Army Reserve Lt. Col. Wilson L. Fisher, son of Mrs. Elinor S. Fisher, 310 N. Page St., has completed two weeks of annual active duty training at The Engineer Center, Fort Belvoir, Va. Colonel Fisher attended the engineer career officer course at the Center. He is assigned as an engineer instructor in the Greenville U. S. Army Reserve School, an Army Reserve unit in Greenville, S. C.

Colonel Fisher and his wife, Betty, live at 42 E. Faris Rd., Greenville. A 1933 graduate of Southern Pines High School and a 1938 graduate of North Carolina State College in Raleigh, he is a brother of Major Gen. William P. Fisher, distinguished Air Force officer who was honored here with a "Bill Fisher Day" in November, 1960.

Lt. Col. W. H. Fisher was known locally as Hunt Fisher when living in Southern Pines.

Pvt. Bonnie M. Sercy, daughter of Mrs. Eva M. Sercy, Route 1, Cameron, has completed an eight-week clerical procedures course at The Women's Army Corps Center, Fort McClellan, Ala.

Private Sercy entered the Women's Army Corps in January, 1963, and completed basic training at Fort McClellan, Ala. She is a 1963 graduate of Cameron High School and attended Sanford Business College.

Army Specialist Four Charles C. Fowler, 21, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Selby, live at 810 Poplar St., Aberdeen, was named soldier of the month for the 43d Artillery's 2d Missile Battalion at Turner Air Force Base, Ga.

An operations assistant in the battalion's headquarters, Specialist Fowler was selected for his soldierly appearance, knowledge and performance of duties and military courtesy.

He attended Vass-Lakeview High School in Vass before entering the Army in May, 1959. His wife, Carolyn, lives at Albany, Ga.

Army Sgt. Donald T. Lutz, 27, whose wife, Dorothy, lives at 188 Glover St., has completed a 22-week helicopter repair course at The Transportation Center, Fort Eustis, Va. During the course, Sergeant Lutz received instruction in the repair and maintenance of observation, utility and transport helicopters.

He was graduated from West Southern Pines High School in 1953 and attended North Carolina A & T College in Greensboro. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Lutz, live at 173 Hardin St.

Thomas H. Johnston, hospitalman, USN, son of Mrs. Lee R. Page of Central Drive, Knollwood, is serving with Company "D," Third Marine Division at Okinawa.

He reported May 14, and has been assigned duties with the Medical Battalion.

Before entering the Navy in June, 1961, Johnston attended the Campbell College at Buie's Creek.

Marine Private First Class Wayne Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ashburn of Route 1, Cameron was recently graduated from the 19-week Aviation Electronics Fundamentals School at the Naval Air Technical Training Center, Memphis, Tenn., and is now attending the nine-week Aviation Electronics Technician School also at Memphis.

The 19-week fundamentals course covered basic electronics and radar, while the present course of study deals with communications systems and navigation equipment.

Upon completion of his electronics training he will be qualified for technical duties with Marine aviation units.

Wildlife Club To Meet At Lakeview Tuesday, July 2

The last monthly dinner meeting of the Moore County Wildlife Club until September will be held at the Lakeview Community House Tuesday of next week, July 2, with registration at 7 p. m. and dinner at 7:30.

Brig. Gen. R. B. Hill, program chairman, announces that Dr. George Heinisch, former president of both the club and the N. C. Wildlife Federation, will have charge of the program. Club members are invited to bring guests.

President Ralph T. Mills reminds club members that, as customary in past years, there will be no meeting in August.

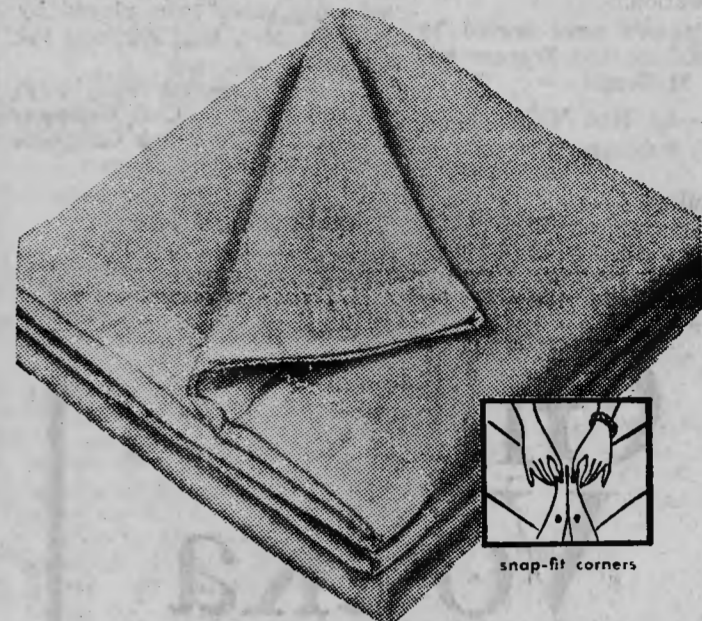

HAVE CAR FIXED

The North Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles urges you to check your car for "mushy" brakes, worn tires, leaking mufflers, broken taillights and turn signals. If your car is not mechanically ready for the road, don't wait—have it fixed.
