Miss Edgill, Mr. Wicker

Miss JoAnn Edgill and Robert Dean Wicker were married June 1 at Culdee Presbyterian Church with the pastor, the Rev. W. K. Fitch, Jr. officiating.

The bride is the daughter of S/Sgt. and Mrs. Herbert L. Franklin of 620 South Bennett Street. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wicker of Carthage.

Seniors And Guests Enjoy Party After Graduation Exercises

Dr. A. C. Dawson, Jr., of Raleigh, who spoke to the 1963 graduating class at their commencement exercises Thursday night in Weaver Auditorium, was a guest at the party held afterwards in the student lounge of the school.

Other special guests were members of the faculty, the school board, all present with the alumni and their dates.

A table, decorated by Mrs. Hazel Bridges, was set up facing the lounge on the terrace lit with candles and the glow of the moonlight.

Mrs. K. D. Bristow and her committee members served punch, sandwiches and cookies.

Mrs. Hal Cuff had decorated the lounge with hurricane lamps, candles and boughs of magnolia, using the flower arrangement from the graduation ceremony to deck the orchestra stand.

Woody Hayes and his three-piece combo played for dancing. The "live" orchestra was a gift to the Senior Class from Mrs. Leon Eaker.

NANCY ROWE

Legion Auxiliary To Send Nancy Rowe To Girls' State Sunday

Miss Nancy Rowe, daughter of Sgt. Major and Mrs. Albert H. Rowe of Oak Drive, has been chosen to represent the American Legion Auxiliary at Girls' State June 16-22.

This 24th annual program, to be held at Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, promises to be a week filled with practical instruction in the operation of state government, with many exciting hours of touring included in the events scheduled by the Commission, besides dormitory parties a talent show and other interesting features which will be reported later.

Miss Rowe is the 34th representative of the local unit to go to Girls' State in the 24 years of its operation; two girls are sent every year. The body politic of 1963 Girls' State will be composed of 300 girls from units all over the state. Miss Rowe will enter the Senior Class of the local high school this fall.

MRS. JAMES THOMAS RITCHIE

MISS WILLIAMSON, GRANDDAUGHTER OF LOCAL RESIDENT, IS WED IN GREENSBORO

A wedding Saturday in the Wendover Church of Christ, Greensboro, united Miss Mary Linda Williamson and James Thomas Ritchie, both of that city. The Rev. Paul Sikes, pastor, performed the rites at 2:30 p. m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Holt Williamson of Greensboro, who formerly lived in Southern Pines where Mrs. Williamson graduated from high school. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. T. O. Coble, lives here on Highway 1, North.

Her husband is the son of Mrs. James Alfred Ritchie of Greensboro, and the late Mr. Ritchie.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white taffeta over tulle trimmed with chantilly lace with bell-shaped skirt and wrist length sleeves. Her elbow-length veil of net illusion depended from a pearl tiara and she carried a cascade of white roses.

Her attendants, all from Greensboro, included Mrs. Jesse Lewis, matron of honor; and the Misses Martha Sear Steed and Edith Elaine Pelkey.

Clay Turner was best man and ushers were James Pulliam, William Wilson and Jesse Lewis, all from Greensboro.

Mrs. Jack Garrett sang and Mrs. William Hunt was pianist.

After a wedding trip to the beach, the couple will live in Greensboro where he is a member of the City Fire Department and Mrs. Ritchie is a secretary in the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company.

:-: In and Out of Town :-:

Mrs. William Stratton drove her father, Donald G. Herring to Princeton this week for the 60th reunion of his college class.

Mrs. James Cash and small son, Jimmy, who have been visiting her mother, Mrs. George Moore on East Massachusetts Avenue, have returned to Raleigh. Here with them for a couple of days last week was Mrs. Cash's older son, Andy Patterson, who now lives in Henderson. His wife and their baby are visiting her parents in Germany for a short time.

Player and Marian McPhaul, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John A. McPhaul, left by plane last week for a visit with their father's sister, Mrs. Robert Emslie and family at Chadd's Ford, Pa.

Thursday overnight guests of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Hiatt, Jr. were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Rankin of Gastonia, and his father and mother, Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Hiatt of Elkin, who came to attend the graduation of their grandson, Joseph S. Hiatt, III.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stearns and son, Mark, have closed their apartment and Midland Crafts shop, on Midland Road which they operate during the season here, and have gone to Highlands, where they are in charge of a similar shop during the summer.

Col. and Mrs. Leon Baker, who are occupying a cottage they have leased this week at Pawley's Island, S. C., have with them their son, Pete, Joe Hiatt, III and Pat Dougherty.

Among local college students

Many Groups Active At United Church Of Christ

Six members of the women's groups of the United Church of Christ will be attending the annual summer conference of United Church Women to be held at Catawba College, June 18 to 21. It is expected to draw widely from all parts of the state.

Planning to attend from the local church are: Mrs. Earl Parker, Mrs. Harry Pethick, Mrs. Bryan Poe, Mrs. Jack Reid, Mrs. Robert Strouse, and Mrs. Carl Wallace.

Father's Day observance in the church this Sunday will be featured by a sermon on the subject of "little-known fathers with well-known influence." The day also marks the vacation church school commencement exercises, to take place Sunday morning at 9:45.

Wednesday, June 19, choirs rehearse; the Church Council meets at 7 p. m.

who are attending summer school at the University of North Carolina are Emmaday Collins and Alice Farnior and from Aberdeen, Virginia Tribble. Pat Farnior leaves this weekend for the first summer session at East Carolina College.

