MOORE RECORDERS COURT

Harnett Youths Draw Probationary Terms For Break-ins In This Area

Two Harnett County youths, Boyd K. Price, 21, of Sanford Rt. 7, and Bobby J. Sharpe, 19, of Sanford Rt. 6, were given probationary terms, along with multiple fines, in Moore Recorder's Court at Carthage Monday for breaking and entering and larceny.

Price and Sharpe were recently arrested in Lee County and admitted break-ins and thefts in Moore, Lee and Harnett counties. They have now been tried in both Lee and Harnett counties, while Moore waited its turn. They have been placed on probation in all three counties.

In the Moore court, the youths pleaded guilty to breaking into Dr. Medlin's and Dr. Vander-Voort's Sandhills Dental Clinic at Aberdeen June 16, causing extensive damage to the building, especially the doors, and taking a money box containing about $18 and an electric desk clock; Marsh's Grocery Store near West End, where they took cigarettes, tobacco, lighter fluid and other merchandise, less than $20 worth; The Pinebluff Products

Co. at Pinebluff July 3, breaking into a cigarette machine there and taking cigarettes and money, and Smithson's of Southern Pines, Inc., on US Highway 1 north of Southern Pines, where they stole a cash box containing around $50, also on July 3.

In addition, Price admitted breaking into the new Golf World office building in Southern Pines the night of June 14 with the intent to steal, though nothing actually was taken.

On each of the cases, each defendant was sentenced to eight months on the roads, to be served consecutively, each sentence suspended on two years' probation and payment of $100 fine in each case, the fines to be payable at the rate of $10 per month, plus costs. While on probation they were ordered not to operate a car on the public roads, nor to violate any of the laws against breaking and entering, larceny or trespass, also to be on good behavior generally, or else all the road sentences would come into effect, making a total of 40 months for Price, 32 months for Sharpe.

Charles Sparks, Jr., 21-year-old Negro soldier of Fort Bragg, pleading not guilty to the charge of assault with deadly weapon with intent to kill, declared his desire for a lawyer and his lack of ability to pay one, requesting that the court appoint one. This the court did, allowing two hours for the attorney to get up a defense for the soldier, who was accused of the near-fatal beating of a 67-year-old woman after both had been drinking at Sally's Place, near Montgomery county, the night of July 3. Sally's Place has since been closed for the next three years, by order of the court.

Sparks was found guilty of assault and battery on a female, inflicting serious and permanent injury but without intent to kill. Sentenced to serve 18 months on the roads, the defendant through his attorney gave notice of appeal and bond was set at $500.

Other cases disposed of: Claude Bennett McQuage, Jr., Carthage, speeding 75 in 60-mile zone, $20 and costs; Richard Fred Prestwood, Lenoir, driving while drunk, $100 and costs, license revoked 12 months; Graham E. Chriscoe, Seagrove Rt. 2, careless and reckless driving, accident, personal injury, judgment continued 12 months on payment of $25 and costs, not to violate laws against speeding and reckless driving in that time; Bryce Blackwell, Lexington, careless and reckless driving, accident, driving after license suspension, 90 days suspended for 12 months on payment of $200 and costs, defendant to pay or cause to be paid damage and medical expenses of persons hurt; DeWitt T. Seawell, Asheboro, public drunkenness, five days in jail and pay costs; Hanes Mace, Jr., Laurinburg, larceny of clothes valued at less than $50, nad James Williams, Raleigh, aiding and abetting, four months on roads each, defendant Mace gave notice of appeal and bond was set at $300.

William Forrest, Eagle Springs, driving without license, 30 days or $10 and costs; Donnie Vann Armstrong, driving without license, on wrong side, 30 days suspended for 12 months on payment of $25 and costs; Dorothy Joline Rogers, Robbins, exceeding safe speed, accident, $10 and costs; Herbert All Russell, Asheboro Rt. 5, speeding 65 in 55-mile zone, $10 and costs; Larry Thomas Jackson, Eagle Springs, assault with deadly weapon, four months or $25 and costs, defendant to pay medical expenses of Lovell Spencer; nol pros with leave taken by State in cases against Lovell Spencer, charged with assault, Henry Richardson, assault with deadly weapon, and Edward Person, aiding and abetting.

Robert Gilliam Richardson and Robert Elwood Morgan, both of Eagle Springs, exceeding safe speed, both pleaded not guilty, found guilty, $10 and costs each, Richardson notified of appeal and bond was set at $100; James Aubrey Locke, Sanford Rt. 3, driving while drunk, $100 and costs, license revoked as provided by law; Danny Osborne Caviness, Lakeview, careless and reckless driving, accident, $25 and costs.
