

Dr. McLean Goes To Asheville Meet

Dr. C. C. McLean of Southern Pines attended the 62nd annual meeting of the North Carolina Veterinary Medical Association being held at the Battery Park Hotel in Asheville this week.

Dr. McLean participated in the clinical sessions conducted by outstanding specialists in the various fields of veterinary medicine from all sections of the country. More than 200 veterinarians and their wives attended this session which included an outstanding array of speakers on a variety of technical subjects as well as entertainment and recreation. Dr. McLean is a partner in operation of the Sandhill Veterinary Hospital, between Southern Pines and Pinehurst.

Service Held For Mrs. Crosby, 81

Mrs. Dorothea Howell Crosby, 81, died Saturday at the Pinehurst Nursing Home. A Christian Science service was conducted Monday afternoon at the Powell Funeral Chapel by Roland Delano of Pinebluff, first reader. Burial was in Mt. Hope Cemetery.

She was a native of West Virginia and widow of Guy Crosby. She moved to Southern Pines in 1927. One son, Ralph Lute of Columbus, Ohio, is her only immediate survivor.

Mrs. Crosby had a long business career in Southern Pines, operating the Midland Dress Shop from 1929 until the early 1950's. The shop's last location was in the space now occupied by the Mid-South Bakery on N. W. Broad St.

In former years, Mrs. Crosby was active in the local First Church of Christ, Scientist. Until she became a patient at the Pinehurst Nursing Home six weeks ago, she had an apartment at the home of Mrs. David Hoskins.

MOORE COUNTY RECORDER'S COURT

West End Man Held For Grand Jury, Charged With Shooting Man In Back

Probable cause was found in Moore Recorder's Court at Carthage Monday against Richard Dunlap of West End, for felonious assault with a rifle on a neighbor, Ted Smith. Dunlap was ordered held for grand jury action at the August term under $1,000 bond.

The charge was assault with deadly weapon with intent to kill, inflicting serious injury. Dunlap, pleading not guilty, admitted firing the shots which struck Smith in the back and shoulder but said he did so in self-defense.

At the same court session, Dunlap had his 14-year-old stepson, Isaac Jenkins, also June McCain, 16, up for felonious assault on himself. He said Isaac fired a shotgun blast at him, striking him in the back of the head as he was trying to get away. He had no medical report on his injuries, as he said he had picked the shotgun pellets out himself. Young McCain had backed up Isaac's attack with threats with a pistol, Dunlap said.

Details of the incident were vague and were not clarified by testimony of Mrs. Dunlap, who said she had hold of the shotgun and was trying to get it out of sight when, as she came through a door, "someone" took it away—she didn't know who. The shooting followed.

Pleading not guilty, the teenage boys did not testify. The court found the evidence insufficient to sustain a felony charge against Isaac but found him guilty of a misdemeanor and turned him over to the juvenile court. McCain was acquitted.

This was one more in a series of cases involving violent assault which have occupied much of the court's recent time.

At Monday's session, Daniel Toomer of West End, pleading not guilty to felonious assault, disturbing the peace, etc., was found guilty of assault and battery on a female, and threats of violence (with shotgun). He received a 60-day road sentence suspended for 12 months on payment of $10 and costs, placed on strict good-behavior conditions and ordered to stay away from his sister-in-law's home for the next six months.

Nol pros with leave on payment of costs was taken for Clinton Williams of Robbins, Route 1, on request of his wife the prosecuting witness, who had indicted him for public drunkenness, assault and battery on her and malicious destruction of property.

The case of Rowland C. Bass of Vass, pleading not guilty to assault with deadly weapon, was continued to next Monday, with subpoena ordered to issue for the prosecuting witness, Elton Bass.

Capias was ordered to issue for Wayne Lee, charged with bastardy and carnal knowledge of a female child under 14, with bond set at $500.

Other cases disposed of Monday:

John Tom Fields, Carthage, public drunkenness, unlawful possession of seal-broken whiskey, $15 and costs; Worthy H. Moore, Robbins, bad check ($8), judgment continued on payment of $5 and costs, also the check; Larry Levon Michael, Southern Pines, careless and reckless driving, destroying road sign, judgment continued on payment of $25 and costs, defendant ordered to replace the road sign; Floyd Blue, Jr., Vass, speeding 70 in 55-mile zone. $15 and costs; Henry Jr. Armstrong, Carthage, Route 2, driving after license revocation, 90 days or $200 and costs, license to be revoked an additional 12 months; Earl Linwood Daniels, Fayetteville, speeding 50 in 35-mile zone. $10 and costs; Barbara Jean Pettv, Pittsboro, speeding 70 in 55-mile zone. $10 and costs; Betty Jean Stone, Sanford, Route 3, speeding 80 in 55-mile zone, judgment continued on payment of $50 and costs, license suspended as provided by law; Larry Grout Cheek, Box 661, Robbins, speeding 60 in 50-mile zone (truck), $10 and costs.

William Murrat Linn, Fort Bragg, driving while drunk, 60 days or $100 and costs, license revoked 12 months; Cecil Arley VonCanon, Robbins, Route 1, driving without license, careless and reckless driving, accident, property damage, personal injury, 60 days or $50 and costs, not to operate auto during next six months; Oscar Caviness, abandonment and non-support, continued for two weeks on payment of $50 to wife toward support of family, appearance bond set at $200; Welles Bennett Ross, Wadesboro, passing on hill, $25 and costs, defendant notified of appeal, bond set at $100; Larry Thomas Bennett, Carthage, careless and reckless driving, not with its principal office in Southern Pines, Moore County, North Carolina, filed Articles of Dissolution in the Office of the Secretary of State of North Carolina, and is now in the process of liquidation.

This 5th day of June, 1963, Robert M. Cushman, President Cusan Corporation, Box 761, Southern Pines, N. C. J6,13,20,27c

Lester Roy Simpson, Sanford, Rt. 7, speeding 75 in 55-mile zone, tendered plea of guilty to speeding 70, found guilty as charged, fined $25 and costs, notified of appeal, bond set at $100; Lewis Watson, Eagle Springs, Route 2, exceeding safe speed, accident, $15 and costs; George Reaves, Rowland, exceeding safe speed, judgment continued on payment of $25 and costs; John B. Wright, Fort Bragg, improper registration, driving on wrong side, 30 days or $15 and costs; Edward Louis Pearson, improper registration, nol pros with leave; Bobby Lee Luck, Box 69, West End non-support of illegitimate child, four months suspended on payment of $25 and costs and $10 per week toward child's support, also one-half the medical and hospital bills incident to birth, defendant notified of appeal, bond set at $500.

Larry Blue, Carthage, careless and reckless driving, accident, property damage, 60 days or $25 and costs, defendant to pay or cause to be paid damage to the other car; Charles Frank Brown, Robbins, improper registration, using dealers' tags, no liability insurance, judgment continued on payment of costs (it appearing to the court that auto did not belong to defendant and he probably did not know there was no liability insurance on it, and it was improperly registered; Ralph Kevin Howard, Southern Pines, abandonment and non-support, not guilty; Clarence Milton McLaughlin, nol pros with leave as to McLaughlin, continued as to prosecuting witness Mary Mason Powell who failed to appear (subpoena had been ordered to issue the previous Monday when the case was first called).
