ECC Art Student Pat Farrior Is Practice Teaching

Sixty-seven North Carolina counties and a total of 12 states and the District of Columbia are represented by the 331 East Carolina College students who are practicing-teaching during the current school term.

The 331 education majors are teaching in school systems in 19 Eastern North Carolina counties. Most of the students are Tar Heels, but also represented in the group are Arizona, California, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Maryland, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, South Carolina and Virginia.

Miss Patricia K. Farrior is practicing teaching art in the Greenville City Schools. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Farrior of Southern Pines.

35 Play In First

Summer Club Event

The first tournament for the current season of the Sandhill Summer Club drew a field of 35 Tuesday at the Pinehurst Country Club. Mrs. John W. Rettew took first prize, scoring a net 65 in the stroke play event.

Mrs. William J. Burke, tied at net 69 with Mrs. O. V. Russell and Mrs. Thomas C. Ragan, received the runner-up prize upon matching cards with the other two players.

Scheduled for play next week by the Sandhill Summer Club is a popular best six out of each nine hole event.

100 HOSTESSES AT SILVER TEAS TO AID MENTAL HEALTH PROGRAM

"One hundred hostesses at a silver tea" sounds like an elegant party—and that is what it will be in Moore county during the last week in May.

Only, instead of just one party, it will be 100 parties, on whichever day and of whatever type each hostess prefers. They will all have one thing in common—the bowl for a silver offering for Mental Health.

The countywide committee for the unusual social event was announced last week by Mrs. Ida B. Scott, executive secretary of the Moore County Mental Health association, for David Drexel, association president, who was away.

Mrs. Julian Lake is general chairman, with Mrs. Ted Taws and Mrs. Charles Phillips as co-chairmen. Mrs. William Donovan will serve as treasurer and Mrs. Scott is in charge of promotion and organization.

Mrs. W. W. Allen is chairman for Aberdeen, Mrs. B. E. Dotson and Mrs. Wilbur Currie for Carthage; Mrs. Kate Warren Ferguson and Mrs. Warren Thomas, for Cameron; and in other communities, chairmen are in process of being selected.

About 25 of the 100 hostesses had been enlisted last week, and were busy already planning their parties. The goal is a happy time for all participants—made happier by the help given the county's mental health program.

Wedding of Carthage Native Is Announced

Announced this week is the marriage of Miss Loretta Maley of Halegate, Ohio, and Neill Archie MacLeod, Jr. of Carthage. The wedding took place in the Collingwood Presbyterian Church, Toledo, Ohio, March 30.

The young couple is living at 714 West Jefferson Boulevard, South Bend, Ind.

Mr. MacLeod is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. MacLeod of Carthage and a grandson of Mrs. Curtis MacLeod and the late Mr. MacLeod.

A graduate of the Carthage High School, he attended Presbyterian Junior College and St. Andrews College. He is presently associated with Holiday Inns, Inc., his work taking him through the Mid-Western states.

Two Local Couples Will Attend Fourth Annual Symphony Ball

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Broughton will be attending the fourth annual Symphony Ball tomorrow, Friday night, at the Executive Mansion in Raleigh.

The decorations, menu and entertainment will carry out the theme of the Ball-Planation Days.

Jay Willoughby and Miss Barbara Lockart Cornett, stars of "The Stephen Foster Story," an outdoor symphonic drama currently showing in Bardstown, Ky.—and written by North Carolina's Paul Green—will sing favorite songs of Stephen Foster.

There will be waltzing to the North Carolina Symphony Orchestra and dancing to the Duke Ambassadors later in the evening.

Co-chairmen of the Ball are Mrs. Ralph B. Reeves, Jr., of Raleigh and John M. Belk of Charlotte. All guests are invited to a Pre-Ball Party at the Elizabeth Room in Hotel Sir Walter.

Mrs. Underwood, Par Seekers Winner In Last Week's Tourney

Mrs. F. H. Underwood of Carthage won the weekly tournament, a blind hole, at the Southern Pines Country Club last Wednesday.

In the handicap tournament now being played, Mrs. Barney Avery defeated Mrs. William Donovan last week; Mrs. T. Clark Worth, Jr. won over Mrs. Bud Carbin and Mrs. Dick Taylor defeated Mrs. Clarence Foster.

Finals of the handicap tournament will be given later.

MISS MILLER

ENGAGEMENT OF MISS GAIL MILLER AND GEORGE REAMS, UNC STUDENT, TOLD

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Strong Miller, Webster Groves, Mo., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Gail Miller, to George Lorraine Reams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Elsom Reams of Twin Gables, Southern Pines.

