

Women's Activities and Sandhills Social Events

MARY EVELYN de NISSOFF, Editor

TELEPHONE OX 2-6512

VFW Auxiliary Opens 29th Annual Writing Contest For Students

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars announced the opening of its 29th annual National High School Writing Contest. The topic will be "The Foreign Student in America—An Opportunity for Friendship."

The writing contest, first started in 1935, is intended to put before the student some problem of patriotism, citizenship or similar topic about which he must study and learn in order to write the essay.

Students in all public, private and parochial high schools are eligible to enter the contest. National prizes are: First, $1,000 cash; second, $500; third, $250; fourth, $100 and gold medals, and 20 other cash awards for honorable mention. State and local contest winners receive additional Auxiliary awards which vary with the community.

Rules folders on the 1963-64 contest may be obtained from local Auxiliary units, or by writing to the Contest Department, V. F. W. Auxiliary, 406 West 34th Street, Kansas City 11, Mo.

Retreat For Women Of Presbytery Set At Camp Monroe

The annual Retreat for Women of the Church of Fayetteville Presbytery will be held at Camp Monroe August 13-14. The theme of the Retreat will be "Seeking-Finding." Registration begins at 3 p. m. Tuesday, in Boyd Hall.

Mrs. J. A. McPhaul of Southern Pines will be in charge of recreation at the Tuesday evening session.

The speaker will be the Rev. Gower Crosswell, pastor of the Lee Memorial Presbyterian Church in Winston-Salem.

Early morning worship Wednesday will be led by Mrs. W. K. Fitch, Jr., of Culdee Church and at the opening session on Wednesday Mrs. Archie Howard of the Antioch Church will be in charge of the worship period.

The closing message will be given by Mrs. Myrton Stewart of Carthage, president of the women of the Church in Fayetteville Presbytery.

District chairmen are requested to meet in Boyd Hall at 10:30 a. m. August 13. Presbyterial executive board members will be guests at a luncheon in the camp dining hall at 1 p. m., after which the August executive board meeting will be held.

The Retreat is under the direction of Mrs. Archie Howard, of Raeford and Mrs. Sarah McDonald of Red Springs.

STUDIO

NOTES

It's much too hot for reason. And far too warm for rhyme. Joseph Ashby-Sterry to which we add, with apologies So let's relax, with paper-backs.

In the Good Old Summertime.

STUDIO BOOKSHOP
105 E. Pennsylvania Ave.
Southern Pines

HUBBARDS BUY MRS. MOORE'S HOUSE, SHE MOVES TO COUNTRY CLUB DRIVE

Real estate transactions involving the moving of four families were completed this week, with the principal sale that of the spacious brick house at 515 East Massachusetts Avenue, built in 1927 by George C. Moore.

This house is now the property of Mr. and Mrs. E. Earl Hubbard, who bought the place from Mrs. Moore. Since her husband's death five years ago, she has lived there alone.

Her daughter, Mrs. James Cash, who has three children, lives in Raleigh. Another daughter is the wife of Attorney William T. Johnston and they and their five children live in Fayetteville. George Moore, Jr., his wife and five children are Texas residents.

The Hubbards and their five children—Cindy, nine, Laurie, seven, Edward, five, Leta, 22 months and Paul, four months old—will move from 1115 East Massachusetts Extension into their newly acquired and renovated, property the end of this month.

A native of Stedman, N. C., Mr. Hubbard came here in 1951 with the Internal Revenue Service. He joined the staff of the Citizens Bank & Trust Company in 1956, and is now vice president in charge of the bank's Southwest Broad Street branch.

Mrs. Moore moved August 1 into the home at 465 Country Club Drive belonging to Mrs. Phillip O'Donnell. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Holtzclaw, she and her children are now visiting her parents at the Jefferson Inn, before joining her husband, Captain O'Donnell, at Harmon AFB, Newfoundland.

The former tenants on Country Club Drive, Lt. and Mrs. James V. Bickford, III, have gone to Chapel Hill to live.

The Hubbards' place—1115 East Massachusetts—has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Beams, who came here about two months ago from Mobile, Ala. and are living with their two children, Gary, seven, and David, 18 months, at 480 West Vermont Avenue.

Mr. Beams is associated with the United Telephone Company, Inc. at its office here.

Maureen Hassenfelt Entertains For Junior Tennis Contestants

Almost 50 teen-age tennis players, here last week for the Sandhills Junior Invitational Tennis tournament, were guests at a party given Saturday night by one of the contestants, Maureen Hassenfelt, at her home, 565 East Indiana Avenue.

The young people enjoyed dancing on the porch to the music of records. Refreshments of cakes and sandwiches were served on the porch and in the adjacent study.

Area Residents Are Invited To Square Dance In Aberdeen

The Aberdeen Recreation Program is sponsoring a street dance Friday, August 9, at 8:00 p. m. on Main Street near the Carolina Bank in Aberdeen.

