

Coon Hound Water Race Slated For July 4 At Candor

The fourth annual Coon Hound Water Race and dog show has been scheduled for Thursday, July 4, at Martine J. Allen's lake, three miles north of Candor.

Attracting dog owners and sportsmen from a wide area, the event opens at 10 a. m. and includes the Coon Hound Water Race, U. K. C. Bench Shows, Grade Hound Dog Bench Show and Ugly Hound Bench Show.

Awards will be made to the youngest and oldest person attending and to the person traveling the greatest distance to reach the event. Gate prizes, donated by Candor merchants, will be given.

Refreshments will be sold by the Flint Hill Christian Church of Biscoe, RFD, to benefit the church building fund.

Further information can be obtained from Martine J. Allen of Candor, president of the sponsoring Cabin Creek Cooners Club.

An article about the water races appears in the June issue of "True" magazine.

Mrs. Taylor To Appear Sunday At Aberdeen Church

The trustees of Faith United Presbyterian Church of Aberdeen announce that Mrs. Edna Taylor of the Taylortown community near Pinehurst will present a program at the church Sunday, June 23, at 8 p. m., featuring colored slides and pictures of scenes in Europe and the Holy Land. The pictures were made by Mrs. Taylor during a period of three years overseas, most of which was spent in Germany.

Mrs. Taylor is a former school teacher who was active in that profession for many years. She has been active also in giving assistance to the Welfare Department and with the Red Cross and Moore County Tuberculosis Association.

Theodore R. Holland is chairman of the Faith United Presbyterian Church board of trustees. The public is invited.

Home Demonstration

Mt. Holly Club
The Mt. Holly Club women held their second workshop of the year in the White Hill Fellowship Hall beginning at 10.

Mrs. Owen Taylor of near Broadway demonstrated and taught a lesson on Crewel embroidery. Miss Flora McDonald, retiring extension agent of Moore County, gave a lesson and demonstration on "Trapunto" quilting and also repeated a demonstration on "How To Sew In A Zipper." The picnic dinner was given in her honor and she was presented a gift in cut glass from the club in appreciation of her untiring service to homemakers.

Mrs. Taylor was presented a gift in cut glass for her demonstration. After lunch, the regular June club meeting was held.

In all, 29 members and invited guests enjoyed the day.
