Receives Recognition
 Lion J. F. Sinclair was presented a plaque at the 18th Charter Night celebration Thursday in recognition of faithful and loyal service to the club and furtherance of the objects of Lionism.

Roy Swaringen, president-elect, made the presentation on behalf of the club and recalled that Lion Sinclair served as the first club president, a zone chairman, deputy district governor and has also, a second term as the club's president.

Harris Blake, president of the Pinehurst Club was a guest and he also paid tribute to his former principal, J. F. Sinclair, and to the club for providing football uniforms when he and other students were anxious to play. Vocalist Judy Upole sang "God Bless This House," with Mrs. W. A. Johnson, Jr. at the piano.

Mrs. Mary VonCanon Sisk is the designer for the Sandhill and she and her husband, Hollie Sisk of Southern Pines and James Covey, sales manager for the Sandhill are attending the markets.

New Pastoral Assignments
 Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Reynolds and family were assigned to the Newland-Grace Methodist Churches in the Elizabeth City District at the annual North Carolina Conference last week as it met in Greenville. The Reynolds family has been a great influence on our community and on the West End Methodist Church. The Rev. Mr. Reynolds served as choir director of the church in addition to his pastoral duties. Joyce graduated from West End High School this year where she was editor of the annual and received high scholastic honors. She will continue her education next year at Wesleyan Methodist College in Rocky Mount. Carol finished her junior year in our school.

The pastor assigned to serve the West End Methodist Church is the Rev. D. C. Boone who comes from the Norman charge. The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Boone have four children—Danny, who has attended Louisiana College; Patricia, who graduated from high school last year; Mary, who will enter high school this year; and Thomas who will enter the fourth grade.

Principal and Mrs. J. R. Brendell, Jr., with Lynn, moved to Aberdeen on Tuesday. When the progress in education is recorded in this district, J. R. Brendell should be remembered as a leader. Probably his most outstanding contribution was in bringing the largest school district in the county and one of the larger ones in the state together and leading the fight for a supplementary school tax.