Miss Miller is on the faculty of the East Southern Pines High School.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Webster Groves High School and Duke University, where she was a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority, president of the Women's Recreational Association and on the Women's Debate Team.

She has spent many summers at Camp Miniwanca, Shelby, Mich., as a camper and leader.

In 1961 she travelled in Europe with a group of college students, including her brother Elliott White Miller of New Orleans, La.

Only one of her grandparents is living, Mrs. A. C. White of Palo Alto, Calif. She and Dr. White were longtime residents of Mexico, Mo. Her other grandparents were Mr. and Mrs. T. Elliott Miller of Oak Park, Ill.

The prospective bridegroom is a graduate of East Southern Pines High School and will be graduated in June, with a major in Business Administration, from

John Blue Chapter, UDC, Holds Final Meeting of Season

The John Blue chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met last Wednesday evening at the Whispering Pines Restaurant. On arrival, the hostesses, Mrs. George Martin, Mrs. Lee Buchan, Mrs. E. L. Pleasants, Mrs. Clayton Brasington and Miss Jeanette Leach, served the 28 members and four guests delicious refreshments.

Mrs. C. S. Patch, Sr., president, presided.

Mrs. A. L. Burney reported a total of $41.48 was collected on the sale of Confederate flags in Carthage and Southern Pines. Mrs. Victor Grose reported that the flag sale would be held in Aberdeen on Saturday, May 16.

Miss Nannie Gilchrist gave a report on the historical essays written by 34 eighth grade pupils in the Southern Pines school. Mrs. John McCrummen, chairman of the essay contest in the Aberdeen school, reported that 37 participated. At a later date, the winners will be announced.

Mrs. McCrummen, program chairman of the Chapter, introduced Mrs. Forrest Lockey, who gave a most impressive reading, "John Blue - Confederate Soldier," which was written by her husband.

The club adjourned until the next meeting on September 9.

Three-Way Tie Registered By Duplicate Players

Mrs. James Pleasants and Mrs. T. Clark Worth, Jr. walked off with first prize in Tuesday's weekly get-together of members of the Sandhill Duplicate Club.

A tight three-way tie, with only a half-point's difference between the three pairs was registered by Mrs. C. D. May and partner, Mrs. William J. Burke; Frank deCosta and Harold Markham; and Mrs. Betsy Hitson and Mrs. Jean Edson.

:-: In and Out of Town :-:

Misses Kate and Eva Graham had as a Sunday dinner guest Miss Agnes Cameron of Vass.

Returning Monday from New York were Mrs. Emanuel Sonntag and her daughter, Joanne, who spent several days in Troy, visiting Joanne's sister, Bonnie, a student at Emma Willard School. They also spent some time in New York City, where they attended a performance of the Eugene O'Neill play, "Marco Millions," at the new Lincoln Center Repertory Theatre.

Mrs. T. A. Mattocks returned home Tuesday after a week at Moore Memorial Hospital.

Dr. and Mrs. R. M. McMillan made a hurried trip to Delray Beach, Fla. last weekend to visit Dr. William C. Mudgett and his wife. Dr. Mudgett has been ill, but the McMillans reported that the former Southern Pines resident and physician seemed much better.

Here for the weekend at their place on Fairway Drive were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Longcope of New York City.

Returning Wednesday to their home in Hertford, following a few days' visit with Dr. and Mrs. W. Harrell Johnson and family, were Dr. Johnson's sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles Johnson and her daughter, Gail.

Spending this week at the coast are Mrs. Joseph P. Marley and her son, Joe, Jr. The latter is recuperating from a recent operation.

Miss Gussie Cameron spent Monday in Raleigh on business.

Returning Sunday from a weekend near Ocean Isle were Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Harper and children, Walter and Betsy.

Dr. and Mrs. Julian Lake spent Monday in Richmond, Va., where he attended a meeting of the board of trustees of Union Theological Seminary.

Here until Saturday with Mrs. Isaac A. Woodell are her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Ruckert of Roseville, Mich., with their two daughters, Chris and Kimberly, who arrived on Monday's Day. Last weekend, Sandy Ruckert, her husband and the children, visited Sandy's sisters Mrs. Keith Oates and family at Morehead City and the Tommy Campbells at Washington, D. C.

They were accompanied by another sister, Vicki. The Oates family is expected to spend this weekend with Mrs. Woodell.
