

Metropolitan Announces

New Senior Citizens Policies covering expense of hospitalization FOR PEOPLE OVER 65

The premium on these policies may be paid by the older people themselves—or by their children who may have the ultimate responsibility for hospital bills. And—under present income tax laws, these premiums are treated as medical expenses of the taxpayer or his dependents for purposes of income tax deductions.

PINEBLUFF NEWS & PERSONALS

By MRS EHRMAN PICKLER Baptist Circles Meet

Mrs. John H. Carpenter was hostess to the Ida Combs Circle when they met Monday evening. Mrs. Evelyn Monroe gave an interesting program on Grace McBryde, missionary nurse. Mrs. Willard Singletary was elected circle chairman; Mrs. John Carpenter chairman of program and Mrs. Viola Baggett, secretary-treasurer. At the close of the meeting, the hostess served gingerbread, coffee, nuts and mints to the six members and one visitor present.

Circle 1 met with Mrs. Hazel Allison Monday night with nine members and one visitor present. Mrs. H. L. Sessoms assisted Mrs. Charles McMaster in presenting the program on Grace McBryde, missionary nurse. During the social hour, the hostess served refreshments.

Methodist Circles Meet

Monday evening, 14 members, one new member and two visitors, gathered at the home of Mrs. H. H. Troutman for the Monday Night Circle meeting. Mrs. R. G. McCaskill was in charge of the program on "Our Later Years." She was assisted by Mrs. John Fiddner, Sr., Miss Lida Hutchings, Mrs. Ralph Foushee and Mrs. Joseph W. Adams. Mrs. Adams presided and heard reports. At the close of the meeting, the hostess served refreshments.

Mrs. W. R. Griffin was hostess to the Wednesday Morning Circle. Mrs. Elizabeth Elder had the devotional and program on "Our Later Years." Mrs. Griffin served refreshments to the 10 members present.

Club Meets

The Pinebluff Home Demonstration Club welcomed its new home agent, Mrs. Jean M. Hubbard, Thursday afternoon with a large number of members present at the meeting. After taking care of the regular business, new officers for the coming year were elected as follows: Mrs. Harry Charles, president; Mrs. Estelle Griffin, vice president; and Mrs. Theo Berg, treasurer. Mrs. Hubbard gave an informative lesson on new materials used today for dresses, suits and decoration. Mrs. Hazel Allison, the hostess served refreshments.

The Home Demonstration Club also organized a workshop for members who cannot attend in the afternoon. Instruction will be given in knitting, crocheting, making hooked rugs, pine cone wreaths and aprons. With Christmas so near, the club will hold meetings every Friday night, starting at 7:30. This Friday night, October 18, a lesson on making Christmas candles will be given. All who are interested are invited.
