NANCY BUTLER

Niece Of Local Residents Picked By Peace Corps

After graduation in early June from the University of North Carolina and two days' teaching at N. C. State, University of North Carolina in Raleigh, Miss Nancy Butler was notified by the office of Sargent Shriver, that she had been chosen to participate in a Peace Corps project in Bolivia.

Following a short briefing period in Los Angeles, Nancy will go to her assigned post.

The daughter of Cyrus Butler of Chappaqua, N. Y., Nancy is also a niece of Howard Butler and of Miss Helen Butler, both of Southern Pines. She attended high school here, and in Havana, Cuba, where her engineer father spent several years.

Upon her family's return to the states, Nancy attended Salem College before entering UNC. Her sister Kate, who just graduated from Chappaqua High School, will attend Duke University in Durham.

Col. Adams Plans July 4 Visit With The Joe Montesantis

Expected here next week to visit Mr. and Mrs. Joe Montesanti, Sr. at 240 Valley Road is their son-in-law, Lt. Col. Daniel B. Adams of Fort Leavenworth, Kan.

A clipping received here from the post newspaper, The Leavenworth Times, notes that Colonel Adams was host at a party recently at the Officers' Club. Acting as hostess was his mother, Mrs. Helen Adams, who moved to Fort Leavenworth from Cleveland to live with her son.

His wife, the former Lorena Montesanti, died three years ago. The Adamses formerly lived on Midland Road.

Special guests at the party were First Lt. and Mrs. Frederick L. Malone, the host's son-in-law and his daughter, who was Miss Danielle Adams. The couple, with their infant daughter, Tammy, left Tuesday for Germany.

Lieutenant Malone has been the optometrist at Munson Army Hospital. His assignment in Germany will be at the 225th Station Hospital at Pirmasens.

Licensed Practical Nurses To Hold A Special Meeting

Area 13, in which the following counties are included: Chatham, Moore, Lee, Richmond and Montgomery.

All LPN's are urged to attend.

Looking Ahead

LUTHERAN CHURCH

Lutheran Church Women of Our Saviour Lutheran Church will have their monthly meeting at 8 p.m. Monday, July 1, in the home of Mrs. Melvin O. Johnson. The program on "The Christian and Tension" will be presented by Mrs. John Williams.

The second annual congregational picnic of Our Saviour Lutheran Church will be held Sunday, June 30, at 1 p.m. at Whispering Pines.

Par Seekers Hosts At Member-Guest Golf Tournament

Over 30 participated in Wednesday's Scotch Foursome tournament in which members of the Par Seekers, local women's golfing organization, each invited a guest to play.

Following the tournament, the Par Seekers entertained their guests at a picnic in the outdoor picnic area at the Southern Pines Country Club. The contest was played over the course there.

Prize winners in three divisions were: Mrs. Dick Davis low net and Mrs. R. M. Pearse, second low net; Mrs. Nolley Jackson and Mrs. W. Lamont Brown, low putts; and Mrs. Donald Morse and Mrs. T. O. Pruitt, Whispering Pines, high score.

INS and OUTS

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gordon-Mann got home recently from a week's visit in Fort Benning, Ga. with their daughter and son-in-law, Lt. and Mrs. Neilsen H. Botcher. On June 16, they attended the christening of their grandson, William Frassinetti, at St. Francis Episcopal Church in Greensboro. The Rev. Peter Robinson was the officiating minister. The infant is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Jordan Frassinetti.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart and small sons of Fort Walton Beach, Fla. spent last week visiting Mrs. Stewart's mother, Mrs. C. B. Gale.

Barbara and Brenda Woolley, who have been here for two weeks with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd L. Woolley, returned Tuesday by train to the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Woolley, in Palm Beach, Fla.

Mrs. Vernon Samples and her son and daughter, of Madras, Ore., are here for about two months with her mother, Mrs. Lloyd T. Clark. Mr. Samples, who has been an instructor at Madras College, is in summer school at N. C. State, University of North Carolina, in Raleigh, and joins his family on weekends here.

Dan Butler got home Tuesday and will be with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Butler for about two weeks. He has completed boot training at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill. While in the mid-west, he also visited a former Mercersburg Academy classmate in Neenah, Wisc. and spent a week in Chicago. From July 6-22, he will be on active duty with the Naval Reserve on a 14-day tour on a ship out of Norfolk, Va.

Weekend guests of Mrs. H. W. Dorn were her daughter, Miss Dorothy Dorn, and Miss Lillian Roberts, both of Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Thomas and children, Danny and Terry, of Chicago, Ill. are visiting her mother, Mrs. Lena McFarland and sisters, Mrs. M. G. McRae and Mrs. M. B. Arnold.

Mrs. J. W. Guin and sons, Jimmie and Johnny, are spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sitterson. Mr. Guin joined them for the weekend. Col. John D. Sitterson flew down from Washington, D. C. to join the family for the weekend and to visit his mother, who was a patient at Moore Memorial Hospital last week.

Sam Harrison is back at his Weymouth apartment following a two weeks' vacation. He and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harrison of Chapel Hill spent a few days at Myrtle Beach, S. C. after which Sam went on to New York City for about a week, returning then to Chapel Hill for a short stay with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan S. Ray were weekend guests of their son, Dr. Richard Ray, his wife and their two children, in Winston-Salem.