Children, teenagers and adults from Southern Pines and Pinehurst are invited to join residents of Aberdeen and Pinebluff for square dancing and refreshments.

Music will be provided by the Carolina Cardinals. The band will play from a truck bed used as a stage and Nick Crotty will call the squares and instruct beginners.

Spectators are also invited. There will be no charge, and prizes will be awarded for the most appropriate "country clothes."

Mrs. Calcutt Honors Pinehurst Visitor At a Tea Monday

Mrs. Norman Calcutt was hostess Monday afternoon at her Knollwood home, at an informal tea honoring Mrs. John Biggers of Hertford, who is here visiting her mother, Mrs. W. H. Cole, in Pinehurst.

The hostess attended school with the honoree, and present were several other former schoolmates.

Miss Jean Bushby Is Honor Guest At Bridge-Luncheon

A prospective bride, Miss Lynda Jean Bushby, was presented a white carnation corsage and a gift of her silver at a bridge-luncheon given for her July 27 by Mrs. Hubert Cameron and Mrs. Bryan Poe.

The party was held at the Holiday Inn. The table centerpiece was an arrangement of white chrysanthemums with a bridal figure in the center and there were several smaller arrangements of pastel flowers. Place card holders, made by Mrs. Cameron, were tiny candy holders in the form of "garden party" hats, with lace doily brims and crowns of blue, pink, green and yellow crepe paper, decorated with bits of veiling and artificial flowers.

Winning prizes at bridge were Mrs. D. A. Jones, high score; Mrs. George Thompson, second high, and Mrs. Garland Pierce, low score.

In addition to those named, guests were: Mrs. W. C. Coffin, Mrs. L. M. Daniels, Jr., Misses Martha Caton, Connie Pierce, and Millie Montesanti, Mrs. George Little, and Mrs. Phillip Whitehead.

Also, Mrs. Peter Katavolos, Mrs. K. C. Weatherspoon, Mrs. Jack Hauser, Mrs. Francis M. Dwight, Mrs. Mildred McDonald, Mrs. Malcolm Grover, Mrs. Helen Wallis, Mrs. M. O. Johnson and Mrs. W. S. Bushby.

Former Resident Now Making His Home At Jefferson Inn

Elmer E. Davis of Charlotte, former resident of Southern Pines for 35 years, has returned to make his home here. He is now living at the Jefferson Inn and will welcome visits from his friends.

Visitors at the Inn
Mrs. Phillip F. O'Donnell and children and Mrs. Sarah Morden of Greensboro and children returned from Holdens Beach Sunday where they joined their sister, Mrs. Earl M. Hubbard, of Fayetteville, for a week's stay. Mrs. O'Donnell and children are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Holtzclaw at the Jefferson Inn while awaiting orders to go to Harmon AFB, Newfoundland, where Captain O'Donnell is now stationed. Mrs. Morden left Tuesday morning for Columbia, S. C., to attend the South Carolina Florist Convention where she will be one of the panel designers. The children are with their grandparents.

Local Residents Are Listed As Hospital Patients This Week

Mrs. J. I. Neal expects to return to her Midland Road home this week after several days at Moore Memorial Hospital where she underwent treatment.

Still a patient at Moore Memorial Hospital, which she entered about two weeks ago for treatment of an injury to a finger which became infected, is Miss Flora Chapman.

Mrs. Thomas T. Hayes has entered Moore Memorial where she is undergoing observation and treatment.

Stephen Van Camp re-entered St. Joseph's Hospital this week where he is being treated for a recurrent respiratory infection.

BEST ADVERTISEMENT for the delicious Elberta peaches for which the Sandhills section is famous are the expressions of the two youngsters shown above. Matt Worsham, seven, and sister, Ginger, nine, savor some of the succulent tree-ripened fruit from a West End orchard as the peach season neared its end. They are children of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Worsham of 225 South Ashe Street.

(V. Nicholson photo)

Local Girl Wins Camp Class In Blowing Rock Show

Vicki Ritter, nine-year-old daughter of Gerald Ritter of Southern Pines, was adjudged the best rider in the Camp Class, a special class for riders from all over North Carolina, in the annual Blowing Rock Horse Show last week.

Vicki, who is at Camp Yonahlossee this summer, was awarded a silver trophy in addition to her blue ribbon "first." She was riding one of the horses belonging to the stables of her aunt, Mrs. Verdine Caddell, who has her horses here and teaches riding in the fall, winter and spring seasons.

At the same camp, and riding in the show, was Mrs. Caddell's granddaughter, Amy Caddell Sadler.

News Given Of Guests At The Hollywood Hotel

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wallace Miller of St. Augustine, Fla. are at the Hollywood Hotel this week. Miss Birdelia Bair has returned to the Hollywood from a visit to Linville.

