By MRS. CHARLES CAMERON

On Tour

George (Butch) Griffin spent Thursday night here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Griffin, and returned to Greensboro to the Triangle Y Ranch on Friday to join a group of 40 boys and four counselors, along with the camp director, for a Western Caravan, "Rolling Stones," scheduled to leave the Ranch this week, for a month's tour of California, with Disneyland as their ultimate destination.

They will visit places of interest en route. In California, they will visit glamorous Hollywood, the Brown Derby, Grauman's Theatre, the Hollywood Bowl, the palatial homes of the stars in Beverly Hills, swim in the Blue Pacific, take in a ball game and on to San Francisco to swim in the Fleishacker Pool, which is the world's largest pool. A visit to the Golden Gate Park, Chinatown, Golden Gate Bridge, and dinner at the Plantation, are also among the points of interest eagerly awaited by the tourists.

Butch has been with the Triangle Y for the past three summers as counselor and was selected this year as one of three assistant directors. The camp is sponsored by the YMCA in Greensboro.

He will return to Western Carolina College in the fall where he is a rising senior and plans to teach social sciences.

Circle Meets

Circle 2 of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Vass Methodist Church met Thursday evening in the fellowship hall. Mrs. Charles Cameron, chairman, gave the call to worship, and presided over the business session. Mrs. David Moe read the scripture. The program for the month was "What Shall We Tell Our Children About Suffering." Mrs. Cameron gave an introduction and a reading in relation to the topic. A social hour with refreshments followed, with Mrs. H. M. Klingenschmidt, hostess.

Birth Announcement

An announcement of the birth of a baby girl, born to Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Thomas in Natchez, Miss., was received by Miss Bessie Cameron last week. The proud parents have named their daughter, who weighed in at eight pounds one and one-half ounces, Karen Ann. The couple lived in the apartment in the Cameron home while Mr. Thomas was stationed at Fort Bragg with the National Guard, and Mrs. Thomas taught an elementary class at Vass-Lakeview school.

Attend Funeral

Miss Bessie Cameron and N. N. McLean attended the funeral services for Mrs. Lawrence Cameron in Olivia Sunday afternoon, and visited a cousin Mrs. McIver, at Mamers.

Promoted

Jerry Smith is here on a 30-day leave from Vandenberg AFB, Calif., with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Smith. Prior to his departure, he was given a promotion to Airman First Class. Jerry was recently selected Airman of the month in his squadron.

Transferred

A3 Clifford R. Hudson was recently transferred from Selfridge AFB, Mich., to the Azores, where he is expected to be on duty for the next five months. His new address is: A3 Clifford R. Hudson, AF 14797358, 44th Air Refueling Sqdn., APO 406, New York, N. Y.