Mrs. Norris L. Hodgkins, Jr. and Mrs. James Boyd will return tomorrow from Asheville where they have been for three days attending the American Folk Festival. Among outstanding performers of folk music appearing in concerts at the Asheville Auditorium were John Jacob Niles, Pete Seeger and The Weavers.

Spending the week with Mrs. S. D. Fobes are her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Cornwell and their daughters, Dania, Alice and Heidi, of Memphis, Tenn. Her daughter, Miss Arden Fobes, has recently returned from visits in the north. She attended June Week festivities at the U. S. Military Academy in West Point, N. Y. and visited her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Kinson Blanchard in Pelham Manor, N. Y. and attended, with them, the wedding of another cousin Robert B. Blanchard, in New Haven, Conn.

MRS. CLARENCE R. DUNCAN, JR.

FATHER OF MISS HALES OFFICIATES AT HER WEDDING IN VASS CHURCH

The Rev. John D. Hales, Jr. officiated at the wedding of his daughter, Miss Linda Katherine Hales, who was married June 15 to Clarence Russell Duncan, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan of Lincolnton.

Assisting the Rev. Mr. Hales, who is pastor of the Vass Baptist Church where the ceremony was held, was the Rev. Norman F. Arant.

Henry Lenhoff of Rockingham was the organist and the soloist was Mrs. C. E. Pfalzgraf.

The bride, daughter also of Mrs. Hales, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a full-length gown of pure silk organza, the bodice fashioned on princess lines and embroidered with alencon lace and seed pearls. The bouffant skirt ended in a chapel train. Her pillbox headpiece held an elbow-length veil and she carried a prayerbook centered with orchids.

Miss Joan Hales was her sister's maid of honor. Her matron of honor was Mrs. J. H. Kennedy of Hampton, Va. and bridesmaids were Misses Sara Duncan, the bridegroom's sister, of Lincolnton; the bride's sister, Holly Hales of Vass; Alice Evelyn Smith of Pikesville; Catherine Simpson of Alexandria, Va.; and Mrs. Robert Barksdale of Raleigh. Miss Debbie Lindsay of Hazelwood was the flower girl. Ringbearer was Tommy Stanberry.

The attendants all wore formal-length dresses of fern green silk organza with pillow headresses similar to that worn by the bride, and each carried a magnolia blossom.

Clarence R. Duncan was his son's best man. Ushering were Harry Heavner of Lincolnton; Robert Wayne Broome of Charlottesville, Va.; James Cunningham Buie of Winston-Salem and William Leon Johnston and Olin Kent Crouch of Greensboro.

The couple is living in Fieldale, Va. Mrs. Duncan, a 1962 graduate of Meredith College, Raleigh, has been teaching during the past year at Vass-Lakeview High School in Vass. She plans to teach this coming year in Henry County, Va.

Her husband is a recent graduate of N. C. State, University of North Carolina, where he joined the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity. He is employed with the Design Department of Stanley Furniture Company.

LOCAL LEGION, AUXILIARY DELEGATES ATTEND CONVENTION IN CHARLOTTE

W. E. Cox, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. D. R. McNeill represented Sandhill Post 134 of the American Legion and Auxiliary at the Annual Department Convention in Charlotte last week, Thursday through Sunday.

They heard addresses by both national and state officers at different sessions they attended at the Charlotte Hotel; also reports of officers and committee chairmen on all phases of work in the organization, including child welfare, rehabilitation, legislation, civil defense, national security, Americanism and many other projects.

Mr. Cox could not stay for all sessions, but the McNeills stayed until the Memorial Service at 9 a.m. Sunday morning, after which they attended services at the First Presbyterian Church where Dr. Stoffel is pastor. Mrs. Stoffel is the daughter of Col. and Mrs. W. C. Williams of Vermont Avenue here.

Hospital Volunteers Last week, Tuesday, the volunteer hospital workers from the local unit of the American Legion Auxiliary spent a day on duty in the wards at The Veterans' Hospital in Fayetteville.

Mrs. Vernon P. Doughty was the "chauffeur" for the group comprising Miss Nannie Gilchrist, Mrs. Julia T. Epps and Mrs. L. L. Wooley and her two granddaughters, Brenda and Barbara Wooley. Back From Girls' State

Miss Sadie Fields returned home last Saturday from Woman's College, Greensboro where

Three Winning Teams Named In Sandhill Duplicate Club Play

Mrs. C. H. Bowman and Mrs. Jean Edson teamed to take top honors in Tuesday's regular session of the Sandhill Duplicate Bridge Club.

In second place were veteran teammates, Dr. E. W. Bush and Fred Brindley, and taking third prize were Mrs. C. D. May and Mrs. Neil McKeithan.

Methodist Minister And Family Honored At Farewell Party

The Rev. Robert C. Mooney, Jr., pastor of the Southern Pines Methodist Church for the past four years, who left today for a pastorate in Lumberton, was honored, with his family, at a reception Monday given by church members in the church parlor.

In the receiving line were the minister, his wife, and their children, Bobby and Jandy. Also, Newton Berryman, outgoing chairman of the board of stewards, J. L. Field, incoming chairman of the same board, and his wife, and Maxwell Grey, member of the board of trustees.

Mrs. Mooney was given an orchid corsage and the couple was remembered with a silver service and a cake, decorated and bearing the frosted inscription, "Best Wishes."

An outside silver bowl holding an arrangement of flowers, with pink and green predominating, centered the whole table.

Presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. Maxwell Grey and Mrs. John Webb.