Miss Marion Eastwood of Jacksonville, N. C. was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Culbreth last week.

Looking Ahead

DOGWOOD GROVE

Dogwood Grove 253 of the Supreme Woodmen's Circle will meet Monday, August 12, at 8 p. m. in the Woodmen Hall. All members are urged to attend. Plans for the District Convention, to be held in Dunn in September, will be discussed.

HOSPITAL WORKERS

The volunteer workers of the American Legion Auxiliary will spend Wednesday on ward duty at the Veterans Hospital in Fayetteville.

New Heir-Rivals

MICHAEL L. PATE

A telephone call from a "ham" shortwave radio operator in Boston, Mass., brought to Mrs. Fred D. Woodruff of 765 South Ashe Street, the news of the birth, July 20, of a nephew, Michael Lewis Pate, in Arequipa, Peru. The baby's father, Lewis Pate, is vice consul and director of the U. S. Information Agency there. His wife is the former Sonja Stanzick of Cologne, Germany. The couple, with their young son, plan to return to the States in December. The infant has an uncle, James Pate, who also lives in Southern Pines.

INS and OUTS

Miss Patricia Gordon-Mann left Monday for Fort Benning, Ga., where she plans to spend a week with her sister, Mrs. Nielsen H. Botcher. Lieutenant Botcher is engaged in maneuvers in Operation Swift Strike, III.

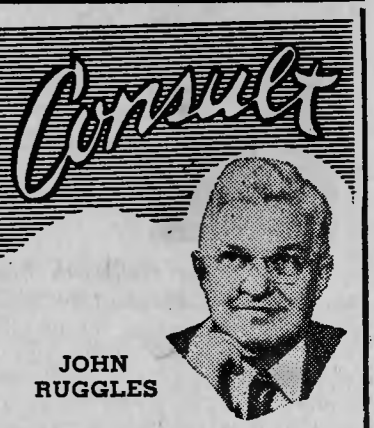

Misses Eva and Kate Graham returned to their home on Dogwood Lane Friday after three weeks in Western North Carolina.

Mrs. S. D. Fobes was a weekend visitor with her daughter, Arden, at Camp Vade Mecum.

Mrs. William Gilbert of Kenwood Farm, left Monday to join her husband at Saratoga for the annual yearling sales and races. Mr. Gilbert has been at the major tracks this summer, racing the Kenwood Farm horses. Mrs. Gilbert will get home tomorrow (Friday) to continue the riding instruction program she started this summer.

Miss Garrett Sutherland plans to leave Monday for Middlebury, Vt., where she will attend the Breadloaf Writers Conference. She expects to be away for about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Newton spent from Thursday through Sunday at Nags Head, where they were joined by Roy Newton, Jr. of Bethesda, Md., and by their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clemm Shankle of Chapel Hill.

JOHN RUGGLES

Realtors are those pledged to an established code of business ethics.

This assures you, the public, of higher standards of service in your real estate transactions - buying, selling, renting - if you consult a Realtor.

Therefore, it is wise to do your real estate business through a Realtor.

WE ARE INDEPENDENT AGENTS!

Barnum Realty & Insurance Co.
Southern Pines, N. C.
Citizens Bank Bldg.

SUBSCRIBE TO THE PILOT,
MOORE COUNTY'S LEADING
NEWS WEEKLY.

We are pleased to announce that

MISS ROBIN FISHER
OF PINEHURST

has joined our sales staff.

JACKSON MOTORS, INC.

Your Ford Dealer

SOUTHERN PINES

WE ARE NOW AN

AUTHORIZED AGENCY FOR

Dr. Posner Children's Shoes

In addition to "Trimfoot" shoes, we are now carrying Dr. Posner shoes. Many have requested this shoe, which is wonderful for those growing feet. You can also buy the corrective shoe made by Dr. Posner.

Fall and Winter Merchandise has just arrived at The Youth Shop.

DRESSES—"Peaches 'n Cream,"
"Ruth of Carolina,"
sizes 3 - 14
"Castro" Toddlers,
1 - 4

BOY'S SHIRTS—"Tam o' Shanter" guaranteed not to shrink or stretch.

Jackets - Suits - Pants
2 - Piece Toddler Sets - some Shift Dresses and many new items for infants

Select early and use our Lay - Away plan

THE YOUTH SHOP

South Street

Aberdeen

Perkinson's Inc.
JEWELERS
Southern Pines, N.C.

Annual Midsummer

SALE

Thurs., July 25

To

Wed., Aug. 21

FRIDAY & SATURDAY
final days of
SUMMER CLEARANCE

SALE

Prices Have Dropped Still Lower

Store will be

CLOSED ALL NEXT WEEK

for remodeling.

Tots' Toggery
Mrs. Hayes Shop

Southern Pines