PEGGY MANN TO SPEAK AT DISTRICT MEET, HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUBS

Mrs. Peggy Mann of the Durham TV show will be the featured speaker when Moore County is host county for the District Federation meeting of Home Demonstration Clubs on April 23. Lunch will be served by the Moore County women, and a tour of the Proctor-Silex and Trimble plants is planned for the afternoon.

These plans were announced at a meeting of the Moore County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs, held January 30 in the Home Agent's office, with Mrs. Herbert Harris, vice president, presiding.

Thirty-one members from 14 clubs were present. The Springfield Club, recently reactivated, was given a special welcome.

Mrs. Hubbard gave an explanation of the club and county press books, and Robert Ewing, publisher of the Moore County News, spoke briefly, giving suggestions for sending in news and pictures. Mrs. Lloyd Thomas was named county press chairman.

Committee chairmen, appointed for the district meeting, were: Registration, Mrs. James Hardy; nominating, Mrs. R. R. Thomas; resolutions, Mrs. Lynn Thomas; courtesy, Mrs. Harry Charles.

Another planning meeting will be held at Galatia Presbyterian Church, Raeford, on Thursday, February 13. All county committee chairmen are urged to attend.

County Council meets again April 16, with Stanton Hill Club as hostess.

Students of Pat Starnes' Dance School Have Party

Ballroom students of the Pat Starnes School of Dance, and their guests, enjoyed a semi-formal party at the Holiday Inn Restaurant Saturday night. Nearly 50 attended.

A supper, arranged by Doug Kelly, was followed by dancing in the banquet room.

Students present began weekly courses last September, studying the newest popular dance steps—fox trot, waltz, cha cha, bossa nova and all the latest teen dances.

Assisting Mrs. Starnes in teaching and demonstrating the various steps in the students' classes was Steve Kelly and in adult classes, his brother Paul Kelly. Both are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Kelly.

New teen and adult classes will be formed next September for both beginner and intermediate groups.

new monarchs are crowned and lead the grand march at the dance, sponsored annually by St. Anthony's Women's Club at the National Guard Armory. Mr. Hemmer, who went to the dance in his professional capacity as a photographer only, was more surprised than anyone when he received the honor. (Humphrey photo)

Honor Rolls

Well, as I mentioned last week, many students found their report cards very dissatisfying.

Only two students of the entire high school have maintained "A" averages Charles McLaughlin and Carolyn McRae.

Twenty-four others succeeded in staying on the "A-B" honor roll. They are: Pat Baldwin, Julia McMillan, Rick Lewis, Janis Campbell, Susan Huntley, Jeanne Allred, Bobby Hiatt, Hal Hassenfelt, Stephanie Pollock, Janet Fullenwider, Marcia Telford, Eddy Bridges, Charlie Phillips, Theresa Hicks, Stanley Whitley, Lynda Buchan, Sharon Cornett, Faye Bigbee, Sally Springer, Lawrence Bachman, Steve Kelly, Sandy Crum, Gerry Gilmore, and Nancy Blake.

Herald to Publish

The Knights' Herald will be issued for the third time on February 14, Valentine's Day, it is hoped by the staff. There has been quite a lapse between the second and third issues, but we hope to make up for it soon.

Good News!

Good news for the high school! Students once again will have access to the Student Lounge before and after school, and during the lunch hour. Students lost this privilege as a result of some misuse of it a short while ago. With proper behavior they should keep it until the end of the year. And if it is believed that the students can refrain from fighting over ping-pong paddles, they may also be thought old enough to regain the use of the juke box. Only time will tell.

Sock Hop

The sock hop after the victorious game Friday night was quite successful, aided by a record player which kept things lively, but which also illustrates the need for a juke box.

FHA Events

At the FHA meeting this Monday, films on marriage and the teen years were shown to the girls. The group discussed the problems of teen-agers and their parents, and also what constitutes a good marriage. At the PTA meeting on the second Monday in March, the FHA will work with the Family Living classes, Home Ec 1 and 2, and the eighth grade girls in planning a fashion show. In other words, they will be kept quite busy during the next few weeks.

Two Plays

The Public Speaking class is working on two plays to be presented during the week of February 17-21. On the 19th, half of the class will present to an assembly a one-act play entitled "The Right Kind of House." On Friday, the 21st, the remainder of the class will present to the fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth grades another one-act play called "February Frenzy," which deals with Washington's Birthday, the 22nd. More about the casts next week.

Tryouts

Tryouts for the three-act play, "Hobgoblin House," are being held this week in the student lounge from 8-8:30 each morning. This is open to all students, as is the Knight Masques meeting, which will be held next Monday evening at 7 in the Student Lounge, prior to the PTA meeting for the month of February.

This PTA meeting, which was to have been held last month, will deal with the high school program, starting at 8. The need for parents to realize just what this program is and how it is changing has been recognized because many don't know how changes will affect their children's curriculum. All parents are urged to attend.

Scholarships

Mrs. McPhaul has been conferring with the last of the seniors who need to apply for scholarships, and those who need additional applications. In accordance with her counselor program, Mrs. McPhaul will be giving some tests to underclassmen, to determine their special ability, as the year progresses.

Glee Club

The Glee Club is hard at work in preparation for the Piquet Festival, to be held in early April in Aberdeen. It is quite possible to get an idea of the beautiful selections included in the festival this year by hearing snatches of a few melodies right after fifth period.

Blue Knights Win

The Knights scored another victory over Robbins in an away game Tuesday and will meet Cameron on the home court Friday to make it 15 victories for them, and keep them in second position.

Yellow Jackets Have 5-2 Record In Conference

BY MITCHELL STEVENSON

Bill Ross's fine shooting and Garry Melton's rebounding helped the Yellow Jackets of West Southern Pines High School win six straight games this season.

Then the Jackets lost five straight and everyone had given up hope until they visited Johnsville and beat them by a large margin. After that, the Yellow Jackets came alive by beating Johnsville again and also Aberdeen, Pinehurst, Carthage and Laurel Hill.

The Jackets were hot until they visited Carthage and lost by one point.

They will visit Pinehurst Friday night and try to beat them again.

In Conference games, the Yellow Jackets have a 5-2 record. Their overall record is 5 and 7.

The West Southern Pines girls beat Laurinburg Institute, 35-2, Tuesday night.
