MRS. BRUCE M. HONEYCUTT

COUPLE MARRIED SUNDAY IN ABERDEEN CHURCH, WILL LIVE IN FAYETTEVILLE

The First Baptist Church of Aberdeen Sunday was the scene of a ceremony uniting Miss Rebecca Fay Matthews and Bruce Melvin Honeycutt. The Rev. Zeb A. Caudle of Peachland officiated at the double-ring ceremony at 4:30.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Knox VanBuren Matthews of Aberdeen, and the late Mr. Matthews. Her maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Tate of Southern Pines. She is a graduate of Watts Hospital School of Nursing in Durham and is a member of the nursing staff of the Veterans Hospital in Fayetteville.

Son of Mrs. George Purdie Honeycutt of Roseboro, and the late Mr. Honeycutt, the bridegroom attended Edwards Military Institute and is employed by Crumpler Brick and Tile Company.

Music was presented by Mrs. J. Frank Swaim, organist, and E. H. Poole, soloist. Mr. Poole sang "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Van Matthews. Her sister, Mrs. Thomas E. Tilley of Chapel Hill, was her matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Paul Kitchen of Warsaw, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Van Matthews of Aberdeen, sister-in-law of the bride; and Mrs. Donnie Edwards of Roseboro. Little Miss Melody Lewis of Roseboro was flower girl.

Lenwood Honeycutt of Clinton served his brother as best man. Ushers were Paul Kitchen of Warsaw, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Bob Matthews of Aberdeen, brother of the bride; Donnie Edwards of Roseboro, and Robert C. Owen, Fayetteville.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace and tissue taffeta. The molded bodice was designed with a Sabrina neckline and long sleeves. The skirt was fashioned with a controlled front and full back, highlighted with a cummerbund and extending into a chapel train. Her bouffant silk illusion veil was attached to a crown of pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white feathered carnations and stephanotis centered with white orchids.

Her attendants were attired in street-length sheath dresses of Nile green satin-faced organza. The fitted bodices featured scoop necklines and elbow-length sleeves; and the three-quarter bell overskirts were each fastened to the front waist with a large bow. They wore matching pillbox hats with flirtation veils and carried cascade bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums.

The bride's mother chose a dress of aqua lace and chiffon with matching accessories and she wore a pink orchid at her shoulder. Mrs. Honeycutt, mother of the groom, wore a dress of dusty pink lace and an orchid corsage. Mrs. R. W. Tate, grandmother of the bride, wore a lavender floral print dress with a corsage of carnations.

Gold Ribbon, Check Given Dogwood Grove As Scrapbook Award

Dogwood Grove 253 of the Supreme Woodman circle held its regular meeting Monday night in the Woodmen Hall.

Mrs. Jayne P. Campbell, junior state past president, and Miss Frances Faulk, both members of Cedar Grove 179 of Raeford, were honored guests.

Mrs. Campbell, who recently returned from the National Convention in Chicago, brought good news to the members. She presented Stella Morrison with a white and gold ribbon and a $10 check awarded Dogwood Grove for its scrapbook which took third prize in the nation. Eastern North Carolina state manager, Mrs. Georgia Shepard, accepted the ribbon and check on behalf of Dogwood Grove.

Members of Dogwood Grove gave all credit for the lovely scrapbook to Miss Louise Crain.

In giving the highlights of the convention, Mrs. Campbell told of Mrs. Shepard's receiving the highest award presented at the convention, a floating trophy for being the highest producer of insurance business in the nation.

At the close of the meeting, a drawing was held for the prize, donated by Miss Lessie McNeill and Miss Pauline Crain was the winner of a red and white vase.

The Junior Woman's Club met at Emmanuel Episcopal Church Tuesday night for the first time this season. A covered dish supper was enjoyed by the members and many guests. Hostesses were Mrs. Betty Liddell, Mrs. Catherine Field and Mrs. Sue Edge.

Guest speaker was Dr. Charles Phillips who gave an interesting talk on "cancer detection." He showed the film, "The Other City," produced by the American Cancer Society.

Mrs. Martha Graham was program chairman for this meeting.

A request is made again by the club that anyone having old linen (sheets, pillow cases, white tablecloths), that could be used in making cancer dressings, call Mrs. Glenn Cox, 692-3424.

Sunrise Theatre

The moviegoing public will receive an appraisal of one of the United States' greatest retaliatory weapons when Universal releases "A Gathering of Eagles," starring Rock Hudson, Rod Taylor, Mary Peach and Barry Sullivan scheduled for showing at the Sunrise Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

The ready-to-go Titan I intercontinental ballistic missile will be on vivid display in its underground silo, in color in several sequences of the love story backgrounded against the Strategic Air Command.

Americans—and the rest of the world—will be able to view it in its separate stakes prior to assembly, in its 150-foot deep shaft where it await an order to fire, and protruding almost 100 feet into the air as it stands on its launching platform, ready for firing.

The scenes, filmed at Beale Air Force Base, Calif., have been approved by SAC headquarters.

"A Gathering of Eagles," which Sy Bartlett produced for Universal, tells the story of SAC as it operates now. Also on display in the film are the eight-jet B-52 bombers that carry more destructive power in a single plane than all the bombs dropped by both sides in both World Wars I and II.

NEW ROADS

Skimming across the rolling Piedmont countryside to link up with the Parkway and other mountain route is Interstate 40, already noted for its panoramic views of mountain ranges north of Asheville, "capital of the Land of the Sky." On the coast, new roads and bridges combine with State automobile ferries to give access to seaside resorts and the Cape Hatteras National Seashore.