Al Butler and Ronnie Rowe are attending the first session of summer school at Campbell College.

Bob McConnell Tuesday drove his sister, Molly, to Cullowhee where she will attend classes at Western Carolina College this summer.

Mrs. James S. Milliken left Tuesday by car for Savannah, Ga. where she plans a 10-day stay with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Howard and family.

Chris Benedict is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. Graves Vann and family in Sparta.

Arriving Tuesday for 10 days with Mr. and Mrs. Allan T. Preyer on Bethesda Road were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Preyer and their four-month-old son, from New York City. The baby's mother, who is the former Mary Louise Black of Pinehurst, spent a few days in Durham with her mother, Mrs. Thomas L. Black, and her sister, before coming here.

Charles Rose, who has completed his sophomore year at East Carolina College, returned home this week to spend the summer here with his mother, Mrs. Allie B. Rose.

Mrs. R. P. Brown left Sunday to spend the week at Greenville where she is attending the Presbyterian Synodical Training School.

Mrs. Arthur D. Tener has returned to her job at the Southern Pines Warehouses, Inc. after a stay at Moore Memorial Hospital where she was taken following an accident.

Hollywood Hotel Lists Arrivals From Florida, Others Visiting Here

News from Hollywood Hotel this week includes the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Walter McCarthy of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., who will spend a month. Also, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel S. Muzzey, Jr. of Kensington, Md.; Mrs. William G. Michels of Bellmawr, N. J. and John S. Ross of Hendersonville, who is contemplating making his home at the Hollywood.

Miss Kitty Wiley entertained guests recently for dinner at the hotel.

Manager George W. Pottle and family left Thursday for Spring Lake where he will again manage The Shoreham Hotel this summer.

Patch Family Holds Reunion, Cookout

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Patch, Sr. gathered at their home June 1 for a cookout and informal reunion in their yard.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Kobleur and sons, Ricky, Mike, Cephas and Steffen and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Patch, Jr., daughter, Peggy and son, Charles S., III. Their daughter Patricia was unable to attend.

Here from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Patch of Greensboro; Mr. and Mrs. Cephas T. Patch, III of Cabin John, Md. and Dick Kobleur's mother, Mrs. Yana Kobleur, her daughter, Mrs. Jean Kobleur and the latter's sons, Jimmy and Chris, who were visiting their relatives here for the weekend.

Special guests at the party were Dr. and Mrs. Michael T. Pishko of Pinehurst.

Markhams Are Winners At Duplicate Bridge

Winners at the monthly masterpoint game of the Sandhills Duplicate Bridge Club Tuesday night at the Southern Pines Country Club were: first, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Markham, of West End, second, Mr. and Mrs. Frank deCosta, third, Mrs. Betsy Hitson, Mrs. Neill McKeithan.

Patient Improving Fast, To Return Home Soon

The welcome sign is being hung out on the door of Miss Grace Thwing's home at 640 Northwest Broad Street. The owner is expected back from her long stay at Moore Memorial Hospital this Saturday.

Miss Thwing spent a month at the hospital following a fall in which she fractured her thigh. She is recuperating rapidly but the word is: no walking yet for several months.

New Heir-Rivals

PATRICIA ANN BLACK

A sixth daughter, Patricia Ann, was born May 26 to Mr. and Mrs. Norman A. Black of Central Drive. The baby weighed six pounds, 14 ounces at her birth at St. Joseph's Hospital. She has one brother, Michael, 12, and her sisters are Diane, 13, Donna, 10, Denise, nine, Delores, six, and Darlene, four.

Looking Ahead

HOSPITAL WORKERS

Volunteer workers of the American Legion Auxiliary will go to the Veterans' Hospital, Fayetteville, Tuesday for six hours of duty on the wards.

Mrs. Taylor Wins In Summer Club Tourney

Mrs. Richard S. Taylor, with 76 points, was the winner Tuesday in the Sandhills Summer Club's par-bogey tournament at the Pinehurst Country Club. Twenty-seven members participated.

Mrs. Joseph W. Duffield won second place, by matching cards, after there was a four-way tie for that position, at 74 points. Others in the tie were Mrs. William Burke, Mrs. J. E. Fleming, nad Mrs. William M. Gantt.

The Sandhills Summer Club and members of Morco, men's summer golfing organization at Pinehurst are playing a better ball of pair twilight tournament this afternoon, to be followed by a party at the Country Club.

PILOT ADVERTISING PAYS

JOHN RUGGLES

about this question:

PLAIN TO SEE

The Big Difference in insurance shows up clearly when you have a loss... because your independent insurance agent helps you get prompt, fair settlement.

Barnum Realty & Insurance Co. Citizens Bank Bldg. Southern Pines, N. C.

We offer every service needed to...

Keep your furs beautiful

Yes, our Furrier, Jones Fur Service, Greensboro, is recognized as the South's Largest and Finest.

SUMMER is the logical time to modernize your fur garments. Bring them now for our insured storage and while they are in our care, we can repair, if worn, restyle if out-moded. Ask for an estimate.

Phone WI 4-1600

Crucedale Aberdeen, N. C.

SLIPPED DISC?

SEE YOUR DOCTOR OF CHIROPRACTIC

The disc between each bone in your spinal column is a comfortable cushion and shock absorber when it's in place. But when it slips, the pain in your back or leg could hardly be worse. Chiropractic treatment is often very effective, costs less, takes less time. Consult your Doctor of Chiropractic (D.C.) today!

Sponsored by North Carolina Chiropractic Association